2024 NAVY FOOTBALL

GAME DAY IN ANNAPOLIS

An American treasure, Navy football will bring a small historic district to life five times this fall. A Navy football "Game Day Experience" is unrivaled by any other collegiate football game in the country. Each home game lends itself to an entire day of fun, an event to say the least, for fans of all ages. From the minute fans arrive at the stadium, they are entrenched in wholesome entertainment everywhere they turn.

NAVYFEST

Looking for a more intimate setting for your group event? NavyFest is an area that provides space for groups of 30 to 1,000 to gather with friends, family, employees, clients and neighbors in anticipation of the heated action on the field. From your game ticket to a buffet lunch by one of our preferred caterers, everything can be provided as you experience one of the best tailgating traditions in college football. It is also the best place to view the march-on of the Brigade of Midshipmen. Please contact our group sales office at grouptickets@usna.edu or by calling (410) 293-8743 or (410) 293-8791.

PAGEANTRY

True patriotism and pride in one's country are felt every home game when the entire Brigade of Midshipmen marches from the grounds of the Academy to midfield of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium to salute its school, its team and most importantly, its country. Immediately following the National Anthem, often sung by the Naval Academy glee club, fans experience one of the most breathtaking moments of their lives, as military aircraft fly overhead to welcome the start of the game.

TEAM WALK

Don't miss the Navy football team's arrival at the stadium as it makes its way from the team buses through NavyFest and into the locker room. Join the Navy cheerleaders and fellow fans at the Mid Walk, two-and-a-half hours before every home game near the Blue Angel on the blue (press box) side parking lot.

THE GAME

Game day features even more tradition and pageantry, beginning with the sounding of the cannon, symbolizing the official start of the game and heard again only when Navy scores. When the Mids put points on the board, fans witness another spectacle as a sea of plebes race to the North end zone to do push-ups that match their team's point total on the scoreboard.

POSTGAME

1926 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

In today's modern era, three undefeated teams with nearly identical records would cause a stir among fans and pollsters alike. This was the case when Navy earned its lone national championship in 1926, as the Midshipmen shared the honor with Stanford and Alabama.

A 7-7 tie between Alabama and Stanford in the 1926 Rose Bowl gave the Cardinal a 10-0-1 mark, while the Crimson Tide and the Mids each had identical 9-0-1 records.

The Midshipmen opened the '26 season with a new coach, Bill Ingram. A former Navy standout from 1916-1918, Ingram took over a Navy team that had only won seven games in the previous two seasons combined. One of the keys to Navy's 1926 squad was a potent offense led by All-America tackle and team captain Frank Wickhorst, who proved to be a punishing blocker for the Navy offense. One member of the Navy offense that appreciated the blocking of Wickhorst was Tom Hamilton. The quarterback and kicker had a pair of 100-yard rushing games en route to All-America honors.

Navy's biggest win that year was against Michigan in front of 80,000 fans in Baltimore. The Mids scored 10 second-half points to upset the Wolverines, 10-0. Navy's offense tallied 165 yards behind the powering attack of Hamilton and Henry Caldwell who scored Navy's lone touchdown on a one-yard plunge. Jubilation from the victory continued after the game, as the Midshipmen tore down the goal post at each end of the field and carried away all the markers that lined both sides of the field. The joy replaced the disappointment of the previous year when Michigan handed Navy its worst loss in school history at the time, 54-0.

Navy headed into its season finale against Army with a 9-0 record. The game was to be played in Chicago at Soldier Field, which had been built as a memorial to the men killed in World War I. It was only natural Army and Navy would be invited to play the inaugural contest there. James R. Harrison of the New York Times described the game as "the greatest of its time and as a national spectacle." Over 110,000 people witnessed the Midshipmen open up a 14-0 lead on the Cadets, only to see Army fight back to take a 21-14 lead early in the third quarter. The Navy offense responded behind its strong ground game led by running back Alan Shapley. On fourth down and three yards to go, Shapley ran eight yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 21. As the final quarter concluded, Army mounted a brief threat only to miss a 25-yard field goal.

The tie gave the Midshipmen a share of the national championship, as a pair of polls, Boand and Houlgate, named Navy the national champion.

1960 HEISMAN TROPHY

JOE BELLINO

Naval Academy legend and 1960 Heisman Trophy winner Joe Bellino passed away on March 27, 2019, in Massachusetts at the age of 81. Bellino was a 1961 graduate of the Naval Academy and was Navy's first Heisman Trophy winner and first football player to have his number retired.

Bellino, a native of Winchester, Mass., was known as the player who was never caught from behind. In just three seasons, he scored 31 touchdowns, rushed for 1,664 yards on 330 carries, returned 37 kicks for 833 yards and set 15 school records.

Bellino was a unanimous All-America selection at halfback in 1960 and was also the winner of the Maxwell Award. His end zone interception preserved Navy's 17-12 win over Army that season. The Midshipmen were ranked as high as fourth in the country and went on to play in the Orange Bowl on Jan. 1, 1961.

Bellino was also an outstanding catcher and outfielder on the Navy baseball team. He hit .428 in 22 games in 1959 and led the Eastern Intercollegiate League in stolen bases. He had a .320 average in 1960 and was the baseball team captain in 1961.

Army partisans can hardly forget the 1959-60 academic year for what Bellino did to the Cadets. In addition to his three-touchdown performance in the 1959 Army-Navy game, he was equally sensational in the Army-Navy baseball game in 1960. Bellino went 4-for-4 at the plate, drove in three runs, stole two bases and threw out two Army runners attempting to steal as Navy carved out a 9-1 win.

Bellino capped off his senior year (1960-61) at the Academy by winning the school's top two athletic awards, the Thompson Trophy and the Naval Academy Athletic Association Sword, marking the first time in 41 years that one midshipman received both of these awards.

Bellino's number 27 jersey in football was retired after the 1960 season. He had a three-year stint with the Boston Patriots after he had completed his four-year service obligation. He stayed in the Navy Reserves for 24 more years and reached the rank of Captain.

Bellino was a 1977 inductee into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame and was a charter inductee into the Maryland Football Shrine in 1984. The Bellino Auditorium in Ricketts Hall is named after this outstanding athlete and in 2009, he was named to the Navy-Marine Corps Memorial All-Stadium Team. During its annual season-ending football banquet, Navy presents the Joe Bellino Award to the varsity football player whose inspiring on-field performance made a significant impact on the team and contributed to its overall success during the season.

Bellino worked for 40 years in the auto leasing and auction industry and prior to that was an independent business owner. He was also a longtime member of the Board of Directors of the Northern Bank and Trust, but was most proud of his participation in local or national charities, including that for the Disabled and Limbless Veterans.

Bellino is survived by his wife of 57 years, Ann; his son, John, a 1989 graduate of the Naval Academy; and his daughter, Therese, as well as his daughter-in-law Annette and three grandsons, Ian, Evan and Eric; and his son-in-law Cary.

"I remember watching Joe dominate Army in the 1959 Army-Navy game and his performance that day helped me decide that I wanted to go to the Naval Academy," said Roger Staubach, who won the Heisman Trophy in 1963. "When I got to the Naval Academy in 1961, Joe was there as a TAD coach. He coached the plebe backfield and was my first college position coach. I've always been a big fan of his. He was as good as it gets as a person, I idolized him. I watched Navy football quite a bit on television when I was in high school and the biggest reason was to watch Joe Bellino. He was known for his big calves. He was so strong and had great speed. He will certainly be missed."

"Joe was my first hero and football inspiration. His standard of excellence was a great example for me, as well as everyone associated with the Naval Academy and college football fans," said New England Patriots head coach Bill Belichick, who grew up in Annapolis and whose father, Steve, was a longtime assistant coach at Navy.

"Joe excelled in football and baseball at Navy and I attended many of his games with my father. My father held Joe in high esteem and my parents remained close with Joe and his family," continued Belichick. "Joe was a warm and unselfish person – I feel privileged to have enjoyed a lifelong friendship with him. The first football game I remember was in 1959 when Joe scored three touchdowns in Navy's 43-12 victory over Army. When Joe graduated in 1961 he gave me his midshipman cover – 50 years later, I gave it back to him because it belongs in his family. He was very helpful to me when I came to the Patriots. He spoke to our team several times and helped many of our players and coaches through his connections in this area. I enjoyed the opportunity to see and talk to him on a regular basis for the last 20 years. Joe was a great man and I will miss him greatly."

1963 HEISMAN TROPHY

ROGER STAUBACH

Known as "Roger the Dodger," Roger Staubach has scrambled his way to success as a college athlete, an All-Pro NFL quarterback and as a successful businessman.

In 1963, Staubach became the second Naval Academy football player in four years to win the Heisman Trophy. It was his junior season with the Midshipmen, and all he did was lead Navy to a ranking of second in the country and a berth in the Cotton Bowl, where he set Bowl records for pass completions (21-of-31) and yards passing (228). The Midshipmen posted wins over West Virginia, Michigan, Notre Dame and Maryland that season. He completed 106 passes in 161 attempts for 1,474 yards, while earning consensus All-America honors, as well as the Maxwell Trophy and Walter Camp Memorial Trophy.

At one time, Staubach, who was hampered by injuries in his senior season of 1964, had set 28 Naval Academy records in football. He also had some outstanding performances as a varsity baseball player and a brief but significant moment as a varsity basketball player. He lettered in baseball three-straight years (1963-65) as an outfielder and pitcher. In 1963, he hit .420, and in 1965 he was the team captain. He also won a letter in basketball in 1962-63.

Staubach was the recipient of the Thompson Trophy Cup at the Academy for three-consecutive years and was the 1965 winner of the Naval Academy Athletic Association Sword. He was the first sophomore to win the Thompson Trophy Cup and is its only three-time winner. He was only the fourth midshipman since 1900 to win both the Thompson Trophy Cup and NAAA Sword.

After four years in the United States Navy, including a tour in Vietnam, Staubach joined the Dallas Cowboys and led that team to unprecedented heights. Again, displaying the daring play he had shown at Navy, Staubach directed the Cowboys to 23 fourth-quarter comeback wins, 14 in the final two minutes of a game or in overtime. He played 11 seasons with the Cowboys and led them to the Super Bowl four times, including world championships in 1972 and 1978. The Cowboys were 90-31 with Staubach as their starting quarterback.

Among his awards were the NFL Players Association Most Valuable Player and The Sporting News NFL Player of the Year in 1971, Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl VI (1972), Washington Touchdown Club NFC Player of the Year in 1976 and 1978, NFC Pro Bowl selection five times, the Vince Lombardi Sportsman of the Year Award in 1975, NFL Players' Association NFC Offensive Player of the Year (1978), and the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in 1979.

Staubach was named Walter Camp Foundation Man of the Year in 1985, was selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1985, his first year of eligibility, and inducted into the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame in 1981.

The football locker room in Ricketts Hall was named in his honor in 1996 and in 2008, Staubach received the National Football Foundation's Gold Medal, the highest honor one can receive from that organization. Staubach has also been honored as a "Distinguished Graduate" of the United States Naval Academy.

He was named to the Walter Camp All-Century Team, was elected into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame, spearheaded a successful movement to land North Texas and the Dallas Cowboys the Super Bowl in 2011 and was named to the Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium All-Stadium Team.

Staubach married his high school sweetheart, Marianne, and the couple have been married for 59 years. They have five children, 15 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

GO NAVY! BEAT ARMY!

At the Naval Academy, beating Army is paramount. Plebes yell "Beat Army!" in Bancroft Hall, "Beat Army!" is on every weight in the Naval Academy weight rooms, and alums and fans alike yell "Beat Army!" at the end of Blue & Gold, the Naval Academy's alma mater.

The annual showdown between the two rivals in each sport is deemed the Star Game with the players from the winning team receiving a Star for their letter sweaters. For those sports that face Army multiple times in a season, the Star Game is designated prior to the start of the year.

Once again, Navy won both the Star series and the overall series against Army in 2023-24, going 14-11-1 (.558) in the Star series and 19-17-1 (.527) in the overall series.

Navy is 40-4-2 in the Star series over the last 46 years and 48-4 in the overall series over the last 52 years. Navy leads the all-time series against Army in all sports 1180-894-45 (.597).

COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF'S TROPHY

The Commander-In-Chief's Trophy is presented annually to the winner of the football competition among the three major service academies — Army, Navy and Air Force — and is named in honor of the President of the United States.

Navy has won the trophy 11 times in the last 21 years and the Mids are 28-15 over the last 43 games against Army and Air Force.

Navy has won the trophy a total of 16 times: 1973, 1975, 1978, 1979, 1981, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2012, 2013, 2015 and 2019.

When there is no clear-cut winner, the trophy remains with the winner of the previous year's competition.

The three-sided trophy stands two-and-a-half-feet tall and is engraved with the academy seals. Reproductions of the three mascots — the Army Mule, the Navy Goat and the Air Force Falcon — are ensconced on the respective sides of this bauble. The trophy is sponsored by the West Point Association of Graduates, the Naval Academy Alumni Association and the Air Force Association of Graduates.

The year in which the trophy is won is engraved on a plate gracing the respective academy's side of the trophy.

AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The American Athletic Conference, which has established itself as a preeminent NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision conference, is poised to continue its remarkable ascension to national prominence under the leadership of Commissioner Tim Perneti, who began his tenure in May of 2024.

The American consists of 15 prestigious institutions: the University of Alabama at Birmingham, the United States Military Academy (in football only), the University of North Carolina Charlotte, East Carolina University, Florida Atlantic University, the University of Memphis, the United States Naval Academy (in football only), the University of North Texas, Rice University, the University of South Florida, Temple University, the University of Texas at San Antonio, Tulane University, the University of Tulsa, and Wichita State University (in basketball and Olympic sports).

The American has fashioned an impressive list of accomplishments in the competitive arena, in the classroom and in support of student-athlete welfare. The American stands as one of the elite Division I conference thanks to its collection of national team and individual championships, its football and basketball postseason victories, its expansive media rights contract with ESPN, and its commitment to providing the highest levels of support for student-athletes.

With the addition of Army to the conference ranks in 2024, The American has an institutional presence in five of the top 10, eight of the top 25 and 13 of the top 51 Nielsen media markets.

The league has produced four NCAA championship teams in addition to a College Football Playoff semifinalist, four New Year's Six bowl champions, two NCAA Men's Final Four participants, six Women's Final Four teams, an NIT champion, 15 NCAA individual championships, and a Rhodes Scholar. Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, qualified for the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship and registered multiple top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country and Outdoor Track and Field championships.

The American has seen a member school claim a spot in a New Year's Six bowl eight times in the league's first 11 football seasons, including the 2022 campaign, when Tulane capped the biggest one-year turnaround in major college football history with a thrilling win against USC in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic.

Individual teams in The American have enjoyed some of their best football seasons in program history as members of the conference. Tulane went 12-2 and earned a top-10 final ranking in 2022. Navy won a program-record 11 games in 2015, its first season in the conference, and matched that mark with its 2019 campaign. Memphis, which had not won 10 games in a season since 1938, has registered three 10-win seasons in the last nine years (2015, 2017, 2019), including a school-record 12 wins in 2019. Temple enjoyed its first 10-win season in school history in 2015. South Florida finished in the top 25 for the first two times in program history (2016, 2017). Tulsa returned to the top 25 for the first time in 11 years in 2020. East Carolina earned a top-20 ranking in 2014.

Since the conference's reconstitution in 2013-14, teams from The American have registered top-10 national rankings in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer, women's soccer, women's lacrosse, men's golf, women's rowing, men's tennis, women's tennis, men's cross country, men's track and field, and women's track and field.

American Athletic Conference student-athletes have distinguished themselves in all facets of intercollegiate athletics. Memphis quarterback Brady White was the 2020 winner of the National Football Foundation's James V. Campbell Trophy as the top scholar-athlete in college football. Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while Tulsa linebacker Zaven Collins repeated that feat in 2020. The American has had four top-10 Heisman Trophy finishes including Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds, who was fifth in 2015. Reynolds was also selected as the winner of the 2016 AAU James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athlete.

Additionally, South Florida star Georgina Corrick was the Division I softball Academic All-America of the Year in 2022, while Tulsa cross country standout Kirk Smith was chosen as a Rhodes Scholar in the fall of 2016.

American Athletic Conference alumni have made their mark in professional and international sports as well. A number of American Athletic Conference athletes have been selected in the first round of the professional entry drafts in football, basketball, baseball and soccer, including former Memphis center James Wiseman, who was the No. 2 pick in the 2020 NBA Draft, and former Wichita State third-baseman Alec Bohm, the No. 3 selection in the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft. Former Memphis tennis player Joe Salisbury, a 2014 all-conference selection, has gone on to win five Grand Slam championships in men's doubles and mixed doubles. Former Tulane standout Dominik Koepfer has earned a top-50 world ranking in men's tennis and reached the fourth round of the US Open in 2019.

The American announced a lucrative and comprehensive media rights extension with ESPN in May of 2019, providing the conference with a stronger and more extensive presence on ESPN's primary television networks (ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU). Since the extension took effect in the 2020-21 academic year, a minimum of 40 regular-season football telecasts and 60 regular-season men's basketball games per season will appear on those primary networks. Nearly every conference-controlled game in all sports will appear either on an ESPN network or on ESPN+.

The first nine American Athletic Conference Football Championships were televised by ABC as part of Championship Weekend. Subsequent championship games will appear on either ABC or ESPN through the duration of the 12-year extension, including the 2024 game, which will air in Friday prime time on ABC.

Away from the competitive arena, The American has established itself as a leader in the area of student-athlete wellness, both through the adoption of NCAA autonomous legislation on matters including full cost of attendance and nutrition. The American's Academic Symposium annually features scholars and students engaged in collaborative research related to student-athlete well-being.

The conference, in conjunction with its Student-Athlete Advisory Committee has also launched the Powerful Minds campaign to improve awareness and education on mental health issues and recognize the scholarly achievements of the conference's student-athletes.

USNA HISTORY & TRADITIONS

When the founders of the United States Naval Academy were looking for a suitable location, it was reported that then Secretary of the Navy George Bancroft decided to move the naval school to "the healthy and secluded" location of Annapolis in order to rescue midshipmen from "the temptations and distractions that necessarily connect with a large and populous city." The Philadelphia Naval Asylum School was its predecessor. Four of the original seven faculty members came from Philadelphia. Other small naval schools in New York City, Norfolk, Va., and Boston, Mass. also existed in the early days of the United States.

The United States Navy was born during the American Revolution when the need for a naval force to match the Royal Navy became clear. But during the period immediately following the Revolution, the Continental Navy was demobilized in 1785 by an economy-minded Congress.

Through the efforts of Bancroft, the Naval School was established without Congressional funding, at a 10-acre Army post named Fort Severn in Annapolis, Maryland, on October 10, 1845, with a class of 50 midshipmen and seven professors. The curriculum included mathematics and navigation, gunnery and steam, chemistry, English, natural philosophy, and French.

Congress authorized the Naval Academy to begin awarding bachelor of science degrees in 1933. The Academy later replaced a fixed curriculum taken by all midshipmen with the present core curriculum plus 18 major fields of study, a wide variety of elective courses and advanced study and research opportunities.

Since then, the development of the United States Naval Academy has reflected the history of the country. As America has changed culturally and technologically so has the Naval Academy. In just a few decades, the Navy moved from a fleet of sail and steam-powered ships to a high-tech fleet with nuclear-powered submarines and surface ships and supersonic aircraft. The academy has changed, too, giving midshipmen state-of-the-art academic and professional training they need to be effective naval officers in their future careers.

ANCHORS AWEIGH

"Anchors Aweigh" was written by Lt. Charles Zimmermann, Musical Director of the Naval Academy in 1906, with the lyrics provided by Alfred H. Miles of the Class of 1906, as a fight song for the 1907 graduating class instead of the usual class march Zimmermann had composed for previous classes. The song made its debut at the 1906 Army-Navy game, and when the Midshipmen won the game, the song became traditional at this game. It gained national exposure in the 1920s and 1930s when it was heard on the radio and was in a number of popular movies. In 1997 a one-hour documentary on the history of Navy football, titled "Anchors Aweigh for Honor and Glory", was produced by NFL Films. The film was deemed a success by both critics and fans alike. Here are the words:

*Stand Navy down the field, Sails set to the sky,
We'll never change our course, So Army you steer shy.
Roll up the score, Navy, Anchors Aweigh,
Sail Navy down the field, And sink the Army,
Sink the Army Grey*

BILL THE GOAT

The first recorded use of a goat mascot for Navy athletic teams was in 1893 when an animal named El Cid (The Chief) was turned over to the Brigade by young officers of the USS New York. El Cid helped Navy to a 6-4 triumph over Army that year. Two cats, a dog, and a carrier pigeon have also enjoyed brief reigns as the Navy mascot, but goats have served without interruption since 1904.

Bill XXXVII (37) is the current mascot. A group of midshipmen from the 8th company, known as Team Bill, are trained as goat handlers to ensure the goats' safety, security and comfort on the sidelines during football games.

BLUE & GOLD

This song was written in 1923 by Cmdr. Roy de Saussure Horn, USN (Ret.) with music composed by J.W. Crosley. Following every home athletic competition, the team faces its fans with its hand on its heart and sings the following:

*Now, colleges from sea to sea
May sing of colors true;
But who has better right than we
To hoist a symbol hue?
For sailors brave in battle fair,
Since fighting days of old,
Have proved the sailor's right to wear
The Navy Blue and Gold*

ENTERPRISE BELL

From the bridge of the famed World War II aircraft carrier, it has been a part of the Naval Academy tradition since 1950. The late Admiral Harry W. Hill, then Superintendent, was instrumental in bringing the "E" Bell to Annapolis. It rings during special ceremonies honoring the sports teams that won the N-Star against Army. The bell is stationed in front of Bancroft Hall.

HERNDON CLIMB

The Herndon Monument Climb is the traditional culmination of plebe year at the Naval Academy. Demonstrating the teamwork and perseverance they have learned during their first year at the academy, the plebes build a human pyramid to remove the "dixie cup" hat at the top of the vegetable shortening-covered monument and replace it with an upperclassman's hat. After successfully completing the Herndon climb, the freshmen are no longer called plebes but "fourth class midshipmen."

MIDSHIPMAN

The word midshipman first appeared in English in the 17th century in the form of the word midshipman to designate those men who were stationed "amidships," i.e. in the waist or middle portion of the vessel, while on duty. By 1687, however, the second 's' had been dropped to give the current form of the word. Midshipmen were originally boys, sometimes as young as seven or eight, who were apprenticed to sea captains to learn the sailor's trade.

In the early days of the American Navy, midshipmen trained aboard ship until they were eventually commissioned as ensigns. With the founding of the Naval Academy in 1845, it became possible, as it still is, for a midshipman to enter the Navy directly from civilian life. The name of students at the Naval Academy changed several times between 1870 and 1902, when Congress restored the original title of Midshipman, and it has remained unchanged since.

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

Navy is dedicated to providing its student-athletes top-notch game day and practice atmospheres in every sport. Navy annually ranks among the league leaders in attendance in nearly every sport and has hosted numerous Patriot League and NCAA Championship events. Recently, many of the facilities have undergone extensive renovations, showing Navy's commitment, dedication and passion to provide the very best for its athletes.

Navy has played host to the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Quarterfinals seven times, the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship Weekend, the 2022 NCAA Division III Football National Championship game, the season-opening Veterans Classic for men's basketball featuring some of the top teams in the country including two teams that went to the Final Four the same year they participated, Michigan State and North Carolina, the College Squash Association Individual Championship, the CWPA Eastern Water Polo Championship, the EIWA Wrestling Championship, the NCAA Zone Diving Championship, the ECAC Swimming Championship, the Women's Intercollegiate Sailing National Championship, the ECAC and the USAG Collegiate Gymnastics Championship, is the yearly home of the Military Bowl and in 2017 hosted the Naval Academy Baseball Classic exhibition game between the Washington Nationals and Boston Red Sox at Terwilliger Brothers Field at Max Bishop Stadium. In 2018, the Naval Academy hosted an NHL hockey game at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium between the Washington Capitals and the Toronto Maple Leafs. The Glenn Warner Soccer Facility hosted the U.S. Men's National Team for a 10-day training camp in the summer of 2019. Crystal Palace played host to Wolverton in a Premier League Friendly in July of 2024.

Navy's facilities have also undergone major renovations and construction improvements, from the building of the $52 million Wesley A. Brown Field House to a $64 million overhaul of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium that gives the Midshipmen a dominant home-field football presence and made the facility the finest in college lacrosse.

The renovation of Ricketts Hall was completed in the fall of 2021 with the 25,000 square foot Ron Terwilliger Center for Student-Athletes at Ricketts Hall ($28 million), which will provide the public with extensive information regarding the physical mission and will provide much needed program space for the varsity teams including a new auditorium. The center also includes a 5,000 square-foot rehabilitation center for student-athletes.

Other major facility improvements include the $18.5 million Brigade Sports Complex, the $18 million Hubbard Hall Rowing facility renovation, a $10 million renovation to the Lejeune Hall pool that included new tile throughout both the 50 meter pool and dive well, a replacement of the dive towers and the addition of video boards, a $5 million renovation of Rip Miller Field (removed crown, installed vertical drainage, replaced bleacher and press box), the $1.8 million Willis Bilderback-Dinty Moore Navy Lacrosse Hall of Fame, a $6 million renovation at the Naval Academy Golf Course, a $3 million expansion of the Prager Family squash facility at Halsey Field House that added a doubles squash court, new bleacher seating, digital displays and upgraded team spaces, the $5 million Prusmack Rugby complex, a $5.1 million renovation and expansion of the Halsey Field House multipurpose basketball facility giving both teams new locker rooms, player lounges with adjacent film rooms, expanded athletic training room with dedicated hydrotherapy room and new coaches' locker rooms, a $1.2 million renovation to Max Bishop Stadium (baseball) for lights, the Joe Duff hitting facility and a new video board and a $950 thousand new indoor track Beynon Sports polyurethane surface at Wesley Brown Field House.

Other facility improvements have included new nutrition areas in Lejeune Hall and at the Glenn Warner Soccer Complex, the Athletic Hall of Fame at Lejeune Hall, a new scoreboard and outdoor track surface for men's and women's track & field at Ingram Field, Ricketts Hall training room expansion, a new video board at Alumni Hall, a new press box at the Glenn Warner Soccer facility, new hammer throw venues for track & field, a new scoreboard for swimming and a new wrestling locker room at Lejeune Hall, major renovations at Macdonough Hall for water polo, the Dyer Tennis Center renovation which included a complete interior renovation to provide a new locker room, showers and lounge for men's tennis plus a new coaches' office suite and adjacent outside deck with awning and in Halsey Field House installation of FieldTurf, installation of new fully retractable perimeter protective net system, full interior wall painting, refurbishment of original wood fixed bench bleachers, addition of decorative banners from the rafters and the addition of backlit signs along both long walls of the arena.

NAVY-MARINE CORPS MEMORIAL STADIUM

THE CONSTRUCTION

Navy unveiled its newest pride and joy, the $3 million dollar Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, before 25,000 spectators by beating William & Mary, 29-2, on Sept. 26, 1959. Joe Bellino scored the first points in stadium history on a 53-yard touchdown run, while fullback Joe Matalavage rumbled for an 86-yard touchdown run. Quarterback Jim Maxfield led the Navy offense to two more touchdowns as the Midshipmen piled up 289 yards rushing while holding The Tribe to just 101 yards of total offense.

"I remember that we were all very proud of our new stadium and so impressed with how big and beautiful it was," Jim Dunn, an offensive center and captain of the 1959 squad, told the Annapolis Capital. "That stadium really helped put Navy football on the map. It made home games much more of an event."

Plans to construct a new stadium actually began more than two decades before and in 1939, the Naval Academy Athletic Association bought a 106-acre tract of farmland in West Annapolis.

By 1941, architects had completed preliminary plans and specifications, so rough grading of the former Davis-Smith site began.

However, World War II intervened and delayed construction of the stadium until 1956. That is when a survey showed the available athletic space for the Naval Academy intramural program to be woefully inadequate. Demolishing Thompson Stadium, home to Navy football since 1912, would free up five acres of valuable on-campus space for outdoor exercise activities.

Thompson Stadium had become terribly outdated in terms of seating, parking and other amenities and had deteriorated tremendously during its 48-year existence.

Academy officials estimated it would require $300,000 in renovations just to restore the stadium to limited utility without adding another seat, parking space or improved facilities. As a result, a drive to raise private funds for a new stadium began and was coordinated by Rear Admiral William R. Smedberg III, Superintendent of the Naval Academy at the time. Captain Eugene B. Fluckey served as campaign director and is credited with generating contributions that more than covered the cost of constructing the stadium. The stadium was funded by thousands of dedicated alumni, sailors, marines and friends of the United States Naval Academy, who donated the $3 million in private gifts. As a result, Navy was able to build a stadium that was worthy of its great football tradition.

"Thompson Stadium wasn't much to speak of. It was like a high school stadium to most of the players," quarterback Joe Tranchini told the Capital. "Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium was definitely a major upgrade."

RENOVATIONS

Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium was initially renovated with the first of three phases over a four-year time period (2002-05) and transformed into a state-of-the-art multi-use facility hosting Navy football, sprint football and men's and women's lacrosse as well as a myriad of other local, regional, national and international events.

A fourth phase (2011-15) of renovations enhanced the venue's recruiting suites, hospitality facilities, scoreboards and locker rooms.

The $80M project was privately funded by the Naval Academy Foundation and the Naval Academy Athletic Association (NAAA). 360 Architecture of Kansas City, Kan. and Alt, Breeding, Schwarz of Annapolis, Md. directed the design.

The newest components include two state-of-the-art video scoreboards, chair back seating, ADA seating platforms and access ramps, concession stands, end zone seating, luxury suites, and additional sideline seating created by lowering the playing field to give the stadium a more intimate look and feel.

In 2004, a 12,000 square-foot banquet facility was constructed to host class reunion dinners and other Naval Academy functions.

The first floor Admiral William Lawrence N-Room houses plaques listing the names of all USNA varsity letterwinners and can seat 600 for a banquet or formal dinner.

The second floor is the home of the Bilderback-Moore Navy Lacrosse Hall of Fame. The James H.H. Carrington Room is part of the Hall of Champions that displays lacrosse photos, trophies, memorabilia and a multimedia presentation representing the proud tradition of Navy lacrosse.

The banquet rooms are serviced by a full kitchen and bar areas with a fully-integrated audio and video system that features 10 large screen televisions and the ability to give business presentations on both levels of the banquet facility.

The banquet facility is just one of many hospitality areas located in the stadium complex. Ten sideline suites are located on the lower east side of the stadium and eight in the south end zone. Large party tents are utilized with great views of the field in the southeast and southwest corners of the facility. Class reunions are frequently held in Class Ring North, located behind the battle arches in the north end, offering alumni an in-stadium tailgating opportunity.

A renovated press tower was completed prior to the 2004 season.

The fourth level, named the Flag Bridge, was erected under the old press area in the seating bowl. It has 71 permanent seats in front of additional stools, tables and chairs which allows for flexibility in hosting game day viewing or special events on non-game days.

The fifth level is dedicated to the writing press, radio booths, coaches' booths, scoreboard, public address and operations areas and the sixth level holds six suites.

In 2005, the lower concourse restrooms were expanded and the concourse was totally resurfaced. A major change to the stadium came with the installation of a new synthetic field surface which allows the stadium to be used 365 days a year.

In the summer of 2010, four luxury boxes, a television booth and camera locations were constructed on the Upper East Side. The relocation of the television production allows television to better capture the Navy sideline and Brigade of Midshipmen. In order to enhance the Stadium's ADA capabilities, two new elevators make stops at the lower portion of the upper deck to allow for fans to access their seats via a pedestrian bridge.

In the summer of 2011, a new playing surface was installed at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. The monoblade monofilament turf system was installed by FieldTurf making Navy the first FBS program with this type of field.

In the summer of 2013 two new state-of-the-art high-definition video boards were installed, the brand new construction of two enclosed recruiting and hospitality reception areas (Yeager and Minter Pavilions) were completed in the south end zone and the home team locker room was completely refurbished. The Yeager Pavilion, on the press box side of the stadium, is also home of the Cmdr. Michael B. Clark and Lisa Quadri Postgame Media Center.

In the summer of 2014, following a private dedication, the east tower formally became known as Akerson Tower, named in honor of distinguished Naval Academy graduate, Daniel F. Akerson '70. Additionally, two identical club lounges (The Athletic and Scholarship Programs Trustee Club and the 1963 Football Team Club), with dedicated seating, were constructed on either side of the existing Akerson Tower upper-level suites to provide a premium game day experience for up to 350 people. The two clubs officially opened before the 2015 season. Two additional suites were also added with the new club level.

In 2016, a new south end zone video board was added to match the exact size and dimensions of the north end board. This gives the stadium two of the largest boards in the country in venues of comparable size.

The stadium also got new Field Turf in the summer of 2019 which included a remembrance of Joe Bellino with his name and number on the field.

In the summer of 2021, ALL IN nameplates were affixed to a section of benches in the midshipmen seating area. The name plates represent those season ticket holders who donated their 2020 football season tickets during the Coronavirus pandemic. Due to county and state health guidelines, general public fan attendance was prohibited during the 2020 football season in Annapolis.

In the summer of 2022, the stadium lighting was retrofitted with a Musco LED lighting system. The new lights will increase the brightness on the field while using 60% less electricity.

In 2023 Roger Staubach's name and number was added to the field on the 12-yard line on both sides of the stadium.

The multi-purpose nature of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium has allowed it to play host to seven NCAA Men's Lacrosse Quarterfinals, the 2005 NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship, the 2005 Women's Lacrosse World Cup, the 2013 First and Second Rounds of the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Tournament, the 2022 NCAA Division III Football National Championship game, Major League Lacrosse games, as well as numerous high school, professional and local youth events. The stadium is the home of the Military Bowl, the Annapolis Blues Soccer Club and the site of several Baltimore Ravens' practices. In March of 2018 it hosted an NHL game between the Washington Capitals and the Toronto Maple Leafs and a DC United soccer game.

The memorial aspects of the original structure were preserved and enhanced during the renovations. More than 8,000 chair back memorial plates were removed, refurbished and reinstalled in the new seats. Hundreds of memorial plaques received the same treatment and are featured on the Memorial Plaque Wall in the North Memorial Plaza. Battle arches and class arches have been constructed to tell the illustrious story of the Naval Services. Each combination of battle arches contains a history lesson on the left arch and a description of the particular battle on the right. Each and every battle fought by either the Navy or Marine Corps is depicted through the use of color-coded battle streamers allowing visitors to chronologically view the story of the brave men and women who we honor for their service to our country. There was also an arch dedicated to those that went on to serve in the Air Force.

The stadium was rededicated on Oct. 8, 2005 before Navy's annual battle with Air Force. The Mids won the game 27-24.

The dedication plaque for Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium reads as follows:

"This Stadium is dedicated to those who have served and will serve as upholders of the traditions and renown of the Navy and Marine Corps of the United States. May it be a perpetual reminder that the Navy and Marine Corps are organizations of men trained to live nobly and serve courageously in peace, champions of our integrity; in war, defenders of our freedom."

NAVY-MARINE CORPS MEMORIAL STADIUM

THE DANIEL F. AKERSON TOWER

The east side tower of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium was officially dedicated the Daniel F. Akerson Tower in a private ceremony on May 1, 2014. Dan '70 and Karin Akerson established the largest private gift in Naval Academy history with their $20 million commitment to the school, a significant portion of which served as the lead gift for the Phase IV renovations to Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium that commenced in the summer of 2013. Their generous contribution paved the way for the installation of two new state-of-the-art high-definition video boards, the construction of two enclosed recruiting and hospitality reception areas in the south end zone, the complete refurbishment of the home team locker room and the construction of two premium club lounges on the upper level of Akerson Tower adjacent to the stadium's existing upper-level suites.

THE FREDERICK & DIANE SMITH ATRIUM IN AKERSON TOWER

Located outside the main elevators in Akerson Tower, the Frederick & Diane Smith Atrium was dedicated in 2019. In recognition of a leadership contribution from the Smith's towards the Phase IV renovations at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, the Atrium was named in their honor. This space serves as a lasting tribute in recognition of fellow Marines who fought together in Viet Nam, and in honor of those who made the ultimate sacrifice.

ATHLETIC & SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS TRUSTEES CLUB

Located in the south club of Akerson Tower, the Athletic & Scholarship Programs Trustees Club was formally dedicated in the spring of 2016. In recognition of a $3 million dollar commitment to establish a sustainment and preservation fund for Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium and for over seven decades of dedicated support by the USNA Foundation's Athletic & Scholarship Program Trustees, this space will serve as a lasting tribute to the organization's commitment to Navy athletics.

CMDR. MICHAEL B. CLARK & LISA QUADRINI POSTGAME MEDIA CENTER

Located inside of the Yeager Pavilion, the Cmdr. Michael B. Clark '69 & Lisa Quadrini Postgame Media Center serves as the site for the Navy football program's postgame media interviews. Professional grade audio-visual equipment allows the space to be converted from its in-game hospitality use to its postgame media use. Six video monitors throughout the room ensure that all attendees can have a front-row seat during the Midshipmen's postgame interviews.

JACK STEPHENS FIELD

The United States Naval Academy Campaign: Leaders to Serve the Nation received a $10 million gift from Mr. Jackson T. Stephens of Little Rock, Arkansas in 2003. The late Mr. Stephens was a 1947 graduate of the Naval Academy and the former Chairman of Stephens Group, Inc. His gift supported the renovations of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, the Class of 1947 Legacy project to benefit the Academy's Museum, and other important Campaign priorities. The field at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium is named "Jack Stephens Field" in his honor.

TERWILLIGER FAMILY SCOREBOARD

The Terwilliger Family is honored to have the north scoreboard named after it for its contribution to the Naval Academy and to the Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium renovation project. Ron Terwilliger is a member of the Class of 1963. His brother Bruce is a member of the Class of 1965. Both were varsity athletes, scholars and served on active duty upon graduation. They are honored to give back to the Naval Academy, which gave so much to them.

THE REAR ADM. HAMILTON LOCKER ROOM COMPLEX

The Rear Adm. Thomas J. Hamilton Locker Room Complex at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium was officially dedicated at the opening game of the 1992 season. The $800,000 facility includes home and visiting team locker rooms, training rooms, an officials' dressing area and an office for the stadium supervisor. There are separate dressing and shower areas for coaches in each of the locker rooms. The locker rooms accommodate approximately 100 players and coaches for each team. The 16,000-square-foot structure is of masonry construction and is completely air conditioned. The facility actually includes two buildings and incorporates the arch which has been a traditional part of the entrance at the south end of the stadium. The arch was refurbished to match the decor of the complex. The home team locker room was renovated in the summer of 2013.

CHARLES S. MINTER JR. '37 PAVILION

The gold side recruiting suite was officially dedicated as the Vice Admiral Charles S. Minter Jr. '37 Pavilion in the fall of 2018. Dave '79 and Susan Rich made a leadership commitment towards the Phase IV renovations at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium and named the Pavilion in honor of Vice Admiral Minter. Vice Admiral Minter served as Commandant of Midshipmen and Superintendent of the United States Naval Academy. The Minter Pavilion provides a versatile space, and is used for hosting prospective midshipmen student-athletes, entertaining athletic donors, holding postgame press conferences, and catering to other special events on non-football weekends.

MIKE & ROBIN YEAGER PAVILION

The blue side recruiting suite was officially dedicated as the Mike & Robin Yeager Pavilion in the fall of 2015. Mike '76, was an outstanding football player at the Naval Academy before serving in the Marine Corps and pursuing a successful career in the energy industry. He and his wife, Robin, made a significant contribution towards the Phase IV renovations to Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. Their pavilion provides a versatile space, suitable for hosting prospective midshipmen student-athletes, entertaining athletic donors, holding postgame press conferences and catering to a variety of other uses on non-football weekends.

1963 NAVY FOOTBALL TEAM CLUB

Located in the north club of Akerson Tower, the 1963 Navy Football Team Club was formally dedicated in the fall of 2018. In recognition of the team members' significant contribution towards the Phase IV renovations at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, this space serves as a lasting tribute to the team. The 1963 team, one of Navy's all-time best, was coached by Wayne Hardin and the captain was Tom Lynch. Roger Staubach won the Heisman Trophy while leading the Midshipmen to a 9-1 regular-season record and a final ranking of No. 2 in the nation.

SIGNIFICANT DATES AT NMCMS

This year marks the 66th year Navy has played football at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. This 34,000-seat facility was built at a cost of $3 million with all of the money raised through private contributions. The stadium was dedicated on Sept. 26, 1959, when Navy defeated William & Mary 29-2 and was rededicated on Oct. 8, 2005, when Navy defeated Air Force 27-24.

In the 295 games played in the stadium, the Midshipmen have attracted 7,862,561 fans. Navy drew the largest crowd in stadium history in 2023 when 38,803 fans packed Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium to watch Navy play Air Force.

As it heads into the 2024 season, Navy owns a 177-117-1 (.602) record in games played at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

SIGNIFICANT DATES

Sept. 26, 1959 – Navy defeats William & Mary 29-2 in the first game played at the stadium.

Sept. 24, 1960 – President Eisenhower watches as the Midshipmen defeat Villanova 41-7.

Nov. 12, 1960 – Heisman Trophy winner Joe Bellino of Navy sets a school record by scoring four touchdowns in a 41-6 win over Virginia.

Oct. 26, 1963 – Heisman Trophy winner Roger Staubach leads the Mids to a 24-12 win over unbeaten Pittsburgh by completing 14-of-19 passes, seven to Jim Campbell.

Sept. 23, 1967 – Navy receiver Rob Taylor sets school records for most catches (10) and most yards receiving (140) in a game, as Navy beats Penn State 23-22 when Taylor catches a 16-yard TD pass with 57 seconds left.

Nov. 12, 1977 – Navy beats Georgia Tech 20-12 as Naval Academy alumnus President Jimmy Carter watches.

Sept. 12, 1981 – Navy defeats The Citadel for its 500th all-time win.

Nov. 7, 1981 – Eddie Meyers sets a Navy record for most rushing yardage in a game with 298 yards and four touchdowns in the Mids' 35-23 win over Syracuse.

Nov. 17, 1984 – Navy defeats second-ranked South Carolina 38-21 in one of the biggest upsets ever for the Mids. It marks only the third time Navy has beaten an opponent ranked this high.

Sept. 22, 1990 – Alton Grizzard becomes Navy's all-time career total offense leader in a 23-21 win over Villanova.

Oct. 5, 1996 – The Mids explode for 64 points to top Duke 64-27 on Homecoming.

Nov. 9, 1996 – Navy clinches its first winning season since 1982 with a 30-14 victory over Delaware.

Sept. 13, 1997 – Chris McCoy ties an NCAA record by rushing for three touchdowns on consecutive carries, as Navy defeated Rutgers 36-7.

Nov. 22, 1997 – Pat McGrew had a 91-yard touchdown run, second longest in school history and longest in stadium history, as Navy rolls over Kent State 62-29.

Nov. 22, 2003 – Quarterback Craig Candeto directed touchdown drives on all eight possessions he played as Navy destroyed Central Michigan 63-34 in front of a Senior Day crowd of 29,527. The win made Navy bowl eligible for the first time since 1996.

Nov. 20, 2004 – Seniors Kyle Eckel, Aaron Polanco and Eric Roberts rushed for two touchdowns apiece as Navy routed Rutgers 54-21, in front of a Senior Day crowd of 33,615. Navy, which scored 47-consecutive points in the game, rushed for 476 yards and had 613 yards of total offense. The victory gave the Mids an undefeated record at home for the first time since 1996.

Oct. 8, 2005 – On a day that was already special because of the rededication of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, sophomore Joey Bullen made it even more memorable by drilling a 46-yard field goal with four-tenths of a second remaining to give Navy a thrilling 27-24 comeback victory over Air Force.

Aug. 30, 2008 – Shun White rushed for a school-record 348 yards and three touchdowns on just 19 carries to lead Navy to a season-opening 41-13 victory over Towson.

Nov. 1, 2008 – Linebacker Clint Sovie's 42-yard fumble return for a touchdown with 37 seconds left in regulation capped a 20-point rally in the final 9:16 to send the game into overtime and quarterback Ricky Dobbs' one-yard run in the extra session gave Navy a miraculous 33-27 overtime victory over Temple.

Sept. 26, 2009 – Navy celebrated the 50th anniversary of the first game played at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium by wearing replica 1959 jerseys against Western Kentucky. Quarterback Ricky Dobbs rushed for 143 yards and four touchdowns in the 38-22 victory.

Oct. 3, 2009 – The Navy defense completely shut down the nation's top rushing offense, while junior kicker Joe Buckley drilled three field goals, including a 38-yarder in overtime, to lead Navy to a 16-13 victory over Air Force in front of a sellout crowd of 37,820.

Nov. 14, 2009 – Ricky Dobbs rushed for a then Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium-record five touchdowns on 26 carries to help lead Navy to a 35-18 victory over Delaware.

Oct. 20, 2012 – Navy scored 10 points in the final 5:30 to come from behind and shock Indiana 31-30 in front of 33,441 fans on Homecoming. Keenan Reynolds hit Matt Aiken with a touchdown pass with 2:02 remaining to give Navy the lead and a Parrish Gaines interception clinched the Mids' first win over a BIG TEN opponent at home since 1926.

Oct. 26, 2013 – One week after missing an extra-point in the second overtime that cost his team a chance to defeat Toledo, Nick Sloan redeemed himself against Pittsburgh booting a 30-yard field goal as time expired to give Navy a thrilling 24-21 come-from-behind victory.

Oct. 25, 2014 – Keenan Reynolds rushed for 251 yards and three touchdowns on 39 carries to give Navy a 49-39 Homecoming victory over San Jose State.

Reynolds' first touchdown of the day set the school record for career rushing touchdowns with 50.

Nov. 15, 2014 – Keenan Reynolds rushed for a career-high 277 yards and a stadium-record six touchdowns to lead Navy to a 52-19 victory over Georgia Southern.

Sept. 19, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds ran for five touchdowns and 142 yards as the Midshipmen dominated East Carolina in their American Athletic Conference debut 45-21.

Oct. 3, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds rushed for 183 yards to lead Navy to a 33-11 rout of Air Force. It was Navy's largest margin of victory in the series since 1978.

Oct. 31, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds scored twice in the fourth quarter to tie the collegiate mark for career rushing touchdowns and Navy set a school record with three 100-yard rushers in a 29-17 victory over USF. Reynolds finished with 117 yards rushing, while Chris Swain rushed for a game-high 131 yards and Dishan Romine had 117 yards. It marked the first time in program history that three players each rushed for 100 or more yards in a game.

Nov. 14, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds shattered the FBS career rushing touchdown record, scoring four rushing touchdowns against SMU in Navy's 55-14 rout of the Mustangs. The four rushing touchdowns gave Reynolds 81 in his career, surpassing Montee Ball's record of 77.

Dec. 28, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds wrapped up his record-setting career in spectacular fashion, rushing for three scores and passing for another to lead Navy to a 44-28 victory over Pittsburgh in the Military Bowl. Reynolds' final touchdown, with 4:19 remaining, clinched the win and gave him 88 total touchdowns for his career, breaking the tie with Louisiana Tech's Kenneth Dixon for most touchdowns in FBS history. The win was the 11th on the year for Navy, which is a school record.

Oct. 22, 2016 – Will Worth rushed for 115 yards and threw two touchdown passes to help lead Navy to a 46-40 victory over #6 Houston. It was Navy's first win over a team ranked in the Top 10 since 1984. Navy entered the game as a 17-point underdog, but shredded the No. 1-ranked rushing defense in the country for 306 yards on the ground. Josiah Powell's 34-yard interception return for a touchdown was the big play of the game.

Oct. 7, 2017 – Zach Abey threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Carmona with 15 seconds left to lead Navy to a 48-45 victory over Air Force in front of a stadium-record crowd of 38,792.

Nov. 11, 2017 – Malcolm Perry rushed for 282 yards and four touchdowns in his first career start at quarterback and backup kicker JR Osborn hit an 18-yard game-winning field goal as time expired to give Navy a 43-40 victory over SMU. Perry's 282 yards rushing are the third most in school history.

Dec. 28, 2017 – Zach Abey came off the bench to rush for five touchdowns, and starting quarterback Malcolm Perry ran for 114 yards and two touchdowns as Navy rolled to an easy 49-7 victory over Virginia in the Military Bowl presented by Northrop Grumman.

Oct. 5, 2019 – Malcolm Perry scored on a 4-yard touchdown run with 23 seconds remaining to give Navy a stunning 34-25, victory over Air Force. The Falcons had scored 16 consecutive points in the final quarter and took the lead on a 1-yard run by Taven Birdow with 3:15 left in the game. However, Perry led an 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive to claim the victory in the first leg of the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy. Navy linebacker Tony Brown returned a fumble 7 yards in the closing seconds to round out the scoring.

Oct. 26, 2019 – Bijan Nichols kicked a 48-yard field goal as time expired and Navy edged Tulane 41-38. Nichols' kick - a yard shy of a career long - capped a seven-play drive in the final 61 seconds to secure bowl eligibility for the Midshipmen for the 15th time in 17 years. Sophomore fullback Jamale Carothers rushed for a career-high 154 yards and accounted for four touchdowns and quarterback Malcolm Perry rushed for 142 yards and threw for a touchdown for the Midshipmen.

Sept. 9, 2023 – Senior quarterback Tai Lavatai gained 227 yards of total offense, including 161 yards through the air, and 1 touchdown to lead Navy to a 24-0 victory over Wagner in front of 29,798 fans at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. The win marked the first for Navy head coach Brian Newberry and it was Navy's first shutout since beating Army 34-0 in 2008.

Nov. 11, 2023 – Junior safety Rayuan Lane III returned an interception 97-yards for a touchdown to cap off a dominant defensive performance in Navy's 31-6 win over UAB. It was the longest interception return in Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium history and the second longest in school history. It was also the second-longest interception return in American Athletic Conference history.

FOOTBALL FACILITIES

RICKETTS HALL

Navy's football team has the use of one of the top facilities in the country in Ricketts Hall. A $12 million renovation of Ricketts Hall has provided upgraded meeting rooms for the football team, offices for the football coaches, a player's lounge for the football team and offices for the Naval Academy Athletic Association administrators, business and ticket offices, sports information and sports promotions and marketing.

In 2004, a renovation was completed that added a trophy and reception room, as well as new football offices and meeting rooms.

In 2007, the weight room was renovated with new lighting, synthetic turf sprint lanes and a new paint scheme. The football locker room was also completely renovated to increase the size of the facility, which included a player's lounge area complete with big screen televisions and video games.

In 2011, the training room was completely renovated, as were Rip Miller Field and the coaches locker rooms.

In 2014, a new turf field was installed on Rip Miller Field that was identical to the turf at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

In 2015, a new 1,800-square-foot lounge with a glass wall overlooking the weight room was added, as well as a newly created nutrition room, renovated office space for six strength and conditioning coaches and a new 1,350 square-foot football coaches locker room adjacent to the coaching offices on the third floor.

The most recent addition is the Ron Terwilliger Center for Student-Athletes at Ricketts Hall, which is a must-see destination for Navy recruits and visitors to the Academy. This state-of-the-art facility illustrates the Academy's robust physical mission, showcases Navy's rich and vibrant athletic history and celebrate the achievements of Navy's student-athletes on and off the field. The facility contains an immersion theater, a 250-seat auditorium, an Army-Navy tribute exhibit, an executive conference room and an interactive display that celebrates the many facets of midshipmen student-athletes.

Ricketts Hall is named after Admiral Claude Vernon Ricketts, a 1929 graduate who played end for the Midshipmen, earning a varsity letter in 1928. During the battle at Pearl Harbor, Ricketts received a Letter of Commendation for his efforts to save his ship and his mortally wounded captain. He later became Commander Second Fleet and then assumed duties as the Vice Chief of Naval Operations.

THE CLASS OF 1972 SPORTS PERFORMANCE AND REHABILITATION FACILITY

A new state of the art rehabilitation center opened in the fall of 2021 to service all Midshipmen athletes. It consists of six treatment tables with modalities ranging from a Hivamat to Gameready, plus a fully operational Physicians Clinic to provide initial care or follow-up care. There will also be a designated space for our athletes to utilize recovery equipment. The recovery area will consist of Vibe Plates, foam rollers and five Deluxe Lounge chairs that recline and allow the student athlete to utilize a compression garment created by Recovery Pump. Another key item that will be utilized in this area is a piece of rehabilitation equipment created by Delos. It helps prevent and rehabilitate lower body injuries by providing instant feedback and allows the athlete to have better proprioceptive output. As the athlete departs the rehabilitation center, they will be able to utilize a Grab and Go nutrition center in order to continue with the recovery process and to stay fueled up for practice or competition. The 1972 Sports Performance and Rehabilitation Facility was made possible through a leadership gift from the Class of 1972.

STAUBACH LOCKER ROOM

The football locker room, which is named after 1963 Heisman Trophy winner Roger Staubach, was completely renovated in the summer of 2019 and includes 175 custom built lockers.

THE RED ROMO TRAINING CENTER

The Romo Physical Training Center, which is named for Navy's former athletic trainer the late Leon (Red) Romo, incorporates a state-of-the-art rehabilitation therapy pool, Hydroworx, for use by athletic teams and the Brigade of Midshipmen, an AlterG anti-gravity Treadmill, a computerized injury management system which will network with all other training rooms around the Naval Academy and with the Naval Academy Medical Department, updated equipment and treatment modalities and a doctor's examination area with a portable x-ray unit and self chilling cold whirlpools.

2024 NAVY FOOTBALL

FOOTBALL FACILITIES

LYNCH FOOTBALL WARDROOM

The Lynch Football Wardroom provides Midshipmen football student-athletes a place to gather, relax and re-energize between training, classes and practice. The Lynch Football Wardroom also features the Dornin '35 Nutrition Center, named in honor of Robert Edson "Dusty" Dornin '35. The wardroom was renovated in the summer of 2019 and is named in honor of the Navy Football Brotherhood and the 1963 Navy football team through a leadership gift from Tom Lynch '64, the Captain of the 1963 Navy football team.

JACK LENGYEL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING FACILITY

Overlooking the Severn River and the Chesapeake Bay sits the Ricketts Hall weight room.

Bryan Fitzpatrick, Jim Kiritsy and the rest of the strength and conditioning staff instruct the Midshipmen in their daily workouts. Programs are structured to help the athletes maximize their overall athletic abilities. A variety of speed/strength workouts are organized throughout the year, both in-season and off-season. Olympic-style lifts, which include the snatch and the clean and jerk, are the core exercises used at the Naval Academy. Variations of these lifts, along with squatting and pressing exercises, are performed during each workout. Flexibility, speed and agility development, conditioning and nutritional information are the final components of each daily workout.

Encompassing 12,000-square feet of prime weightlifting space, the Midshipmen complete their speed/strength workouts on:

- 24 Rogers Pendulum Half Racks (each station includes):
 - Plae Olympic platform
 - Multi-purpose cable pulley unit
 - Dip bars
 - Pull up bars
 - Hyper-extension
 - Multi-purpose bench
 - 500+lbs of Intek weights plus bar
 - 12 Intek dumbbell stations 20lbs-135lbs
 - 12 Rogers Pendulum 5-way Neck mechanics

- 12 Rogers Pendulum Glute Hams
- 24 Sorinex Trap Bars
- 24 Kabuki Transformer Bars
- Laser Sprint Timing System
- Catapult GPD Load Management System
- PERCH Velocity Based Training
- State-of-the-art speed development equipment which includes a 10x20 yard indoor turf
- 12 Rotating 65" flat screen TV's with integrated high tech computer system split into 4 separate zones, used to post individualized workout programs, messages, timing clocks and training videos all of which are connected to a 3,000-watt speaker system for premium sound. The system also has a built in video control system which enables the strength & conditioning staff to video an athlete performing an exercise and play it back instantly to ensure proper technique is being performed.

CHET GLADCHUK, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Entering his 24th year as President of the Naval Academy Athletic Association and Director of Athletics, Chet Gladchuk has overseen the most successful era in the history of Navy Athletics.

During Gladchuk's tenure at the Naval Academy, he has seen the Midshipmen win four national championships, 249 conference titles, produce 348 All-Americans and 138 College Sports Communicators Academic All-Americans.

In 2023-24, Navy teams posted a 291-186-9 (.608) record, had 23 All-Americans, 5 Academic All-Americans, 6 Patriot League Scholar-Athletes of the Year, 13 national or conference coaches of the year, 17 national or conference athletes of the year and won 14 conference championships.

The Mids once again won the Star Series presented by USAA against Army, going 14-11-1 against the Black Knights. The Mids also won the overall series against Army, posting a 19-17-1 record.

Navy claimed its 10th-consecutive Patriot League Presidents' Cup, winning nine conference championships during the 2023-24 academic year to sit atop the overall standings. The Midshipmen also topped the men's standings.

Navy's current streak of 10-consecutive overall titles are the most in Patriot League Presidents' Cup history, eclipsing Bucknell's streak of seven-straight titles from 1998-2004. Navy has won 11 titles overall and has finished first or second over the last 17 years. Prior to Gladchuk becoming the Director of Athletics, Navy finished higher than fifth just once in 1999-00.

Over the last 10 years, Navy has won 84 conference championships, the next closest school is Boston University with 38.

Navy maintains national stature in the classroom as well with 14 of its NCAA sponsored teams recognized for its outstanding Academic Progress Report.

Since Gladchuk has been the Director of Athletics, Navy has added six varsity sports (women's lacrosse, women's golf, women's tennis, women's triathlon, women's rugby and men's rugby) to give Navy 36 varsity sports teams, tied with Stanford and Ohio State for the most in the Football Bowl Subdivision.

Gladchuk's efforts have been recognized on a national level. He received the John L. Toner Award from the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in December of 2016, which recognizes an athletics director who has demonstrated superior administrative abilities and shown outstanding dedication to college athletics.

Gladchuk was recognized for engineering the move to the American Athletic Conference, which will secure Navy's future as a FBS program of national stature for years to come.

Gladchuk, who is the longest tenured athletic director in the FBS, joined the College Football Playoff committee prior to the start of the 2022 football season.

Gladchuk has received the Bobby Dodd Athletic Director of the Year Award. This national award is presented in recognition of an athletic director's support and commitment toward the successful advancement of intercollegiate athletics. He has been recognized by the Secretary of the Navy for his contributions and service to the Navy and the Naval Academy with the Superior Public Service Award to the Department of the Navy. He was awarded the Commodore Perry Distinguished Citizens Award by the Navy League, has served as the President of the Division I Athletic Directors Association and is a member of the prestigious Division I FBS College Football Playoff Committee. Recently he was the finalist for the Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year award.

Gladchuk has been able to parlay Navy's athletic success into a television partnership with CBS Sports Network that has increased Navy's television exposure both in the United States and internationally.

CBS Sports Network, the first 24-hour college sports network, televises every Navy home and select neutral site football games (excluding Notre Dame and Army which are televised nationally by CBS), as well as other Midshipmen men's and women's athletic events, original programming and documentaries centered on the storied Navy athletic program. The long-term, multi-media agreement includes internet streaming, broadband and video-on-demand rights and high definition rights.

A major part of the agreement was that all home football games would be played on Saturday for the convenience of the Navy alumni. Navy sports are seen all over the world with the international distribution of Navy programming, especially to the troops serving abroad. Navy's contract with CBS Sports Network runs through 2027. In addition, as a member of the American Athletic Conference for football, every road game is televised by major networks.

Gladchuk added radio giants WBAL (1090 AM) in Baltimore and WFED (1500 AM, 1050 AM, 820 AM) in Washington D.C./Northern Virginia to Navy's radio network. WBAL Radio, which is Maryland's dominant and most powerful radio station. WFED Radio, which is also the home of the Washington Nationals, is a 50,000-watt station that will air 10 regular-season football games.

Since being introduced as the Academy's 28th Director of Athletics on Sept. 4, 2001, Gladchuk has pressed forward on numerous fronts with high energy and ever-expanding vision. From the hiring of some of the top coaches in the country to the renovation of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, Gladchuk has made improvements in many key areas that will prove success on the athletic fields for years to come.

Gladchuk's initial impact on the Naval Academy was the $80 million renovation of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. Under his vision and leadership, the stadium was completely refurbished over a three-phase time frame. Gladchuk worked closely with the city, county, state and neighborhood associations to ensure proper communication and sensitivity to issues that benefit both the NAAA and community at large. Gladchuk was awarded the Green Star award by the City of Annapolis for commitment to the environment and the neighborhood during the ongoing renovation of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

Gladchuk and the NAAA have also teamed up with the Naval Academy Foundation to raise private funds for every physical mission facility, such as the new 25,000 sq. ft. Physical Mission Center in Ricketts Hall, Brigade Sports Complex (golf, tennis, hockey, rugby, etc.), Max Bishop Stadium (baseball), varsity squash courts, all team locker rooms and all practice facilities. Over the past decade, more than $200 million non-appropriated dollars have been raised in support of capital projects in support of the physical mission and intercollegiate athletics. In addition, as a 501c3 non-profit business entity, under Gladchuk's leadership, the Naval Academy Athletic Association has externally generated essentially all annual operating funding to support 36 varsity sports programs, provide coaching and staffing salaries, maintenance expenditures for many major athletic facilities, and new initiatives as they are developed. During Gladchuk's tenure, over $800M has been externally generated with non-appropriated funding in support of the annual operation of intercollegiate athletics and the physical mission.

Other highlights during Gladchuk's tenure at the Naval Academy include the renegotiation of the Army-Navy contract which resulted in over $50 million to the two schools over an eight-year period, scheduling Maryland, Notre Dame, Ohio State and Army at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore to promote Navy football in the community, negotiating the extension of the Navy-Notre Dame and Army-Navy football game television contract with CBS and negotiating bowl deals with the Houston, Emerald, Poinsettia, Meineke Car Care, EagleBank, Texas, Armed Forces and Military Bowls.

Gladchuk is heavily involved with many NCAA, the American Athletic Conference and Patriot League committees. He was selected to serve on the NCAA Leadership Council, which is one of the highest NCAA appointments an athletic director can realize. The council helps set the Division I legislative agenda and advises the NCAA regarding major legislative issues being considered.

Gladchuk has been on the NACDA (National Association of Collegiate Athletic Directors) Executive Committee and served as the Chairman of the Executive Committee in the Patriot League and a member of the NCAA Olympic Sport Liaison Committee. Currently he remains President of the Naval Academy Golf Association and recently led a capital campaign to successfully complete a $10M renovation of the course.

Gladchuk came to the Naval Academy from the University of Houston, where he had been the Director of Athletics for four years and guided the Cougars to 19 Conference USA Championships, while making significant strides in the academic success of their student-athletes, gender equity and fiscal management.

Before Houston, Gladchuk was the Director of Intercollegiate Athletics, Intramurals and Recreation for seven years at his alma mater, Boston College. Under Gladchuk, Boston College emerged as one of the NCAA's elite programs of the 1990s winning numerous Big East and NCAA Championships. The school's graduation rate for all student-athletes was annually over 90 percent and the Eagles often won the College Football Association's Academic Achievement Award for the highest graduation rates among all Division I schools. Gladchuk led the Alumni Stadium expansion effort, which resulted in a $35 million improvement to the football stadium.

Prior to rejoining Boston College, Gladchuk served as AD at Tulane University from 1987-90. During his tenure, he directed the reinstatement of the Green Wave basketball program to Division I status. In addition, he oversaw the construction of new facilities for the athletics administration as well as baseball, track and field and tennis teams after a $25 million athletics campaign was successfully completed.

From 1985-87, he served as Associate AD at Syracuse University, heading operations, NCAA compliance, financial aid and facility operations.

Gladchuk lettered three years in football at Boston College and graduated with honors in business management in 1973. He earned a master's in sports administration from the University of Massachusetts-Amherst in 1974, where he began his career in intercollegiate athletics, including serving for seven years as Director of General Physical Education, Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for the university. He also has served as Director of Athletics and head football coach for the New Hampton (Prep) School in New Hampshire prior to leaving for UMass.

He and his wife, Kathy, have four children: John, a graduate of Loyola Marymount; Katie, a graduate of Boston College; Christie, a graduate of Trinity; and Julie, a graduate of the University of North Carolina.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

FIRST-RATE FACULTY AND STAFF

The Naval Academy's philosophy of education stresses attention to individual students by highly qualified faculty members who are strongly committed to teaching. Classes are small, with an average size of fewer than 18 students and a student-faculty ratio of 8:1. All courses at the Naval Academy are taught and graded by faculty members, not by graduate assistants.

Our 600-member faculty is an integrated group of officers and civilians in nearly equal numbers. Officers bring fresh ideas and experiences from operational units and staffs of the Navy and Marine Corps. The academy's civilian faculty members give continuity to the educational program and form a core of professional scholarship and teaching experience. Working together closely, these military and civilian faculty members form one of the strongest and most dedicated teaching faculties of any college or university in the United States.

MAJORS

Students at the Naval Academy can select one of 26 different majors grouped into six different divisions: Division of Engineering and Weapons, Division of Mathematics and Science, Division of Humanities and Social Sciences, Division of Professional Development, Division of Leadership Education and Development, and the Division of Character Development and Training. In addition to graduating with a Bachelor's of Science, students can attain a minor in one of seven different languages: French, German, Spanish, Russian, Japanese, Arabic and Chinese.

Students who excel at the Naval Academy have many opportunities to challenge and advance themselves through several special programs -- Trident Scholars, Honors Programs, and Voluntary Graduate Education Program (VGEP).

ACADEMIC PROGRESS REPORT

Fourteen of Navy's varsity sports programs were recognized for their outstanding NCAA Academic Progress Rate. Only NCAA sponsored sports were eligible.

Every Division I program across the nation calculates its APR (academic progress rate) each academic year, which is similar to a report card. Recruited student-athletes each semester earn one point for remaining eligible and one point for staying in school or graduating. The most recent APR scores are multi-year rates based on the scores from the 2019-20, 2020-21, 2021-22 and 2022-23 academic years. National aggregates are based on all teams with usable data at the time of analysis.

Men's gymnastics, water polo, women's golf and women's rowing all received perfect scores.

Sports that were at least 10 points above the national average in their respective sport were: Men's basketball (21 points), water polo (18 points), men's indoor and outdoor track & field (15 points), baseball (13 points), men's soccer (13 points), men's swimming & diving (12 points), wrestling (12 points), women's rowing (11 points), women's volleyball (11 points), men's cross country (10 points) and men's lacrosse (10 points).

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

In addition to furthering their education at schools across the country, students at the Naval Academy annually are in competition for several prestigious scholarships. Since Navy's first Rhodes Scholar, E. Van Meter ('28), a total of 57 Naval Academy graduates have received the Rhodes Scholarship, including 2024 graduate Abigail Ward, a member of the women's rugby team. Also, 35 Mids have earned George C. Marshall Scholarships -- most recently Charlotte d'Halluin ('24), team captain of the women's rugby team.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

Naval Academy student-athletes have totaled 178 College Sports Communicators (CSC) Academic All-America certificates over the years, with 138 of those awards coming since Chet Gladchuk has been the Director of Athletics. This includes Meghan Hegarty, who was selected as the 2017 national Academic All-American of the Year for women's soccer.

PATRIOT LEAGUE SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

Navy had six Patriot League Scholar-Athletes of the Year in 2023-24: Sam Keeny (men's cross country), Sasha Panyan (men's tennis), Tori DiCarlo (women's lacrosse), Stephanie Lee (women's golf), Nolan Jorgenson (baseball) and Annie Taylor (outdoor track & field).

Taylor went on to be selected as the Patriot League Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year. She is the ninth female from Navy to earn the accolade -- the most of any school in the league.

VALEDICTORIANS

Robby Klanac of the lightweight crew team was the valedictorian for the Class of 2024. It marked the ninth year in a row, the 12th time in the last 14 years and the 19th time since 2000 that a varsity athlete graduated No. 1 in overall order of merit.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The men and women of the United States Naval Academy have committed themselves to the service of our nation. During their four years in Annapolis, the Midshipmen demonstrate their willingness to give by taking part in several community service events.

From outreach opportunities such as autograph sessions following athletic events, to working with underprivileged youths, the student-athletes at Navy give back to the area they call home during their college years.

The following are a few examples of community service opportunities performed by Navy athletics over the last three years.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

A group from the team spent time with and spoke to children at Annapolis Middle School about the importance of staying in school, developing good habits and working hard in the classroom.

The team worked with other teams, companies and USNA staff to collect shoes, clothes and coats for more than 5 weeks. All of the collected items were delivered to the Annapolis Light House, a homeless prevention support center, a few weeks before Christmas.

Twice during the year the team spent hours at the Annapolis Light House working on the facility grounds. Members picked up trash, pulled weeds, raked leaves, cleaned flower boxes and spread mulch.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The team and staff participated in the Brigade Food Drive and Light House Pumpkin Patch Drive.

FOOTBALL

Members of the team signed autographs for children at Navy FanFest as well as at the open spring football practice. Both events took place at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium and were free to the public.

WOMEN'S GOLF

The women's golf team and coaching staff worked with the Anne Arundel County Special Olympics snowshoe team in January and February.

The team spent time Saturday mornings training with the Special Olympic athletes to help them get ready for their championship. The team helps lead warm ups and runs with individually athletes throughout the practices.

WOMEN'S LACROSSE

In the fall the team and staff participated in the Travis Manion 5K at the stadium.

Around Halloween, a few members of the team participated in Creekfest, running a booth at Indian Creek for face painting.

Around Christmas, the team and staff adopted a 1st grade class at Garrison Elementary to provide it with Christmas gifts and a party. This tradition has been going on since 2015.

Right before the season began, some of the student-athletes participated in NAAA's 'Free Clinic' for those in the community in support of National Girls & Women in Sports Day.

MEN'S RUGBY

In the fall, the team supports the Travis Mannion Foundation run by supporting the runners throughout the race along with course setup and breakdown.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

The women's soccer team and staff participated in Athletes for Hope FIT, which connects schools around the country with young athletes to teach kids the importance of physical fitness and character-building traits.

The team had multiple groups participate in monthly virtual workshops with classrooms all over the country. The team was also involved with the Special Olympics, Girls on the Run clinic, signed autographs at a women's basketball game and volunteered at the Travis Manion run.

The team also did an Honor Flight at BWI airport and went to dinner with the vets at their hotel. The team added a new teammate with Team Impact.

MEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING

The team participated in the 2023 Swim Across America, an event with a mission to fund cancer research, clinical trials and patient programs. Members of the team served as safety swimmers for event participants.

MEN'S TENNIS

The team and coaching staff played a vital role in various outreach programs facilitated by the Stanton Center of Annapolis. In the late fall, the team helped run an initiative enabling underprivileged children in the Annapolis Area to experience a true holiday season. Team members helped wrap, deliver and enhance the gift-giving process for hundreds of children shortly before Christmas.

In the spring, the team returned to the Stanton Center to mentor young students and run team-building exercises following afternoon classes.

Lastly, individual team members gave up days of leave to tutor students at the Stanton Center, serving as teachers, friends and advocates throughout the academic year.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

The team and coaching staff also participated in an Honor Flight reception at BWI. The players dressed in uniform lined up to greet the veterans.

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S TRACK & FIELD

The team ran the Gate 8 Water / Gatorade station for the Annapolis 10-Miler. Additionally, the program provided volunteers for the Anne Arundel County Track & Field Special Olympics.

TRIATHLON

The team started volunteering at the end of last summer at the Kenzi Rose Triathlon. The team helped the youth triathletes on the course and the race benefited kids cancer research.

VOLLEYBALL

The team and coaching staff hosted a group of local youth from the Stanton Center Teenage Club for a post-match "get to know you."

In January, some student-athletes participated in NAAA's 'Free Clinic' for those in the community in support of National Girls & Women in Sports Day.

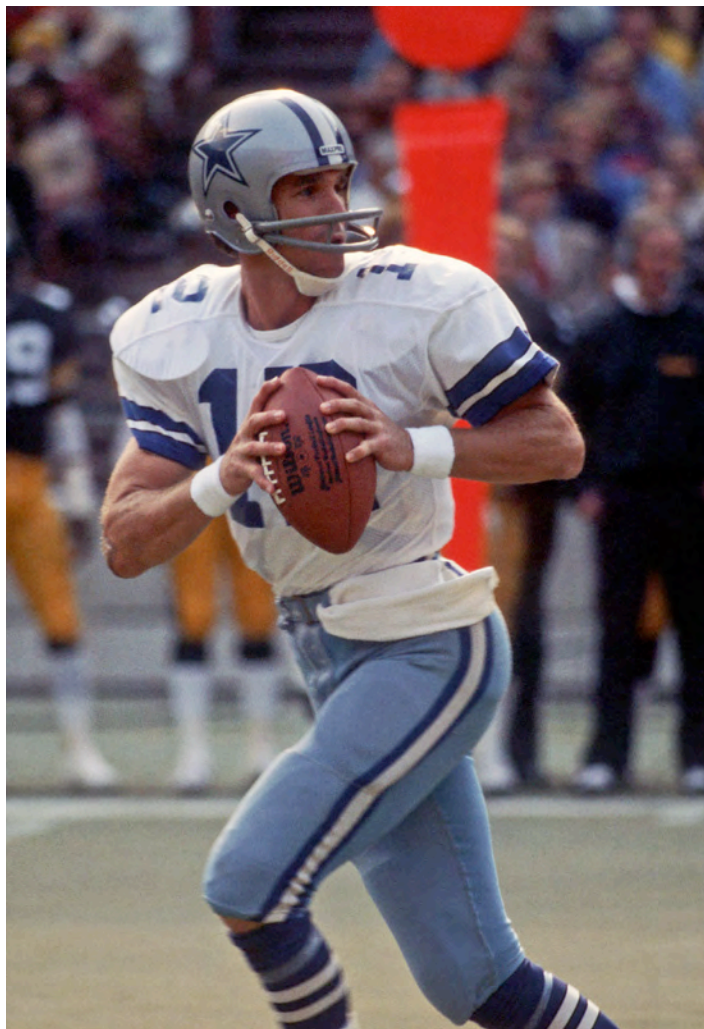

The team and coaching staff also participated in an Honor Flight reception at BWI. The players dressed in uniform lined up to greet the veterans.

Every time one of our Midshipmen student-athletes dons the Navy Blue and Gold, he or she represents the Brigade of Midshipmen, United States Naval Academy, United States Navy & Marine Corps, and the United States of America.

The Navy football program has had 219-consecutive games televised by either CBS, NBC, ABC, CBS Sports Network, Fox Sports Network, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPNEWS or ESPN+.

Whether it is CBS, CBS Sports Network, Showtime, ESPN, the Washington Post or the Annapolis Capital/Baltimore Sun, the varsity athletic programs at the United States Naval Academy are given the platform to tell the much bigger story of our United States Navy & Marine Corps.

In 2011, Showtime produced a documentary chronicling the annual Army-Navy Game, and in 2017 the network followed the Navy program for 13 episodes of "A Season with Navy Football." Navy was the third college football program featured in the Showtime series, following Notre Dame in 2015 and Florida State in 2016.

The Navy Sports Information Office has been named one of the Top 11 SID offices in the country by the Football Writers Association of America a total of seven times, including five times in the last six years.

The national exposure given to our athletic programs is invaluable to our overall mission and with the move of the football program to the AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE, it has increased substantially.

ANNAPOLIS AND THE CHESAPEAKE REGION

The Naval Academy is located in historic Annapolis, the capital of Maryland. In 1650, Puritans seeking religious freedom nestled into a spot on the western shore of the Chesapeake Bay and called their new town Providence. Settlers soon spread across the Severn River to the land that now makes up Maryland's capital city. The small settlement grew and was renamed Anne Arundell in 1694 in honor of Lord Baltimore's wife.

Governor Francis Nicholson chose the growing town on the Severn as the new provincial capital because of its central location. He rechristened it Annapolis in 1695 in honor of King James II's daughter, Princess Anne, who became Queen of England in 1702. Annapolis was granted a royal charter as a city in 1708.

Annapolis became the nation's first peacetime capital in 1783. From November 1783 to August 1784, the Continental Congress met in the Maryland State House. It was here that they accepted George Washington's resignation as commander-in-chief of the Continental Army and ratified the Treaty of Paris, ending the Revolutionary War. The Maryland State House is the oldest in continuous legislative use in the country. It is also the first and only State House to serve as the nation's capitol.

The colonial heritage of Annapolis is still evident as the city boasts more brick buildings from the 1700s than any other city in the country.

The heart of downtown Annapolis has also been designated a National Historic District and a National Historic Treasure. Many fine examples of colonial architecture, including the Maryland State House, Hammond-Harwood House, Chase-Lloyd House and the William Paca House and Gardens, are open to visitors.

In August, 2009, Annapolis was named a Top 10 finalist for the International Award for Livable Communities, a competition focused on creating livable communities through sound environmental practices.

Annapolis is located on the western shore of the Chesapeake Bay, the largest estuary in the United States. The Chesapeake provides natural environs, sightseeing, sailing, fishing, kayaking and more, helping Annapolis become America's Sailing Capital. The water-lover will also revel in the fact that Maryland has nearly 4,000 miles of shoreline – more than any other state.

Within 30 minutes of Annapolis lies both Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, providing entertainment and sightseeing opportunities for residents and tourists alike.

BRIAN NEWBERRY

HEAD COACH

SIXTH SEASON AT NAVY | SECOND SEASON AS HEAD COACH

Brian Newberry is in his sixth year at the Naval Academy and his second as the head coach.

In his first year as head coach, he led Navy to a 5-7 record and a 4-4 mark in the American Athletic Conference. Navy, picked ninth in the preseason poll by the league's coaches, finished tied for fifth in the AAC.

The five wins were the most by a Navy team since 2019, while five of Navy's seven losses came at the hands of a team that played in a bowl game including two teams that finished in the top 25 (Notre Dame at #14 and SMU at #22).

The Mids had six players named to All-American Athletic Conference teams, including first team selections Colin Ramos (Jr. / LB) and Riley Riethman (Jr. / P).

The 2023 season was highlighted by a defense that was one of only two (Penn State) in the FBS to record three shutouts.

Navy's defense also finished second in the nation in fumbles recovered (14), third in red zone defense (allowed opponents to score just 72% of the time), fourth in turnover margin (+0.92) and 19th in stop rate (71.3%).

Newberry was named head coach on Dec. 19, 2022, by Naval Academy Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk. Newberry had served as the Mids' defensive coordinator the previous four seasons.

As a defensive coordinator, Newberry directed some of the top defensive units in school history.

Navy finished third in the nation against the run in 2022 (88.9 yards per game), which is even more impressive when you consider it was the only defense ranked in the top 25 that faced three of the top-10 rushing offenses in the country (#1 Air Force, #2 Army and #9 UCF).

Navy also finished third nationally in fewest first downs allowed (187), 23rd in sacks (2.8 per game), 22nd in fumbles recovered (11) and 32nd in total defense (339.0 yards per game).

Senior striker John Marshall finished tied for third in the nation in sacks (0.9 per game) and tackles for a loss per game (1.6), while setting school records for sacks in a season (11) and game (4). Marshall was the only unanimous First-Team All-American Athletic Conference selection in 2022 and he was also named the ECAC Defensive Player of the Year.

In 2021, the Navy defense acquitted itself well by finishing 32nd in the nation in rushing defense, 34th in total defense and 34th in red zone defense. Linebacker Diego Fagot was distinguished with All-American honors, First-Team All-American Athletic Conference and was named All-East. Fagot was also named MVP of the East-West Shrine All-Star Game.

In 2020, after a slow start due to COVID, the defense finished the year with a flurry, holding Memphis, Tulsa and Army to under 300 yards of total offense. It was the first time a Navy defense had achieved that feat since 1997.

In 2019, Newberry's first year on the job, Navy made massive improvements on the defensive side of the football. Navy ranked 20th in third down defense (121st in 2018), 10th in rushing defense (90th in 2018), 39th in passing defense (75th in 2018), 16th in total defense (86th in 2018) and 34th in scoring defense (103rd in 2018).

Newberry, a semifinalist for the Broyles Award, presented annually to the best assistant coach in college football, and his defensive staff installed a "Get 6" culture within the Navy defense that took off. Newberry told the defensive players if they got a combination of six three-and-outs, fourth down stops, turnovers and defensive touchdowns in a game, the Mids would win. In 2019, Navy was 8-0 when it managed to "Get 6."

The Mids finished 10th in the nation against the run despite facing the #2, #3 and #11 rushing offenses in the country. Navy forced the opposing offense off the field in three plays or less in 36 percent of its drives, which was the 10th-best average in the country. The Navy defense gave up just 15.2 first downs per game, which was tied for third best in the country. Safeties Evan Fochtman and Kevin Brennan were named First-Team All-East.

Prior to his arrival in Annapolis, Newberry served as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Kennesaw State from 2015-18, leading the Owls to the FCS quarterfinals in each of his last two seasons.

Kennesaw State ranked first in the FCS in fewest first downs allowed per game and second in total defense in 2018. The Owls finished seventh in scoring defense, giving up an average of 15.4 points per game. The Owls also ranked 11th nationally in third down conversion defense.

In 2017, Kennesaw State ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense and third in turnovers gained. The Owls picked off 24 passes, which ranked second nationally, and led the Big South in rushing defense, pass defensive efficiency and red zone defense, while standing second in sacks (31).

The Kennesaw defense forced an incredible 56 turnovers over Newberry's last two years, including 37 interceptions.

Newberry joined the Kennesaw State coaching staff after spending the 2012 season as defensive coordinator at Northern Michigan.

Prior to his one season at Northern Michigan, Newberry served as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at the University of the South in Seawee, Tenn., in 2011 where the Tigers improved their scoring defense by 16 points per game and total defense by 85 yards a contest.

Newberry's coaching experience also includes four seasons (2007-10) as defensive backs coach at Elon and five years (2004-06, 2001 and 2002) as defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach at Washington & Lee. He also served as a graduate assistant/defensive line coach at Rice during the spring of 2004, spent one season as an assistant defensive backs coach at Lehigh in 2003 and began his coaching career at Southern Arkansas where he was a graduate assistant coaching the defensive backs and wide receivers in 1999 and 2000.

In 2004, Newberry's Washington & Lee defense produced a school-record 43 sacks and ranked among the Division III leaders in rushing defense. The Generals' defense led the Old Dominion Athletic Conference in pass defense, rush defense and scoring defense in 2005 and in 2006, Washington & Lee forced 30 turnovers and ranked among the nation's leaders in pass defense.

Newberry played collegiately at Baylor and graduated in 1998 with a Bachelor of Science in education. He helped lead the Bears to the Southwest Conference Co-Championship and an appearance in the 1994 Alamo Bowl, as well as a No. 5 national ranking in total defense in 1995.

Newberry and his wife, Kate, are the parents of a son, Max, and a daughter, Lyla.

DREW CRONIC

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR FIRST SEASON AT NAVY

Drew Cronic is in his first year at Navy as the offensive coordinator. Cronic comes to Navy from Mercer, where he put together a 28-17 (.622) record over the last four years, including a 22-10 (.688) mark in the rugged Southern Conference.

A native of Sharpsburg, Georgia, Cronic is considered one of the more innovative offensive minds across all levels of college football. Driven by the motto "Raise the Bar," Cronic has been a head coach for a combined eight years at three different schools and has compiled a career record of 75-23 (.765) while also handling offensive coordinator duties that featured variations of the option offense.

Cronic led Mercer to an historic 9-4 record in 2023, including a 6-2 mark in the Southern Conference. The nine wins are the most against Division I opponents in the 50-year history of the program, while the team earned an FCS playoff berth for the first time in school history. The 6-2 conference mark tied Cronic's 2021 team for the most Southern Conference wins in school history.

The Bears defeated Gardner-Webb 17-7 in the first round of the FCS playoffs before falling to eventual National Champion South Dakota State in the second round. Mercer finished the year ranked No. 20 in the AFCA Coaches Poll, one of three Southern Conference teams that were ranked in the final poll.

In 2022, Mercer (7-4, 5-3 SoCon) reached its highest AFCA FCS Coaches Poll ranking in school history at No. 11 thanks to its most explosive and potent offense in program history, as the Bears averaged 38.2 points per game.

In 2021, Mercer finished 7-3 and 6-2 in the conference, losing to East Tennessee State 38-35 in the final regular-season game of the year that determined the Southern Conference champion. Mercer finished the season ranked No. 21 in the STATS Perform Poll while averaging 31.7 points per game.

Cronic's first season at Mercer was supposed to be in the fall of 2020, but was pushed to the spring of 2021 due to COVID. Cronic led the Bears to their best Southern Conference season since joining the conference with five league wins, including three over ranked foes. Cronic's squad defeated No. 9 Chattanooga (35-28), No. 17 Furman (26-14) and No. 20 East Tennessee State (21-13) over three consecutive weeks.

Cronic engineered one of the most impressive turnarounds in college football at Lenoir-Rhyne, taking a team that went 3-8 the year before he got there to a 25-3 record over his two seasons at the helm (12-2 in 2018 and 13-1 in 2019).

Cronic was named the AFCA National Coach of the Year in 2018, as he led the Bears to the sixth-best turnaround in Division II history and past the first round of the Division II playoffs for just the second time in school history.

Cronic was the offensive coordinator at Furman in 2017, as his offense led the Paladins to the second round of the FCS playoffs, averaging 34 points per game.

Before his stint at Furman, Cronic coached at Reinhardt from 2012-16 and was instrumental in the startup of the program. For the first-three seasons, Cronic served as assistant head coach, offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator for the Eagles before being named the head coach prior to the 2015 campaign.

Cronic directed Reinhardt to a nine-win season in 2015 before a record-breaking year in 2016, as the Eagles went 13-1, won the Mid-South Conference Championship and advanced to the NAIA National Quarterfinals. Reinhardt averaged 51.1 points per contest and totaled 550.6 yards of offense per game, ranking first in the nation in both categories.

The Eagles led the nation in rushing offense (360.0 ypg) and rushing touchdowns (71), while having the nation's second-highest passing efficiency (178.0) to go along with 25 touchdown passes.

Cronic was twice named the Mid-South Conference West Division Coach of the Year and the AFCA NAIA Region I Coach of the Year.

Cronic's first stint at Furman lasted nine years (2002-10) as he served in several coaching roles including wide receivers, running backs, tight ends and recruiting coordinator. During his time there, the Paladins won a Southern Conference title in 2004 and put together an 11-3 season in 2005, which ended with a trip to the national semifinals.

In 1999, Cronic began his coaching career after graduate school at James Madison where he served three seasons as receivers coach and assistant recruiting coordinator. The Dukes won the Atlantic 10 Championship in his first year and earned a bid to the FCS Playoffs.

Cronic played quarterback for his father, Danny Cronic, at East Coweta High School before playing collegiately at Georgia. As a Bulldog, Cronic played wide receiver and was a member of the special teams, lettering twice and participating in the 1995 Peach Bowl and 1997 Outback Bowl.

Cronic received his bachelor's degree in mathematics education from the University of Georgia in 1998 before earning his master's degree in educational leadership in 1999 from the University of West Georgia.

Cronic and his wife, Amelia, have three sons, Noah, Elijah and Isaiah.

P.J. VOLKER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR | LINEBACKERS
SIXTH SEASON AT NAVY

P.J. Volker is in his sixth year at the Naval Academy coaching the linebackers and his second as the Mids' defensive coordinator.

Volker had a fantastic first year as the Mids' defensive coordinator, as Navy tied Penn State for the most shutouts in the country with 3. The 3 shutouts are the most by a Navy team since 1978 when George Welsh's stop troops recorded 4 shutouts. Navy also held a potent UAB attack out of the end zone in its 31-6 win over the Blazers, giving up just 2 field goals.

Navy's defense finished second in the nation in fumble recoveries (14), third in red zone defense (allowed opponents to score just 72% of the time), fourth in turnover margin (+0.92) and 19th in stop rate (71.3%).

Junior linebacker Colin Ramos was named First-Team All-American Athletic Conference, while junior safety Rayuan Lane III was named to the third team. Junior cornerback Dashaun Peele and senior linebacker Will Harbour were both named Honorable Mention All-Conference. Harbour, Ramos and Lane III were also named All-East.

Ramos led Navy in tackles with 110, while recording 9 tackles for a loss, 4 pass breakups, 2 sacks, 2 forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. He was twice named AAC Defensive Player of the Week for his performances against UAB (12 tackles, a sack, a TFL and a pass breakup) and ECU (10 tackles, 1.5 TFL). His 110 tackles are the most by a Navy player since Cody Peterson recorded 142 in 2013.

Harbour finished second on the team in tackles with 84, tied for 3rd in tackles for loss (7.5) and tied for 4th in sacks (3). He had a career-high 11 tackles against USF and Charlotte.

Navy finished with a 5-7 record and a 4-4 mark in the American Athletic Conference in 2023. The Mids, picked ninth in the preseason poll by the league's coaches, finished tied for fifth in the AAC.

The five wins were the most by a Navy team since 2019, while five of Navy's seven losses came at the hands of a team that played in a bowl game including two teams that finished in the top 25 (Notre Dame at #14 and SMU at #22).

Navy finished third in the nation against the run in 2022 (88.9 yards per game), which is even more impressive when you consider it was the only defense ranked in the top 25 that faced three of the top-10 rushing offenses in the country (#1 Air Force, #2 Army and #9 UCF). Navy also finished third nationally in fewest first downs allowed (187), 23rd in sacks (2.8 per game), 22nd in fumbles recovered (11) and 32nd in total defense (339.0 yards per game).

Sophomore linebacker Colin Ramos finished second on the team in tackles with 79, while recording 8.5 tackles for a loss, 4 sacks, 2 forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

In 2021, the Navy defense acquitted itself well by finishing 32nd in the nation in rushing defense, 34th in total defense and 34th in red zone defense. Senior linebacker Diego Fagot was distinguished with All-American honors, First-Team All-American Athletic Conference and was named All-East. Fagot was also named MVP of the East-West Shrine All-Star Game.

In 2020, after a slow start due to COVID, the defense finished the year with a flurry, holding Memphis, Tulsa and Army to under 300 yards of total offense. It was the first time a Navy defense had achieved that feat since 1997. Fagot was named Second Team All-American Athletic Conference.

In 2019, Newberry's first year on the job, Navy made massive improvements on the defensive side of the football.

Navy ranked 20th in third down defense (121st in 2018), 10th in rushing defense (90th in 2018), 39th in passing defense (75th in 2018), 16th in total defense (86th in 2018) and 34th in scoring defense (103rd in 2018).

The Mids finished 10th in the nation against the run despite facing the #2, #3 and #11 rushing offenses in the country. Navy forced the opposing offense off the field in three plays or less in 36 percent of its drives, which was the 10th-best average in the country. The Navy defense gave up just 15.2 first downs per game, which was tied for third best in the country. Fagot was named First-Team American Athletic Conference.

The defensive staff, led by then-coordinator Brian Newberry, installed a "Get 6" culture within the Navy defense that really took off. Newberry told the defensive players if they got a combination of six three-and-outs, fourth down stops, turnovers and defensive touchdowns in a game, the Mids would win. In 2019, the Mids were 8-0 when they managed to "Get 6."

Prior to his arrival in Annapolis, Volker served two seasons on the Kennesaw State defensive staff and was instrumental in the development of All-American Bryson Armstrong, who led the Big South in sacks (11), while ranked second in tackles (114) and tackles for a loss (12.5) in 2017.

As the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator for Trent Miles' program at Georgia State, Volker coached six All-Sun Belt Conference selections over four seasons (2013-16). In addition, he coached Joseph Peterson, the program's all-time leader in tackles and a three-time all-conference selection.

In 2015, as the Panthers reached their first bowl game in school history, the team was led by the nation's most improved defense.

Volker spent three years (2010-12) with Miles as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Indiana State, helping the Sycamores post three-straight winning seasons. While there, seven Indiana State linebackers were named to the all-conference team, including three-time selection Aaron Archie, who was the program's all-time leading tackler.

A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Volker was a three-year letterwinner and two-time all-conference selection at the College of Mount St. Joseph (Ohio). The 2005 graduate was honored with the school's Future Five Award, which honors alumni who have graduated within the last 20 years that have excelled in their profession and provided service to their communities.

He began his coaching career as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Thiel College.

From there, he joined the staff at Thomas More College in Kentucky, where he coached the linebackers and served as the program's recruiting coordinator.

He is married to the former Amanda Naseef, and the couple has two daughters, Rosie and Ella.

RICKY BROWN

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR | STRIKERS/RAIDERS
SECOND SEASON AT NAVY

Ricky Brown is in his second year at the Naval Academy where he coaches the strikers and raiders, and also serves as the special teams coordinator.

In his first year at Navy, the Mids tied Penn State for the most shutouts in the country with 3. The 3 shutouts are the most by a Navy team since 1978 when George Welsh's stop troops recorded 4 shutouts. Navy also held a potent UAB attack out of the end zone in its 31-6 win over the Blazers, giving up just 2 field goals.

Navy's defense finished second in the nation in fumble recoveries (14), third in red zone defense (allowed opponents to score just 72% of the time), fourth in turnover margin (+0.92) and 19th in stop rate (71.3%).

Navy's special teams also produced some top national numbers as the Mids had the 23rd ranked punt return defense (4.59 yds/return) and ranked 28th nationally in net punting (40.74 yds). Navy's kickoff return defense was the 25th best in the country (16.92 yards per return).

Junior punter Riley Riethman was named First-Team All-American Athletic Conference and All-East. He was also named Academic All-District by the College Sports Communicators with a 3.96 grade point average in Aerospace Engineering.

Riethman's 44.0 career average is the best average in school history and he owns 3 of the 5-best single-game performances in Navy history. He averaged 44.8 yards per punt this season, which tied John Skaggs for the Navy single-season record.

Senior striker Xavier McDonald was one of 11 FBS players who were selected to the 2023 Allstate American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Good Works Team. The Good Works Team was honored on Jan. 1 at the Allstate Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, an annual tradition provided courtesy of Allstate as an additional honor for being selected to the team.

Sophomore raider Luke Pirris finished tied for sixth in the country in fumble recoveries with 3 as well as being named the AAC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance against North Texas.

Navy finished with a 5-7 record and a 4-4 mark in the American Athletic Conference in 2023. The Mids, picked ninth in the preseason poll by the league's coaches, finished tied for fifth in the AAC.

Brown came to Navy from Tulsa, where he was hired by new head coach Kevin Wilson in January as the special teams coordinator and defensive assistant.

Prior to Tulsa, Brown spent one season at Cincinnati as the special teams quality control coach (2022) and two years at Ohio State (2020-21) in the same role.

Prior to coaching at Ohio State, Brown was on the staff at his alma mater, Boston College, from 2016-19. He served in a quality control role on defense and special teams in 2016 before being promoted to special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach in 2017 for his final three seasons in Chestnut Hill.

In Brown's first season back at Boston College, the defense recorded 47 sacks to rank fourth in the NCAA, while the BC special teams ranked seventh for opponent kickoff return average and 10th for punt returns. In 2017, his special teams unit ranked 11th in the nation in punt returns (13.11 avg.) and 22nd for kickoff return yards (946 yards), while ranking 26th in special teams efficiency.

A year later (2018), Brown coordinated a unit that ranked first nationally with three punt returns for touchdowns, was fifth with five blocked kicks, 16th for average punt return yards, 19th for average kickoff return yards and 30th in special teams efficiency.

Brown began his coaching career in a quality control role on defense at USC from 2014-15. In 2015, USC won the Pac-12 South title and made a second-consecutive appearance in the Holiday Bowl.

Before moving into the coaching profession, Brown worked for Morgan Stanley as a wealth advisory associate in Los Angeles following seven years in the NFL, playing for the Oakland Raiders, New England Patriots and Baltimore Ravens. Brown entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent.

Brown's collegiate career spanned from 2002-05 at Boston College. The outside linebacker was the winner of the Scanlan Award in 2005, the highest honor bestowed upon a BC football player, which recognizes accomplishments on the field, in the classroom and in the community. In four seasons, he recorded 184 tackles (118 solo) with 4.5 sacks. The Cincinnati, Ohio native graduated with a degree in finance in 2006.

Brown and his wife, Brynne, have two daughters, Brixton and Koby, and a son, Niko.

JERRICK HALL

DEFENSIVE RUNNING GAME COORDINATOR | DEFENSIVE LINE
SIXTH SEASON AT NAVY

Jerrick Hall enters his sixth year at Navy as the defensive line coach and his first as the defensive running game coordinator. In his first three years, he coached the nose guards and defensive tackles and in 2022 he added the defensive ends to his responsibilities.

In 2023, the Mids tied Penn State for the most shutouts in the country with 3. The 3 shutouts are the most by a Navy team since 1978 when George Welsh's stop troops recorded 4 shutouts. Navy also held a potent UAB attack out of the end zone in its 31-6 win over the Blazers, giving up just 2 field goals.

Navy's defense finished second in the nation in fumble recoveries (14), third in red zone defense (allowed opponents to score just 72% of the time), fourth in turnover margin (+0.92) and 19th in stop rate (71.3%).

A big part of Navy's success on defense was the stout defensive line of Justin Reed, Donald Bernard Jr., Landon Robinson and Clay Cromwell. Reed tied for sixth in the nation in fumble recoveries with 3, while Bernard Jr. started 42-consecutive games at nose guard, the most by any nose guard in the country and the second most among all defensive linemen.

Navy finished third in the nation against the run in 2022 (88.9 yards per game), which is even more impressive when you consider it was the only defense ranked in the top 25 that faced three of the top-10 rushing offenses in the country (#1 Air Force, #2 Army and #9 UCF). Navy also finished third nationally in fewest first downs allowed (187), 23rd in sacks (2.8 per game), 22nd in fumbles recovered (11) and 32nd in total defense (339.0 yards per game).

Defensive end Jacob Busic was named First-Team All-East in 2022. He finished with 38 tackles, 8.5 tackles for a loss, 6 sacks, forced 2 fumbles and recovered a fumble while teaming up with John Marshall to give Navy one of its best pass rushing duos since 2005 when Tyler Tidwell (10) and David Mahoney (8) combined for 18 sacks.

In 2021, despite playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, the Navy defense acquitted itself well by finishing 32nd in the nation in rushing defense (130.4 yards per game), 51st in passing defense (218.2 yards per game), 34th in total defense (348.6 yards per game) and 34th in red zone defense (.778).

In 2020, after a slow start, the Navy defense finished the year with a flurry, holding Memphis (205 yards), Tulsa (296) and Army (162) to under 300 yards of total offense. It was the first time a Navy defense had achieved that feat since 1997 when the Mids did it seven-consecutive games.

In 2019, Navy had one of the greatest seasons in school history, winning a school-record tying 11 games against just two losses, winning the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, sharing the American Athletic Conference West Division title with Memphis and winning the prestigious Liberty Bowl. The Mids' eight-game improvement from 2018 was the second-biggest turnaround in FBS history.

The Mids finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls. It marked just the second time in the last 56 years that Navy finished in the AP Top 20 (18th in 2015).

A big part of that turnaround was the massive improvement Navy showed on the defensive side of the football, as the Mids improved in every major category.

Navy finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in third down defense (121st in 2018), 10th in rushing defense (90th in 2018), 39th in passing defense (75th in 2018), 16th in total defense (86th in 2018), 34th in scoring defense (103rd in 2018), 68th in pass efficiency defense (117th in 2018), 55th in sacks (129th in 2018) and 53rd in tackles for a loss (129th in 2018).

The defensive staff, led by coordinator Brian Newberry, installed a "Get 6" culture within the Navy defense that took off. Newberry told the defensive players if they got a combination of six three-and-outs, fourth down stops, turnovers and defensive touchdowns in a game, the Mids would win. In 2019, the Mids were 8-0 when they managed to "Get 6."

The Mids finished 10th in the nation against the run, giving up just 105.8 yards per game, despite facing the #2, #3 and #11 rushing offense's in the country. The Mids forced the opposing offense off the field in three plays or less in 36 percent of its drives, which was the 10th best average in the country. The Navy defense gave up just 15.2 first downs per game, which was tied for third best in the country.

Hall is a 16-year coaching veteran and was a standout player at North Carolina State. He came to Navy from Elon, where he was an assistant for five years in two different stints.

Hall returned to Elon in 2017 and immediately helped the Phoenix to one of the biggest turnarounds in the FCS going from 2-9 the year before to 8-4 and a berth in the FCS playoffs. In 2018, Elon finished 6-5 and made the FCS playoffs for a second-straight year.

One of Hall's pupils, Marcus Willoughby, recorded 117 tackles over two seasons and was named All-CAA. The Phoenix ranked 15th in the country in quarterback sacks, averaging almost three per game. In 2017, Elon's defensive line was responsible for 18 of the team's 31 sacks. Willoughby signed a free agent contract with the Baltimore Ravens in the spring.

Hall was the defensive line coach at Fordham in 2015 and 2016 and helped the Rams to a two-year record of 17-6.

The Fordham defense led the Patriot League and ranked 10th nationally in both turnovers gained and fumbles recovered in 2015. In 2016, Fordham ranked sixth nationally in passing efficiency defense and seventh in turnover margin.

Justin Vaughn was an All-Patriot League selection in 2016 and went on to play in the CFL with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

Hall spent the 2014 season at the University of New Haven where he helped guide the Chargers to a 6-3 mark in the Northeast 10. New Haven finished 18th in Division II in rushing yards allowed per game and fourth in tackles for loss per game. One of Hall's players, Drake Harris, was named all-conference in the NE10.

Prior to his year in New Haven, Hall spent four seasons at Elon. In 2011, Hall mentored a defensive line that amassed 141 total tackles, 26.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks. With a young line in 2012, Hall's unit recorded 6.5 of Elon's 16 sacks. Both Jordan Gibson and Brandon Brant were named All-Southern Conference.

From 2007-09, Hall helped coach Campbell University's defensive unit. During that stretch, the 2009 squad tallied 50 tackles for loss, including 12 sacks. Three of the 2008 squad's defensive linemen ranked among the top-25 linemen in the league in tackles per game.

Prior to joining the Fighting Camels, Hall spent three seasons coaching at his alma mater, N.C. State, where he was responsible for defensive film breakdown, scouting reports, coaching the offensive scout team and working with the defensive line. During his tenure, Hall worked with four first-round NFL draft picks, including Mario Williams - the first overall pick in the 2006 NFL Draft.

A 2004 graduate of N.C. State, Hall was a four-year letter winner for the Wolfpack as a defensive tackle and helped the program to three bowl game appearances, including a win over Notre Dame in 2002 Toyota Gator Bowl. His defensive coordinator at N.C. State was former Navy defensive coordinator Buddy Green. He earned a bachelor's degree in Park Recreation and Tourism Management in 2004 and completed his master's degree in Liberal Studies in 2007.

Hall and his wife, Ashley, have four children, twins Ayden and Avery and twins Joshua and Jordan. Ayden will be a junior at the Naval Academy this fall.

ERIC LEWIS

DEFENSIVE PASSING GAME COORDINATOR | SAFETIES
SECOND SEASON AT NAVY

Eric Lewis is in his second year at the Naval Academy serving as the safeties coach and defensive passing game coordinator.

In his first year at Navy, the Mids tied Penn State for the most shutouts in the country with 3. The 3 shutouts are the most by a Navy team since 1978 when George Welsh's stop troops recorded 4 shutouts. Navy also held a potent UAB attack out of the end zone in its 31-6 win over the Blazers, giving up just 2 field goals.

Navy's defense finished second in the nation in fumble recoveries (14), third in red zone defense (allowed opponents to score just 72% of the time), fourth in turnover margin (+0.92) and 19th in stop rate (71.3%).

Junior safety Rayuan Lane III garnered Third-Team All-AAC accolades and was named All-East after posting 66 tackles (3rd on the team), 3 tackles for loss, 0.5 sacks, accounted for 4 of Navy's 10 interceptions (entered 2023 with 1 career INT), had a team-best 8 pass breakups (entered 2023 with 8-career PBUs), a fumble recovery and 2 forced fumbles. He returned an interception against UAB 97 yards for a touchdown. It was the longest interception return in Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium history, the second longest in Navy history, the second longest in AAC history and tied for the sixth longest play in school history.

Navy finished with a 5-7 record and a 4-4 mark in the American Athletic Conference in 2023. The Mids, picked ninth in the preseason poll by the league's coaches, finished tied for fifth in the AAC.

The five wins were the most by a Navy team since 2019, while five of Navy's seven losses came at the hands of a team that played in a bowl game including two teams that finished in the Top 25 (Notre Dame at #14 and SMU at #22).

Lewis came to Navy from Bowling Green, where he had been the secondary coach for the last three years and the defensive coordinator for the last two seasons.

In 2022, he helped lead the Falcons to the Quicken Lanes Bowl as the Bowling Green defense tied a school record and finished 16th in the nation with 38 sacks. Defensive end Karl Brooks finished with 10 sacks, which was tied for 13th in the nation and third in school history. Brooks was a First-Team All-American by Pro Football Focus and was PFF's top graded edge rusher in the nation.

In 2021, Lewis' first as the defensive coordinator, the BGSU defense led the MAC as it recorded its best season defensively since 2013, allowing opponents only 373.7 yards per game.

Lewis joined Bowling Green following a stint coaching the defensive backs at Boston College in 2019 and coaching the secondary at Colorado State in 2018.

While at Colorado State Lewis helped the team improve 28 spots nationally in pass defense.

Lewis was a quality control assistant at Tennessee in 2017 after spending the 2015 and '16 seasons at Georgia State. While at Georgia State, Lewis' 2016 secondary ranked sixth in the NCAA in passing efficiency defense and eighth in passing defense, while allowing the fewest passing touchdowns in FBS (8).

In 2015, his Georgia State team was the most improved defense in the country in terms of scoring defense (allowing 15 points per game fewer than the previous season), rush defense and passing defense efficiency.

Other stops for Lewis include the secondary coach at Buffalo (2014), defensive coordinator at Weber State (2012-13), defensive coordinator at Eastern Michigan (2009), cornerbacks coach at Louisville (2008), defensive quality control coach with the Green Bay Packers (2006-07), safeties coach at Ball State (2003-05), defensive backs coach at Bucknell (2002) and graduate assistant at Michigan State (2001).

Lewis earned his bachelor's degree in business administration (finance) from San Diego State, having played for the Aztecs from 1994-98. He was a 2014 inductee into the St. Francis High School Hall of Fame. Lewis was a four-year starter at San Diego State and finished as the Aztecs' all-time leader in career pass breakups.

He is the son of long-time college and NFL coach Sherman Lewis. He and his wife Elizabeth have four children – Taylor, Harper, Emerson and Micah.

DAVID COLE

ASSISTANT COACH | SNIPES
FIRST SEASON AT NAVY

David Cole is in his first year at Navy where he will coach the snipes (formerly known as slot backs).

Prior to Navy, Cole spent four years at Mercer as the associate head coach, special teams coordinator and cornerbacks coach. Cole has coached alongside Navy's new offensive coordinator Drew Cronin for six seasons, including the 2018 and 2019 campaigns at Lenoir-Rhyne where he also served as the interim head coach.

Cole helped lead Mercer to an historic 9-4 record in 2023, including a 6-2 mark in the Southern Conference. The nine wins are the most against Division I opponents in the 50-year history of the program, while the team earned an FCS playoff berth for the first time in school history. The 6-2 conference mark tied the 2021 team for the most Southern Conference wins in school history.

In 2022, Cole helped the Bears achieve their highest ranking in program history at No. 11 in the AFCA FCS Coaches Poll. Cole coached the cornerbacks in 2022, which was part of a Mercer defense that led the FCS in total interceptions with 17.

As special teams coach, Cole worked with returner Devron Harper who was named 2022 SoCon Special Teams Player of the Year by Phil Steele. Harper, who led the conference in kick return average at 29.1 yards per return, was also named First-Team All-SoCon by the coaches and media as a kick and punt returner. He was the only player in the SoCon to have a kick and punt returned for a touchdown. Mercer's Trey Turk led the SoCon with 44.4 average yards per punt.

In 2021, Cole helped guide the Bears to the most Southern Conference wins in school history and set the stage for a regular-season finale against ETSU for the conference championship. Mercer's kicking game, under the direction of Cole, was as good as anyone in the SoCon with Turk averaging 40.6 yards per punt. Harper was among the most exciting punt returners in the league, averaging 12.14 yards per return and a long return of 52 yards. Harper also averaged 21.33 yards per kickoff return with a long of 53 yards.

Cole helped lead the Bears to five SoCon wins in 2020-21, including three consecutive triumphs over ranked foes. He also helped the Bears achieve a No. 23 ranking in the Stats Perform FCS Top 25 poll for Mercer's first appearance in the poll. Mercer defeated No. 9 Chattanooga (35-28), No. 17 Furman (26-14) and No. 20 ETSU (21-13) in three consecutive weeks and at one point had a four-game winning streak in league play.

Cole spent a total of four seasons prior to Mercer in Hickory, N.C., with Lenoir-Rhyne, including the last two years with Cronin. Cole mentored an explosive special teams' unit in 2018 that featured return man Kyle Dugger and posted a 25-3 record, two conference championships and two quarterfinal playoff appearances.

Dugger earned the National Special Teams Player of the Year award under Cole after becoming the first player in the 99-year history of Lenoir-Rhyne football to return two punts for a touchdown in the same game. Dugger's TD returns of 69 and 64 yards sent Lenoir-Rhyne to a 34-21 victory over Newberry. Dugger would go on to break the program record for most punt return yards in a season (534) and would be named all-conference, all-region and an Honorable Mention All-American for his returning prowess.

In his time in Hickory, Cole also served as co-recruiting coordinator for the Bears in 2017 and the interim head coach prior to Cronin's hiring.

Prior to his time at Lenoir-Rhyne, Cole spent nine seasons as an assistant coach at California (Pa.) University.

While with the Vulcans, Cole headed up the secondary and was the team's recruiting coordinator and pass game coordinator. California (Pa.) posted 149 interceptions from 2005 to 2015 with Cole coaching the defensive backs.

During Cole's tenure with California (Pa.), the Vulcans advanced to three-straight NCAA Division II National Semifinals (2007-09) in addition to five playoff appearances and seven-consecutive PSAC West Conference Championships (2005-11). The 2007 Vulcans' defense was ranked No. 1 in the nation in total defense.

In the summer of 2013, Cole was selected for an NFL Internship - the Bill Walsh Minority Coaching Fellowship Program - for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Cole, who holds bachelor's and master's degrees (both in geography and regional planning) from California (Pa.), started his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Vulcans in 2004.

Cole was a four-year letter winner and two-year starter for the Vulcans.

Cole and his wife, Sharron, are the parents of three daughters, Saniya, Rebekah and Savannah and a son, the late Davin Roberson.

COACHING STAFF

ROBERT GREEN

ASSISTANT COACH | CORNERBACKS
12TH SEASON AT NAVY

Robert B. Green is in his 12th season at the Naval Academy and his ninth as a coach on the field. He currently serves as the Mids' cornerbacks coach.

In 2023, the Mids tied Penn State for the most shutouts in the country with 3. The 3 shutouts are the most by a Navy team since 1978 when George Welsh's stop troops recorded 4 shutouts. Navy also held a potent UAB attack out of the end zone in its 31-6 win over the Blazers, giving up just 2 field goals.

Navy's defense finished second in the nation in fumble recoveries (14), third in red zone defense (allowed opponents to score just 72% of the time), fourth in turnover margin (+0.92) and 19th in stop rate (71.3%).

Junior corner Dashaun Peele was named Honorable Mention All-American Athletic Conference. Peele showed a nose for the ball on defense, picking off 4 passes in the last 7 games to go along with 5 pass breakups and a fumble recovery. He has 5 interceptions in 16-career games and his 4 interceptions in 2023 were tied with Rayuan Lane III for the 17th most in the country.

Navy finished with a 5-7 record and a 4-4 mark in the American Athletic Conference in 2023. The Mids, picked ninth in the preseason poll by the league's coaches, finished tied for fifth in the AAC.

The five wins were the most by a Navy team since 2019, while five of Navy's seven losses came at the hands of a team that played in a bowl game including two teams that finished in the top 25 (Notre Dame at #14 and SMU at #22).

Navy finished third in the nation against the run in 2022 (88.9 yards per game), which is even more impressive when you consider it was the only defense ranked in the top 25 that faced three of the top-10 rushing offenses in the country (#1 Air Force, #2 Army and #9 UCF). Navy also finished third nationally in fewest first downs allowed (187), 23rd in sacks (2.8 per game), 22nd in fumbles recovered (11) and 32nd in total defense (339.0 yards per game).

In 2021, despite playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, the Navy defense acquitted itself well by finishing 32nd in the nation in rushing defense (130.4 yards per game), 51st in passing defense (218.2 yards per game), 34th in total defense (348.6 yards per game) and 34th in red zone defense (.778). Cornerback Michael McMorris tied for fourth in the country in forced fumbles with five and was invited to the FBS All-American Tropical Bowl.

In 2020, after a slow start, the Navy defense finished the year with a flurry, holding Memphis (205 yards), Tulsa (296) and Army (162) to under 300 yards of total offense. It was the first time a Navy defense had achieved that feat since 1997 when the Mids did it seven consecutive games.

In 2019, Navy had one of the greatest seasons in school history, winning a school-record tying 11 games against just two losses, winning the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, sharing the American Athletic Conference West Division title with Memphis and winning the prestigious Liberty Bowl. The Mids' eight-game improvement from 2018 was the second-biggest turnaround in FBS history.

The Mids finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls. It marked just the second time in the last 56 years that Navy finished in the AP Top 20 (18th in 2015).

A big part of that turnaround was the massive improvement Navy showed on the defensive side of the football as the Mids improved in every major category.

Navy finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in third down defense (121st in 2018), 10th in rushing defense (90th in 2018), 39th in passing defense (75th in 2018), 16th in total defense (86th in 2018), 34th in scoring defense (103rd in 2018), 68th in pass efficiency defense (117th in 2018), 55th in sacks (129th in 2018) and 53rd in tackles for a loss (129th in 2018).

The defensive staff, led by then-coordinator Brian Newberry, installed a "Get 6" culture within the Navy defense that took off. Newberry told the defensive players if they got a combination of six three-and-outs, fourth down stops, turnovers and defensive touchdowns in a game, the Mids would win. In 2019, the Mids were 8-0 when they managed to "Get 6."

The Mids finished 10th in the nation against the run, giving up just 105.8 yards per game, despite facing the #2, #3 and #11 rushing offense's in the country. The Mids forced the opposing offense off the field in three plays or less in 36 percent of its drives, which was the 10th best average in the country. The Navy defense gave up just 15.2 first downs per game, which was tied for third best in the country.

Navy finished the 2017 campaign with a 7-6 record, which included a 49-7 rout of Virginia in the Military Bowl. The 42-point margin of victory was the largest by a Navy team over a team from the autonomy 5 since the Mids beat West Virginia 51-7 in the 1963 season opener. The Mids played eight games against teams that went to a bowl game and played five teams that won 10 or more games.

The defense improved in all four major categories in 2017: against the run (154.5 yards per game in 2017), the pass (215.8 yards per game), total defense (370.3 yards per game) and scoring defense (26.3 points per game).

Navy finished the 2016 season with a 9-5 mark and a 7-1 record in the American Athletic Conference despite a season that saw the Mids have 102 missed games by starters or key contributors. The Mids played Temple in the AAC Championship game and played in a bowl game (Armed Forces) for the 13th time in the last 14 years. The nine wins tied for the fifth most wins in school history. Outside linebacker DJ Palmore was named First-Team All-East.

Navy finished the 2015 campaign with a school-record 11 wins against just two losses, qualified for a bowl game for the 12th time in the last 13 years, won a bowl game for the 10th time in school history (beat Pittsburgh 44-28 in the Military Bowl), won a bowl game for a third straight year for the first time in school history, defeated Army for a series-record 14th consecutive year, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the third time in the last four years, won the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East for the first time since 1963, finished 18th in the country in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls and shared the West Division title of the American Athletic Conference with Houston in Navy's first year of being in a conference after being an Independent for 134 years.

As a team, the defense finished the 2015 season ranked 32nd in rushing defense (143.0), 40th in total defense (364.9), 26th in scoring defense (21.8), 12th in red zone defense (.737), 13th in turnovers gained (27), first in fumbles recovered (15) and third in turnover margin (+1.46).

Green spent his first two years as the Director of Player Development assisting Coach Niumatalolo and the officer representatives with professional development and molding of Navy football players to assume future positions of leadership in the Navy and Marine Corps.

Green is a 1998 graduate of the Naval Academy where he was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter on the football team as a defensive back. During the 1996 campaign Navy fashioned its best record since 1978 at 9-3 and registered a 42-38 victory over California in the Aloha Bowl. Consequently, Green was named to the Blue-Gray All-Star Football Classic and was an All-Independent selection.

Green was born and raised in Atlanta, Ga., where he attended Booker T. Washington High School. After graduation, Green attended the Naval Academy Preparatory School in Newport, R.I. before moving on to the Naval Academy. He was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps in May 1998, having completed his undergraduate education at the Naval Academy.

Following The Basic School and the Logistics Officer Course, he was assigned to 9th Communication Battalion, I Marine Expeditionary Force Headquarters Group in July 1999. During this tour, Green served as the S-4 Alpha, Maintenance Management Officer, and Headquarters Company Commander. Ordered to Okinawa in June 2002, Green was transferred to Marine Aviation Logistics Squadron 36, 1st Marine Aircraft Wing, Camp Futenma, Japan, where he served as the S-4 Officer.

In July 2003, Green was assigned to Recruiting Station Indianapolis. While stationed there, Green served for two and one-half years as the Operations Officer, and one-half year as the Executive Officer.

In July 2006, Green reported to Inspector-Instructor duty serving as Operations Officer and Assistant Inspector and Instructor for Headquarters and Service Battalion, 4th Marine Logistics Group, Dobbins ARB; Marietta, Ga. During his tour, he was deployed to Iraq as a member of the 1st Marine Logistics Group G-3 staff in July 2008. Stationed at Camp Al Taqaddum, he served as the Embarkation and Unit Movement Coordination Center Officer-in-Charge.

Green returned from Iraq in February 2009 only to depart Marietta in July 2009 to further his career at the Air Command and Staff College at Maxwell AFB in Montgomery, Al. Earning a Master's Degree in Military Operational Art, Green graduated in June 2010 and was assigned to 2d Marine Division.

Upon arriving at 2nd Marine Division Headquarters, Green was immediately deployed to Operation Enduring Freedom and assigned as the Logistics Officer for Regional Support Command - Southwest, NATO Training Mission - Afghanistan at Camp Leatherneck. After the seven month tour, Green returned to Camp Lejeune, and was assigned as the S-4 Officer for the 6th Marine Regiment in February 2011.

As a member of 6th Marine Regiment, Green deployed to Afghanistan for a second time in December 2011. After serving a combined 11 months on Camp Delaram and Camp Leatherneck, the Regiment returned home in November 2012. He continued to serve as the senior Logistics Officer for the command until his transfer to the Naval Academy.

As a Marine, the former Lieutenant Colonel's personal decorations include Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal (2nd award), Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal (2nd award), Meritorious Service Medal (2nd Award), Defense Meritorious Service Medal, and Legion of Merit.

Green retired from the U.S. Marine Corps in the summer of 2017. He resides in Annapolis with his wife, Robyn, and twin boys, Garrison and Grant.

JAY GUILLERMO

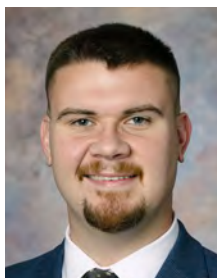

ASSISTANT COACH | OFFENSIVE LINE
FIRST SEASON AT NAVY

Jay Guillermo is in his first year as offensive line coach, joining the Navy coaching staff from Mercer.

Guillermo was hired at Mercer after the conclusion of the 2023 season from East Tennessee State where he had served as the offensive line coach.

Guillermo was the engineer behind an offensive line at East Tennessee State that helped pave the way for one of the Southern Conference's top rushing attacks last season. The Bucs topped the 200-yard rushing plateau four times in 2023, including a 286-yard performance in an early November shootout with league rival VMI.

The Maryville, Tenn., native got his start in coaching in 2019 as a graduate assistant coach at Georgia State and then broke into the profession on a full-time basis as the tight ends coach at Western Carolina for an abbreviated spring 2021 season.

Guillermo spent the 2021 campaign as the offensive line coach at Carson-Newman, a perennial national contender on the NCAA Division II level, and then made the move to Charlottesville, Va., where he served as a graduate assistant coach for Virginia during the 2022 season.

A dominant offensive lineman for head coach Dabo Swinney at Clemson from 2012-16, Guillermo helped the Tigers amass a 60-9 clip during his time in Death Valley, including a 35-5 record against Atlantic Coast Conference foes. Clemson captured a pair of ACC titles during that span, and made five bowl appearances, including berths into the College Football Playoffs (CFP) that culminated both the 2015 and 2016 campaigns for the Tigers.

Guillermo saw action in 46 games (29 starts) over his collegiate career, and amassed 69 knockdowns in more than 2,550 snaps as a leader on the offensive line. A four-time ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week and 2016 Hammer Strength All-American selection, he was voted as a permanent captain as the starting center for the 2016 squad that posted a 14-1 record, including a 35-31 win over Alabama in the National Championship Game.

Guillermo earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Clemson in 2016. He and his wife, Ava, are the proud parents of a daughter, Luna, and son, Roman.

IVIN JASPER

ASSISTANT COACH | QUARTERBACKS AND FULLBACKS
25TH SEASON AT NAVY

Ivin Jasper is entering his 25th year at the Naval Academy coaching the quarterbacks and will also coach the fullbacks this fall.

Jasper's quarterbacks rank first (Keenan Reynolds, 31), second (Ricky Dobbs, 27), fourth (Will Worth, 26), fifth (Reynolds, 24), sixth (Reynolds, 23) and 11th (Malcolm Perry, 21) on the FBS single-season rushing touchdowns list by a quarterback. Reynolds is also the FBS record holder for career rushing touchdowns by any player with 88.

Navy finished with a 5-7 record and a 4-4 mark in the American Athletic Conference in 2023. The Mids, picked ninth in the preseason poll by the league's coaches, finished tied for fifth in the AAC despite having to play 4 different quarterbacks due to injury (second most in the country) and was the only FBS school to start 3 different quarterbacks in a win.

In 2022, Navy finished fourth in the nation in rushing, averaging 241.2 yards per game. The Mids finished third in the country in passing yards per completion (19.0), 25th in fourth down conversions (.605) and second in time of possession (34:38).

In 2021, Navy managed to have the ninth-best rushing offense in the country (225.5 yards per game) despite facing six of the top-35 defenses in the country, including three of the top 10. On top of the tough schedule, Navy had to start five different offensive tackles, five different guards and three different centers due to injury.

In 2019, Navy had one of the greatest seasons in school history, winning a school-record tying 11 games against just two losses, winning the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, sharing the American Athletic Conference West Division title with Memphis and winning the prestigious Liberty Bowl. The Mids' eight-game improvement from 2018 was the second-biggest turnaround in FBS history.

The Mids finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls. It marked just the second time in the last 56 years that Navy finished in the AP Top 20 (18th in 2015).

A big part of that success was a Navy offense that set school records for total rushing yards (4,687), rushing yards per attempt (6.1), rushing yards per game (360.5), total offense yards per game (455.8) and tied the record for total offensive yards per attempt (6.8). The Mids also led the nation in rushing.

The Mids were also prolific in the passing game, finishing second in the country in average yards per catch (22.51) and seventh in passing efficiency (176.92).

Quarterback Malcolm Perry was simply sensational under the tutelage of Jasper, rushing for a school-record 2,017 rushing yards, which is the most in FBS history by a quarterback and the 24th most in FBS history by a player at any position in a single season. Perry also set school records for rushing yards per game (155.1), total offense (238.5 yards per game) and passer rating (181.5). Perry led the country in explosive runs (runs of 20 yards or more) with 26. He was named the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year, the ECAC Offensive Player of the Year and the Liberty Bowl Most Valuable Player.

Perry rushed for an Army-Navy Game record 304 yards and two touchdowns in Navy's

COACHING STAFF

31-7 rout of Army as he helped bring the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy back to Annapolis for the 16th time in school history. Perry capped his career in the Liberty Bowl by rushing for 213 yards on 28 carries in Navy's 20-17 win over Kansas State. In the final four games of his illustrious career, Perry rushed for 858 yards and five touchdowns on 113 carries (214.5 yards per game). Perry also set the school record for passer rating (181.6).

Navy finished the 2017 campaign with a 7-6 record, which included a 49-7 rout of Virginia in the Military Bowl. The 42-point margin of victory was the largest by a Navy team over a team from the autonomy 5 since the Mids beat West Virginia 51-7 in the 1963 season opener. The Mids played eight games against teams that went to a bowl game and played five teams that won 10 or more games. The offense set a school record by averaging 351.4 yards per game.

Quarterback Zach Abey rushed for 1,413 yards, the second most in school history for a single season, and 19 touchdowns, tied for the fifth most in school history. Slot back / quarterback Malcom Perry had games of 282 yards (SMU) and 250 yards (Army) rushing in his first two career starts at quarterback. He is just the third player in FBS history to have two runs of 90 or more yards in a single season.

Navy finished the 2016 campaign with a 9-5 mark and a 7-1 record in the American Athletic Conference despite a season that saw the Mids have 102 missed games by starters or key contributors. The nine wins tied for the fifth most wins in school history and the team set school records for points (531), touchdowns (73), touchdowns per game (5.2), rushing touchdowns (61), total offense (6,136 yards) and yards per play (6.8) despite playing four different quarterbacks. Navy also won the West Division of the AAC that year.

Quarterback Tagg Smith was poised to have a breakout senior campaign before injuring his knee in the second quarter of the season opener against Fordham and was lost for the year. Senior Will Worth, who had been the holder the previous three seasons, stepped in and was on pace to break most of Keenan Reynolds' single-season records before breaking his foot in the AAC Championship Game. Worth finished with 1,198 rushing yards and 25 touchdowns, while throwing for 1,397 yards and eight touchdowns. His 25 rushing touchdowns were the fourth most in NCAA history for a quarterback, while his 2,595 yards of total offense was a school record.

In 2015, Navy won a school-record 11 games against just two losses, qualified for a bowl game, won a bowl game for the 10th time in school history (beat Pittsburgh 44-28 in the Military Bowl), won a bowl game for a third straight year for the first time in school history, defeated Army for a series-record 14th consecutive year, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the third time in the last four years, won the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East for the first time since 1963, finished 18th in the country in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls and shared the West Division title of the American Athletic Conference with Houston in Navy's first year of being in a conference after being an Independent for 134 years.

Quarterback Keenan Reynolds finished his playing career as the all-time leading touchdown scorer (both total and rushing) in FBS history with 88, as well as the all-time leading rusher for a quarterback in FBS history (4,559 yards), the all-time leading rusher in school history and the all-time leader touchdown passer in school history (31). He is just the sixth quarterback in FBS history to rush and pass for 4,000 yards in a career. He finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting, was named Third-Team All-American by the Associated Press and was named the American Athletic Conference and ECAC Offensive Player of the Year. He was also named the winner of the James E. Sullivan Award, which is given to the nation's most outstanding amateur athlete and had his number (19) retired. Reynolds was drafted in the sixth round by the Baltimore Ravens.

Navy finished the 2014 season with an 8-5 record, qualified for a bowl game, won a bowl game (beat San Diego State 17-16 in the Poinsettia Bowl) and defeated Army.

Navy finished the 2013 campaign with a 9-4 record, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, qualified for a bowl game, won a bowl game (beat Middle Tennessee, 24-6, in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl) and defeated Army.

Reynolds had one of the greatest seasons by a Navy football player in school history in 2013, rushing for 1,346 yards and 31 touchdowns, while throwing for 1,057 yards and eight touchdowns. His 31 rushing touchdowns not only was a school record, but an NCAA record for a quarterback. He is just the fourth player in NCAA history (any position) to rush for 30 or more touchdowns in a single season.

Jasper helped lead Navy to an 8-5 record in 2012 and a berth in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. Navy defeated Air Force 28-21 in overtime and Army 17-13 to win the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

The Mids posted an impressive 9-4 record in 2010, defeated Army, defeated Notre Dame in consecutive seasons for only the third time in school history and appeared in a school-record eighth-consecutive bowl game.

Quarterback Ricky Dobbs finished his career with 2,665 career rushing yards (sixth all-time at Navy), 2,770 passing yards (ninth all-time at Navy), 49 career rushing touchdowns (second all-time at Navy) and his 13 passing touchdowns in 2010 was a school record for a single-season.

The 2009 season saw the Mids tie a school record for wins with 10, win the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, appeared in a school-record seventh-consecutive bowl game and ran its winning streak against the other two Service Academies to an amazing 15- straight games. The Mids capped the season off with a 35-13 rout of Missouri in the Texas Bowl.

Navy posted an 8-5 record in 2008 and participated in the EagleBank Bowl. The Mids won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy thanks to a 33-27 victory over Air Force and a 34-0 win over Army.

The 2007 season saw the Mids post an 8-5 record, win the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, appear in a bowl game, became the first team in NCAA history to lead the nation in rushing three-consecutive years (rushing for a school-record 348.8 yards per contest) and defeated Notre Dame for the first time since 1963.

In 2006, Navy became just the fifth school in NCAA history to go to four or more consecutive bowl games with a different quarterback each year.

In 2005, Navy led the nation in rushing (318.7 yards per game) as the Mids went 8-4, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and won a bowl game (beat Colorado State 51-30).

In 2004, the Mids won 10 games, won the Emerald Bowl and claim the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

In 2003 the Mids led the nation in rushing and set school records for rushing yards per game, total rushing yards, rushing yards per attempt, rushing touchdowns, total offense, total offense per game and yards per play as Navy went 8-5, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and earned a berth in the Houston Bowl.

Jasper came to Navy from Georgia Southern where he served as the quarterbacks and fullbacks coach for three years and helped lead the Eagles to a 38-6 record and back-to-back NCAA Division I-AA National Championships in 1999 and 2000.

Prior to his appointment at Georgia Southern in January 1999, Jasper served as offensive coordinator at Indiana State during the 1998 season.

Before assuming the offensive coordinator's position at the Naval Academy Prep School in Newport, R.I., in 1997, Jasper spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Navy in 1995 and '96, handling the quarterbacks, fullbacks and slot backs.

Jasper is a 1994 graduate of the University of Hawai'i where he earned his bachelor's degree in sociology/criminology. He was a three-year letterman for the Rainbow Warriors (1991-93) at quarterback and slot back, where he helped lead Hawai'i to a Western Athletic Conference title.

A native of Los Angeles, Jasper and his wife, Donna, are the parents of a daughter, Dallas, and sons, Jaylen and Jarren.

TOMMY LAURENDINE

ASSISTANT COACH | OFFENSIVE LINE
SECOND SEASON AT NAVY

Long-time option coach Tommy Laurendine is in his second year at Navy and his first year coaching the offensive line. Laurendine coached the fullbacks last year.

Navy finished with a 5-7 record and a 4-4 mark in the American Athletic Conference in 2023. The Mids, picked ninth in the preseason poll by the league's coaches, finished tied for fifth in the AAC despite having to play 4 different quarterbacks due to injury (second most in the country) and was the only FBS school to start 3 different quarterbacks in a win.

Fullback Alex Tecza was named All-East and Honorable Mention All-American Athletic Conference after his sensational sophomore campaign Tecza led the Mids in rushing with 758 yards and 5 touchdowns on 126 carries. He had a career-high 163 yards and a touchdown on 15 carries against Memphis in the AAC opener, including a career-long 75 yard run.

Laurendine came to Navy from Mississippi College, where he was the offensive coordinator for the last five seasons.

Mississippi College finished second in the nation in rushing in 2022, averaging a school-record 325.1 yards per game, while the Choctaws averaged 274.8 yards per game on the ground over his five years as the offensive coordinator.

Laurendine served as the head football coach and offensive coordinator at Sewanee from 2011-16. Under Laurendine's leadership, Sewanee continued to be one of the top rushing teams in the nation. In his first season as head coach (2011), Laurendine guided Sewanee to its best season since 2005. The Tigers finished with more overall wins in 2011, five, than the previous four seasons combined. For his efforts, Laurendine was honored as the SCAC Co-Coach of the Year.

An Oak Ridge, Tennessee native, Laurendine came to Sewanee from The Citadel, where he served as the offensive coordinator in 2010. In addition, Laurendine coached the quarterbacks and fullbacks for the Bulldogs.

Before his stint at The Citadel, Laurendine served as the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and fullbacks coach at NCAA Division II Lenoir-Rhyne College for two seasons.

In 2008, his offense improved by more than 126 yards per game and finished the season ranked fifth in Division II in rushing, averaging 295.3 yards per contest.

A year later, Laurendine and the Bears improved to 294.3 rushing yards per game, finishing the year with the second-best rushing average in Division II.

Prior to his stint at Lenoir-Rhyne, Laurendine served as the offensive coordinator at Washington & Lee University in 2007. During his time with the Generals, he coached quarterbacks and wide receivers. Laurendine also served as the Generals' offensive coordinator from 1995-1997.

From 2001-2006, Laurendine was the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Southern Arkansas. While at Southern Arkansas, Laurendine's offenses set a combined 18 school records and earned a berth in the NCAA Division II playoffs in 2003.

The 2005 squad broke records for total offense (4,677), rushing attempts (630), first downs (250), touchdowns (44), rushing offense (296.4 ypg), total offense (425.2 ypg), scoring offense (29.7 points per game), and single game yardage (615). He also spent the 2000 season as SAU's assistant head coach, offensive line coach and team academic coordinator.

Laurendine also had coaching stops at West Alabama (1997-2000), Northwest Whitfield High School (1994-95), and West Georgia College (1991-94) as a graduate assistant.

Laurendine is a 1990 graduate of Lenoir-Rhyne, having earned a bachelor of arts in education. He was a two-year starter at quarterback and was named the 1988 and 1989 South Atlantic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and was a 1989 Domino's NAIA Player of the Year Finalist. Laurendine was team captain in 1989 and led the Bears to a conference championship in 1988.

A two-year letter winner, he was inducted into the Lenoir-Rhyne and South Atlantic Conference Hall of Fame in 2008. He holds school records in career completion percentage (58.3), single-season total yards (2,409) and career total yards (4,064).

Laurendine began his coaching career as a student assistant coach at Lenoir-Rhyne from 1990-1991, before earning his master's degree in physical education from West Georgia College in 1992.

Laurendine and his wife, Shawna, reside in Annapolis. They have two daughters, Lexie, who is an assistant volleyball coach at Wingate University, and Lakin, a redshirt freshman volleyball player at Auburn.

VA'A NIUMATALOLO

ASSISTANT COACH | DEFENSIVE LINE
FIFTH SEASON AT NAVY

Va'a Niumatalolo is in his fifth season at Navy and his second assisting Jerrick Hall with the defensive line. He spent his first three years at Navy on both sides of the ball as an analyst.

In 2023, the Mids tied with Penn State for the most shutouts in the country with 3. The 3 shutouts are the most by a Navy team since 1978 when George Welsh's stop troops recorded 4 shutouts. Navy also held a potent UAB attack out of the end zone in its 31-6 win over the Blazers, giving up just 2 field goals.

Navy's defense finished second in the nation in fumble recoveries (14), third in red zone defense (allowed opponents to score just 72% of the time), fourth in turnover margin (+0.92) and 19th in stop rate (71.3%).

A big part of Navy's success on defense was the stout defensive line of Justin Reed, Donald Berniard Jr., Landon Robinson and Clay Cromwell. Reed finished tied for sixth in the nation in fumble recoveries with 3, while Berniard Jr. started 42-consecutive games at nose guard, the most by any nose guard in the country and the second most among all defensive linemen.

Navy finished with a 5-7 record and a 4-4 mark in the American Athletic Conference in 2023. The Mids, picked ninth in the preseason poll by the league's coaches, finished tied for fifth in the AAC.

The five wins were the most by a Navy team since 2019, while five of Navy's seven losses came at the hands of a team that played in a bowl game including two teams that finished in the Top 25 (Notre Dame at #14 and SMU at #22).

Niumatalolo came to Navy from the University of Hawai'i where he served as the offensive intern in 2018 and as a graduate assistant working with the offensive line in 2019.

In his two years at Hawai'i, the Warriors compiled an 18-11 record and participated in two bowl games, winning the SoFi Hawai'i Bowl in 2019 over his alma mater, BYU.

Niumatalolo is a 2018 graduate of Brigham Young University where he played four years on the football team and appeared in 19 games.

Niumatalolo, who graduated from Broadneck High School, and his wife, Kenzie, have three daughters, Aussie, Jada and Ivory. He is the son of former Navy head coach Ken Niumatalolo.

JON WILLIAMS

ASSISTANT COACH | TIGHT ENDS

Jon Williams is in his second year at the Naval Academy coaching the tight ends.

Navy finished with a 5-7 record and a 4-4 mark in the American Athletic Conference in 2023. The Mids, picked ninth in the preseason poll by the league's coaches, finished tied for fifth in the AAC despite having to play 4 different quarterbacks due to injury (second most in the country) and was the only FBS school to start 3 different quarterbacks in a win.

Williams came to Navy from Miami (Fla.), where he was the Director of Football Operations and the Chief of Staff.

At Miami, Williams served as the senior staffer responsible for oversight of all aspects of the program, including operations and recruiting which netted the highest-rated recruiting class in school history, the #1 class in the ACC (2023) and top 5 in the country.

Prior to Miami, Williams was the Director of Recruiting and Player Development at Rice University in 2021, where he was responsible for revamping the recruiting department which resulted in the highest-rated signing class in program history.

Williams was the tight ends coach at Birmingham Southern in 2019-2020, where he was part of a record-setting squad that had the ninth-ranked offense in Division III and the #1 rushing offense in school history in 2019. The 2020 season was canceled due to COVID.

Williams served as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Tennessee Martin in 2016, where he helped the team make the Ohio Valley Conference Championship game.

Prior to his stint at Tennessee Martin, Williams was the assistant head coach, tight ends coach and director of player personnel at Southern Miss for Todd Monken, who was the offensive coordinator at Georgia in 2022 when the Bulldogs won the National Championship and is currently the offensive coordinator for the Baltimore Ravens.

At Southern Miss, Williams was an integral part of the biggest turnaround in NCAA history at the time going from 3-9 in 2014 to 9-4 in 2015 and winning the Conference USA West Division. Williams was directly responsible for implementing a recruiting strategy and overseeing all recruiting operations that led to Conference USA's top-rated class in 2015. Williams was part of a Southern Miss offense that finished the 2015 season as one of two programs in NCAA history to have a 4,000-yard passer, two 1,000-yard rushers and a 1,000-yard receiver.

Williams was the head coach at Itawamaba Community College in Mississippi from 2010-13, where he led the program to a 21-16 record in four seasons including a win over National Champion East Mississippi College in 2012. His teams finished in the top 20 twice in his four years at Itawamaba where he produced five NFL players. Williams was also an assistant coach at Itawamaba from 2007-09.

Williams has also served as the head coach at Locust Fork High School in Alabama (2006), assistant head coach and offensive line coach at Mississippi College (2002-05), special teams coordinator at Wayne County High School in Mississippi (2001), head coach at Simpson Academy in Mississippi (1999-00), offensive line coach at East Central Community College (1996-98).

Williams is a 1996 graduate of Wingate University and he received his master's degree from Alcorn State in 2004.

Williams and his wife, Lisa, have a daughter, Jordan, and a son, Cole, who was a four-year member of the Navy football team and graduated in May. His service assignment is Marine Corps Ground.

BRENTEN WIMBERLY

ASSISTANT COACH | LINEBACKERS
SECOND SEASON AT NAVY

Brenten Wimberly is in his second season at the Naval Academy assisting defensive coordinator P.J. Volker with the linebackers.

In 2023, the Navy defense tied Penn State for the most shutouts in the country with 3. The 3 shutouts are the most by a Navy team since 1978 when George Welsh's stop troops recorded 4 shutouts. Navy also held a potent UAB attack out of the end zone in its 31-6 win over the Blazers, giving up just 2 field goals.

Navy's defense finished second in the nation in fumble recoveries (14), third in red zone defense (allowed opponents to score just 72% of the time), fourth in turnover margin (+0.92) and 19th in stop rate (71.3%).

Junior linebacker Colin Ramos was named First-Team All-American Athletic Conference, while junior safety Rayuan Lane III was named to the third team. Junior cornerback Dashaun Peele and senior linebacker Will Harbour were both named Honorable Mention All-Conference. Harbour, Ramos and Lane III were also named All-East.

Ramos led Navy in tackles with 110, while recording 9 tackles for a loss, 4 pass breakups, 2 sacks, 2 forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. He was twice named AAC Defensive Player of the Week for his performances against UAB (12 tackles, a sack, a TFL and a pass breakup) and ECU (10 tackles, 1.5 TFL). His 110 tackles are the most by a Navy player since Cody Peterson recorded 142 in 2013.

Harbour finished second on the team in tackles with 84, tied for 3rd in tackles for loss (7.5) and tied for 4th in sacks (3). He had a career-high 11 tackles against USF and Charlotte.

Navy finished with a 5-7 record and a 4-4 mark in the American Athletic Conference in 2023. The Mids, picked ninth in the preseason poll by the league's coaches, finished tied for fifth in the AAC.

The five wins were the most by a Navy team since 2019, while five of Navy's seven losses came at the hands of a team that played in a bowl game including two teams that finished in the Top 25 (Notre Dame at #14 and SMU at #22).

Wimberly came to Navy from Alabama, where he was a graduate assistant for one year. Wimberly helped the Alabama defensive staff put together one of the top defenses in the nation. The Crimson Tide ranked sixth in pass efficiency defense, ninth in scoring defense, 11th in total defense and 36th in rushing defense.

Wimberly came to Tuscaloosa from the Georgia Tech, where he spent the previous two seasons as a defensive graduate assistant (2020-21) and earned his master's degree in building construction and facility management.

Wimberly is a 2018 graduate of Kennesaw State where he played linebacker for two years on the football team.

Wimberly appeared in 25 games and totaled 63 tackles, 1.5 sacks, an interception and a fumble recovery while helping the Owls to a Big South Championship and the FCS playoffs in 2017. His position coach his senior year was current Navy defensive coordinator PJ Volker, while Navy head coach Brian Newberry was his defensive coordinator both years.

After earning a bachelor's degree in integrative studies, Wimberly transitioned into a graduate assistant role at his alma mater, working primarily with the Owls' safeties and nickel backs. He helped lead Kennesaw State to another Big South title (2018) and two more FCS playoff berths (2018 and '19) as a GA.

Wimberly transferred to Kennesaw State after spending his first-two collegiate seasons at Georgia Military College. A native of Albany, Georgia, Wimberly was an honorable mention all-state performer at Westover High School.

MICK YOKITIS

ASSISTANT COACH | WIDE RECEIVERS
14TH SEASON AT NAVY

Mick Yokitis is in his 14th year at the Naval Academy as the wide receivers coach.

Navy finished with a 5-7 record and a 4-4 mark in the American Athletic Conference in 2023. The Mids, picked ninth in the preseason poll by the league's coaches, finished tied for fifth in the AAC despite having to play 4 different quarterbacks due to injury (second most in the country) and was the only FBS school to start 3 different quarterbacks in a win.

In 2022, Navy finished fourth in the nation in rushing, averaging 241.2 yards per game. The Mids finished third in the country in passing yards per completion (19.0), 25th in fourth down conversions (.605) and second in time of possession (34:38).

In 2021, Navy managed to have the ninth-best rushing offense in the country (225.5 yards per game) despite facing six of the top-35 defenses in the country, including three of the top 10. On top of the tough schedule, Navy had to start five different offensive tackles, five different guards and three different centers due to injury. Wide receiver Mychal Cooper finished his career averaging 19.4 yards per catch, which is the fifth-best average in school history. Cooper was also invited to the NFL Players Association Bowl.

In 2019, Navy had one of the greatest seasons in school history, winning a school-record tying 11 games against just two losses, winning the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, sharing the American Athletic Conference West Division title with Memphis and winning the prestigious Liberty Bowl. The Mids' eight-game improvement from 2018 was the second-biggest turnaround in FBS history.

The Mids finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls. It marked just the second time in the last 56 years that Navy finished in the AP Top 20 (18th in 2015).

A big part of that success was a Navy offense that set school records for total rushing yards (4,687), rushing yards per attempt (6.1), rushing yards per game (360.5), total offense yards per game (455.8) and tied the record for total offensive yards per attempt (6.8). The Mids also led the nation in rushing.

The Mids were also prolific in the passing game, finishing second in the country in average yards per catch (22.51) and seventh in passing efficiency (176.92). Quarterback Malcolm Perry set the school record for passer rating (181.6).

Navy finished the 2017 campaign with a 7-6 record, which included a 49-7 rout of Virginia in the Military Bowl. The 42-point margin of victory was the largest by a Navy team over a team from the autonomy 5 since the Mids beat West Virginia 51-7 in the 1963 season opener. The Mids played eight games against teams that went to a bowl game and played five teams that won 10 or more games. The offense set a school record by averaging 351.4 rushing yards per game.

Navy finished the 2016 campaign with a 9-5 mark and a 7-1 record in the American Athletic Conference despite a season that saw the Mids have 102 missed games by starters or key contributors. The Mids played Temple in the AAC Championship game and played in a bowl game (Armed Forces) for the 13th time in the last 14 years. The nine wins tied for the fifth most wins in school history and the team set school records for points (531), touchdowns (73), touchdowns per game (5.2), rushing touchdowns (61), total offense (6,136 yards) and yards per play (6.8) despite playing four different quarterbacks.

Senior wide receiver Jamir Tillman was named First-Team All-East and finished his career second all-time at Navy in career receiving yards (1,620) and seventh in catches (91)

Navy finished the 2015 campaign with a school-record 11 wins against just two losses, qualified for a bowl game for the 12th time in the last 13 years, won a bowl game for the 10th time in school history (beat Pittsburgh 44-28 in the Military Bowl), won a bowl game for a third straight year for the first time in school history, defeated Army for a series-record 14th consecutive year, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the third time in the last four years, won the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East for the first time since 1963, finished 18th in the country in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls and shared the West Division title of the American Athletic Conference with Houston in Navy's first year of being in a conference after being an Independent for 134 years.

In 2014, the Mids finished No. 2 in the country in rushing offense (326.7), No. 3 in passing yards per completion (20.0), 22nd in scoring offense (36.8), No. 1 in red zone offense (.948), No. 4 in third down conversions (.503), No. 1 in fourth down conversions (.923), No. 1 in fewest turnovers lost (8), No. 3 in turnover margin (+1.46), No. 1 in fewest penalties per game (3.1) and No. 1 in fewest penalty yards per game (26.1).

Wide receiver Jamir Tillman became the first player in school history to catch a touchdown pass in four straight games, while his 20.59 yards per catch was the nation's ninth-best average.

Navy finished the 2014 campaign with an 8-5 record, won a bowl game (beat San Diego State 17-16 in the Poinsettia Bowl) and defeated Army for a series-record 13th consecutive year.

Navy finished the 2013 season with a 9-4 record, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, won a bowl game (beat Middle Tennessee 24-6 in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl) and defeated Army for a series-record 12th-consecutive year.

Yokitis helped lead Navy to an 8-5 record in 2012 and a berth in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. Navy defeated Air Force 28-21 in overtime and Army 17-13 to win the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

Yokitis was the head football coach and offensive coordinator at the Naval Academy Prep School from 2008-10 where he led NAPS to a 16-7 record.

Yokitis is a 2006 graduate of the Naval Academy where he earned three varsity letters at wide receiver and saw the Midshipmen post a 26-11 record, qualify for three bowl games, win two bowl games and win three Commander-In-Chief's Trophies. Yokitis played in 37-consecutive games for the Midshipmen, including earning a start in all 12 contests as a senior.

After graduation, Yokitis served in the United States Marine Corps before being medically discharged. Mick and his wife, Lindsey, have two sons, Bryce and Nolan, and a daughter, Makenna.

FOOTBALL STAFF

JIM BERRY

ASSOCIATE A.D. FOR SPORTS MEDICINE

Jim Berry, MA, ATC, is in his 20th year at the Naval Academy and his eighth as the Associate Athletic Director for Sports Medicine.

Prior to Navy, Berry earned his Master of Arts in Sport and Recreation Management from Kent State University (2004). His sport responsibilities included baseball, football, and wrestling. While at Kent, he acted as a mentor to the students in the CAATE accredited Athletic Training Education Program, as well as a coordinator of medical coverage for the Kent State sports camps.

From June 2001 to May 2002, Berry was an intern with the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League. He implemented rehabilitation programs, travelled with the team, and supervised the summer student interns in protocol and policy.

An Ohio native, Berry chose the Ohio State University for his undergraduate education. He received his Bachelor of Arts in History in 2001, and was the recipient of the 2000 LeaderShape Institute Scholarship and the Ernest R. "Ernie" Biggs Athletic Training Scholarship.

Berry and his wife, Casey, reside in Annapolis with their son, Bradyn, and daughter, Aurora.

JOSH BOST

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Josh Bost enters his third year at the Naval Academy as the Director of Football Operations. Bost came to Navy from Virginia Tech where he served as both the Senior Director of Football Operations (2021) and the Director of Football Video and Technology (2016-20) on Justin Fuente's staff.

At Virginia Tech, Bost coordinated team travel, team calendars and schedules and worked closely with all support areas that touch football, including sports medicine, sports nutrition, strength and conditioning, as well as academics and other campus entities. He also assisted the recruiting and personnel staff in coordinating camps and other events involving prospects and their families. In his previous role at Tech, he managed all facets of the football video department.

Bost came to Blacksburg from Memphis, where he had worked on Justin Fuente's staff as the video coordinator from 2013-15.

Prior to working at Memphis, Bost worked at North Texas for nine years as the director of video operations. He graduated from Middle Tennessee State in 2003 and worked in that office as both a student and graduate assistant before moving to North Texas.

Bost and wife, Holly, have two children; a son, Micah, and a daughter, Lizzie.

RONNIE GILLIS

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL CREATIVE DESIGN

Ronnie Gillis is in his third year as the Director of Creative Design for Navy football.

Previously, Gillis spent six seasons at the University of Maine. From 2017 through the summer of 2022, Gillis served as the Assistant Director of Marketing for the Black Bears where he worked closely with men's and women's basketball, women's soccer and baseball while assisting in various roles with Maine's other varsity programs.

Gillis created and implemented marketing strategies for assigned teams while serving as the department's lead graphic designer. Gillis had a lead role in designing, marketing and promotional graphic content and templates, schedule posters and marketing collateral, as well as advertising, banners and print materials.

Gillis also assisted with the production of video content for Maine's social media pages and website along with helping manage Maine's social media platforms. He oversaw all aspects of marketing and fan engagement on game day including coordinating in-game promotions, directing the in-game entertainment and public address services.

Prior to his role as Assistant Director of Marketing, Gillis spent one year as a producer for Maine's ESPN3 broadcasts. In this role, he produced and directed games while assisting with all aspects of the broadcast operations. He worked closely with the broadcast talent and coaches to gather proper information for the broadcasts while analyzing game notes and statistics to properly prepare the broadcasts.

Gillis, a native of Freeport, Maine, graduated from the University of Maine in 2016 with a Bachelor of Arts in communications.

JIM KIRITSY

HEAD FOOTBALL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Jim Kiritsy is in his second year as the Head Football Strength & Conditioning Coach.

Kiritsy comes to Navy from Kennesaw State, where he served as the Assistant Athletic Director for Sport Performance and was the Director of Football Strength and Conditioning. He was responsible for developing a comprehensive player development program designed to achieve three primary goals: injury prevention, athletic performance enhancement and mental discipline development.

Prior to Kennesaw State, Kiritsy served three seasons as Associate Director for Strength and Conditioning at The Citadel (2011-13) where his responsibilities included coordinating all aspects of the Bulldogs' men's basketball and wrestling training programs.

He also was the top assistant in the development of football and oversaw the maintenance and upkeep of the facility, including equipment purchases, while managing and developing graduate assistants, interns and student managers.

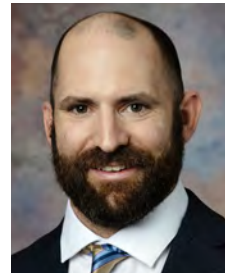

While at The Citadel, Kiritsy trained three All-American wrestlers in Odie Delaney (2013), Ugi Khishignyam (2013) and Turtogokh Lusandori (2014), and two football All-Americans in Mike Sellers (2012) and Darien Robinson (2013).

Kiritsy joined The Citadel after spending two seasons at Vermont as the Assistant Strength and Conditioning coach. While with the Catamounts, he worked directly with the men's basketball, men's and women's ice hockey, men's and women's lacrosse and men's and women's soccer.

A 2009 graduate of Norwich University, Kiritsy received a Bachelor's of Science degree in physical education with a concentration in coaching, and served as a part-time student assistant strength & conditioning coach. He was a four-year (2005-08) letter winner in football, serving as co-captain as a senior, and played baseball for three seasons (2006-08). He served as a member of the Corps Honor Committee in 2008-09.

Kiritsy holds certifications in CPR and AED (automated external defibrillator) from the American Red Cross and is Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified (SCCC) through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

A native of Northbridge, Mass., Kiritsy attended Northbridge High School. He and his wife, Bryana, have two children, Adeline and Jack.

MARVIN LEWIS

VIDEO COORDINATOR

Marvin Lewis is in his second year as the football video coordinator. Lewis came to Navy from UTEP, where he served as the Miners football video coordinator for five years.

Prior to UTEP, Lewis was a video assistant with the NFL's Tennessee Titans. His responsibilities included shooting practices, editing and uploading footage for scouting purposes. He also edited segments for the Titans Blitz Show and sponsored pieces for Titans home games.

Lewis graduated from Oregon State with a Bachelor of Arts degree in new media communications in 2016.

JASON MACDONALD

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Jason MacDonald is in his sixth year at Navy and his second as the Director of Player Personnel. MacDonald spent his first four seasons coaching the fullbacks.

In 2021, Navy managed to have the ninth-best rushing offense in the country (225.5 yards per game) despite facing six of the top-35 defenses in the country, including three of the top 10. On top of the tough schedule, Navy had to start five different offensive tackles, five different guards and three different centers due to injury. Fullback Isaac Ruoss was named a CoSIDA Second-Team Academic All-American.

In 2019, Navy had one of the greatest seasons in school history, winning a school-record tying 11 games against just two losses, winning the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, sharing the American Athletic Conference West Division title with Memphis and winning the prestigious Liberty Bowl. The Mids' eight-game improvement from 2018 was the second-biggest turnaround in FBS history.

The Mids finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls. It marked just the second time in the last 56 years that Navy finished in the AP Top 20 (18th in 2015).

A big part of that success was a Navy offense that set school records for total rushing yards (4,687), rushing yards per attempt (6.1), rushing yards per game (360.5), total offense yards per game (455.8) and tied the record for total offensive yards per attempt (6.8). The Mids also led the nation in rushing.

Fullback Jamale Carothers was named First-Team All-East. Carothers, who started the year on the junior varsity, rushed for 734 yards and 14 touchdowns on just 111 carries (6.6) in 10 games to finish second on the team in rushing.

MacDonald came to Navy from the Naval Academy Prep School where he served as the offensive coordinator for the past eight years. MacDonald was also a position coach at the prep school where he coached the slot backs for one year, the quarterbacks for four years, the wide receivers for one year, the fullbacks for one year and the offensive line for three years.

The NAPS offense averaged over 300 yards per game under MacDonald and in 2016 averaged 33.4 points per game.

MacDonald also handled the budget, was the academic coordinator and the head track & field coach at the prep school.

Prior to NAPS, MacDonald was a graduate assistant at Springfield College for two years where he was responsible for the offensive tackles and tight ends.

Two of his pupils, John Carlson and Sean Meagher, were named to the Empire 8 All-Conference Team.

MacDonald is a 2004 graduate of Springfield College where he earned his Bachelor of Science in sports management and a minor in business.

He was a four-year member of the Springfield College football team, including team captain of the 2003 team that won 10 games. He was named ECAC First Team All-Defense as a defensive lineman his senior year.

MacDonald and his wife, Dominique, have two sons, Adrian and Dion.

SCOTT MAHER

ASSISTANT A.D. FOR DIETETICS & SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Entering his sixth year at the Naval Academy, Scott Maher, RD, CSSD, CSCS, is the Assistant Athletic Director for Dietetics and Sports Performance. Maher is a Registered Dietitian, Certified Specialist in Sports Dietetics and Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist.

Prior to coming to Navy, Maher was an Assistant Director of Sports Nutrition at Rutgers.

Starting at Rutgers in August of 2015 as a Strength and Conditioning Intern, Maher used his background in nutrition to work with athletes, in addition to his time spent on strength and conditioning. During that time, a new Performance Nutrition Department was founded at Rutgers and Maher immediately joined that program as an intern in May of 2016. As a sports dietitian intern, he provided one-on-one and team nutrition education to Olympic sport athletic teams, as well as managing the athletes' fueling stations across the campus and coordinating meals for teams that centered around their respective training and competition schedules. Over the next three years, Maher was promoted from intern to Assistant Sports Dietitian in March of 2017 to Assistant Director of Sports Nutrition in July of 2018.

Maier has received board certification in Sports Dietetics, NSCA certification in Strength and Conditioning and certification as a Registered Dietitian through the Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR).

A 2014 graduate of Rutgers University with a Bachelor of Science degree in nutrition and dietetics, Maier completed a dietetic internship at Rutgers University's School of Health Related Professions, graduating in May of 2015.

BRYAN MILLER

ASSOCIATE STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Bryan Miller is in his 10th year at Navy, where he serves as an Associate Strength & Conditioning Coach for football.

Prior to Navy, Miller served as the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach for football at Oregon State. Miller spent nine years at Oregon State and was the head of the Sports Performance Center for his final seven years.

Miller was an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach at Wisconsin from 2004-2006 and served in the same capacity at Northern Illinois University from 2000-2004.

Miller has also worked at North Park University in Chicago, the American Heartland Ice Arena and Sport Complex and as an intern at Northwestern University and with the Chicago Bulls.

Miller played football at North Park where he was a two-year letterwinner and team captain. He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), a Specialist in Sports Conditioning, a Level I Club Coach (U.S. Weightlifting), a corrective exercise specialist with the National Academy of Sports Medicine and a Level 1 Performance Therapist with ALTIS.

Miller and his wife, Jen, have a daughter, Verona, and a son, Trajan.

ASSOCIATE A.D. FOR EQUIPMENT OPERATIONS

Greg Morgenthaler is in his 22nd year at the Naval Academy and his ninth as the Associate Athletic Director for Equipment Operations.

Morgenthaler has been instrumental in the Naval Academy Athletic Association's transition to Under Armour over the last 11 years.

Morgenthaler came to the Naval Academy from Sacred Heart, where he served as Equipment Coordinator for three years. A 1998 graduate of Kansas with a Bachelor of Science in education, Morgenthaler was a student manager with the Jayhawk football team that won the 1995 Aloha Bowl.

Morgenthaler began his career as an equipment manager intern at Virginia. He then served as a graduate assistant equipment manager at Oklahoma, while working on his Master's degree in athletic administration. Upon leaving Oklahoma, Morgenthaler had a brief stint as head equipment manager in the defunct Spring Professional Football League for the San Antonio Matadors.

Morgenthaler is a certified member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA) and was named the AEMA Equipment Manager of the Year for 2012-13. He was elected the District Director for District 2 in 2009 and was the District 2 Equipment Manager of the Year in 2010. He is also a member of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA).

Morgenthaler and his wife, Kris, who is the Associate Athletic Director for Marketing and Promotions at the Naval Academy, reside in Arnold and they have three daughters, Kelsey, Karlee and Kamryn.

MIKE PALMER

FOOTBALL QUALITY CONTROL

Mike Palmer is in his second year at the Naval Academy as a quality control coach. Palmer is a 2021 graduate of Boston College where he was a six-year member of the football team. He earned his Masters in Sports Administration in 2020. And a certificate in Executive Leadership and Organizational Development in 2021.

Palmer was a three-year starter for the Eagles at free safety and was a member of five bowl teams while at Boston College. He finished his career with 158 career tackles and four interceptions. He was a team captain in 2021.

After graduation, Palmer was invited to the New Orleans Saints Rookie mini camp.

Before coming to Navy he was working at Oliver James, a recruitment partner to the financial services, professional services and commerce & industry sectors. Prior to that he served as a volunteer football coach at Maine Endwell High School in Endwell, N.Y, where they won the Class B State Championship in 2022.

Palmer is also the NYSPHAA career interception record holder with 21 interceptions.

DANNY PAYNE

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL RECRUITING AND ANALYTICS

Danny Payne is in his fourth year at the Naval Academy and his first as the Executive Director of Football Recruiting and Analytics.

Payne came to Navy from Georgia Southern where he served as the Director of Player Personnel for one year. He worked alongside head coach Chad Lunsford and recruiting coordinator Victor Cabral in several areas pertaining to recruiting, including the coordination of the recruit evaluation procedure, prospect identification and evaluations and the assistance with on-campus recruiting.

Prior to Georgia Southern, Payne spent four years at Army as the Director of Scouting. There, he was responsible for identifying prospective cadet-athletes and assisting assigned coaches with recruiting duties. Payne also created content for recruiting purposes and maintained the game day analytics. He also worked closely with the Director of Football Operations to handle logistics for the team.

Payne came to Army after four years at Kennesaw State. He served as a defensive and recruiting assistant from 2013-15 and as a graduate assistant for his final two years (2016-17). He assisted the No. 14 defense in the FCS and helped the staff with all recruiting matters, including high school player evaluation, scout team and camp director.

Prior to Kennesaw State, Payne worked as the general manager, player personnel director and defensive line coach for the Georgia Panthers semi-pro team.

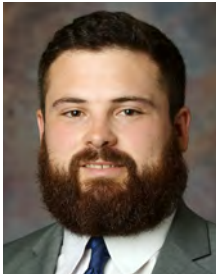

Payne graduated from Kennesaw State in 2013 with a bachelor's in sport management and earned his master's in applied exercise & health science in 2017. While at Kennesaw State, he founded the club football team and oversaw all facets of that program from 2011-13.

Payne and his wife, Ally, reside in Annapolis.

the win at Charlotte ... part of a defense that recorded a school-record 8 sacks and posted 10 tackles for loss in the win over North Texas ... the defense also forced and recovered 2 fumbles ... along with Luke Pirris, led the team with a career-high 9 tackles, including 7 solo stops ... also recorded his first multiple pass breakup game of his career with 2 ... the defense held USF quarterback Byrum Brown (ranked #1 among QB's in yards per game at 87.8) to -27 yards on the ground, but gave up 338 yards and 3 TDs through the air ... produced 6 tackles against the Bulls ... part of a defensive unit that held Wagner scoreless, as Navy produced its first shutout since defeating Army 34-0 on Dec. 6, 2008 ... it was also the Mids' first shutout at home since beating Lafayette 7-0 on Oct. 15, 1994 ... posted 7 tackles against the Seahawks ... contributed 3 solo stops in the Mids' opener against Notre Dame.

• 2022: A starter in 10 of the 12 games, he closed out the season with 42 tackles, including 2.5 tackles for loss and a half sack ... second on the team with 5 pass breakups, while also recorded an interception, and fumble recovery ... Navy's defense held Army, the second-leading rushing team in the country (304.4 yds/gm), to just 125 yards on the ground and 153 yards of total offense (avg 385.5 yds/gm) for the entire game ... Navy held the Black Knights without an offensive touchdown until overtime ... tallied 2 tackles, including a half sack for 5 yards against Army ... Navy's defense held UCF to 84 yards rushing after the Knights came in ranked #5 nationally with their 249.5 rushing yards per game average ... additionally, the Mids tallied a season-high tying 5 sacks for the third time in 2022 and the second-consecutive game ... turned in a pair of tackles, broke up a pass and intercepted a pass and returned it 31 yards in the Mids' win over nationally-ranked UCF ... part of a defensive unit that did not surrender a point in the second half against Notre Dame, marking the first time it has held a team scoreless in the second half since the 2021 Army game ... Notre Dame mustered just 66 yards rushing, the fewest by the Irish in the series since they rushed for 60 yards on Nov. 7, 2009 ... Navy held the Irish to just 12 yards in the second half (-23 R, 35 P) ... the Mids recorded a season-high tying 5 sacks (1.5 Colin Ramos, 1.5 John Marshall, 1 Rayuan Lane III, 0.5 Nicholas Straw, 0.5 Clay Cromwell) ... recorded 5 tackles against the Irish ... turned in 4 tackles and broke up a pass at Cincinnati ... Navy's defense held Temple to just 20 yards rushing, the fourth fewest in the Niumatalolo era and the third time in 2021 Navy held an opponent to 25 or fewer yards rushing (13 by Delaware, 25 by Tulsa) ... despite Temple allowing just 4 sacks all year, Navy sacked the Owls 4 times ... Navy's defense also forced Temple to punt 7 times, tying (Delaware) for the most by an opponent in 2022 ... recorded 6 tackles, including a tackle for loss, in the win over Temple ... also broke up a pass and recovered a fumble, the first of his career ... made the start against Houston where he made 4 stops ... his lone tackle against SMU was a tackle for loss, the first of his career ... member of a Navy defensive unit that held Tulsa to just 25 yards rushing, ... the Mids recorded their first safety (intentional grounding in the end zone by Tulsa QB Davis Brin // 2Qtr) since the Tulane game on Sept. 19, 2020 ... Navy forced 4 Tulsa turnovers (3 interceptions / 1 fumble) ... turned in a pair of solo stops against Tulsa and broke up a pass ... part of a defense that held Air Force, the nation's top-ranked rushing team (412.2 yds/gm), to just 200 yards on the ground ... pitched in a tackle and broke up a pass against the Falcons ... recorded 5 tackles and was credited with a QB hurry in Navy's double-overtime thriller at East Carolina ... produced a career-high 7 stops, including 5 solo tackles, in Navy's AAC opener against Memphis ... made his first-collegiate start in the Mids' opener against Delaware where he made a career-high tying 3 stops ... part of a defense that produced 12 tackles for loss and 5 sacks against the Fighting Blue Hens ... the 12 TFLs were the most by the Mids since recording 12 against Rice on Oct. 22, 2005, while the 5 sacks were the most since their 5 against USF on Oct. 19, 2019.

• 2021: Primarily a member of special teams, he saw action in 10 games including making his debut in the opener against Marshall ... closed out the season with 3 tackles and an interception ... part of a defense that held #2 Cincinnati to just 271 yards (95R, 176P), the fewest yards by the Bearcats since Nov. 17, 2019 vs. Temple (stretched 19 games) ... the 271 yards of total offense by Cincinnati were the second-fewest by a Navy opponent this season (225 by Air Force), while the 95-yard ground gain was the second-fewest rushing yards by an opponent this season (80 by SMU) and the 176 yards passing also marked the second fewest by an opponent in 2021 (49 by Air Force) ... also held Cincinnati to 27 points, the second fewest by the Bearcats this season (beat Notre Dame 24-13) ... the Bearcats came into the game averaging 43.5 points (No. 6 nationally) ... produced the first 3 tackles of his career in the Mids' contest against SMU ... also credited with a punt return against the Mustangs ... intercepted Marshall's Grant Wells and returned it 7 yards in his collegiate debut.

#13 NOTRE DAME 42, NAVY 3

Aviva Stadium • Dublin, Ireland • 49,000

- Sixth-year quarterback Sam Hartman completed 19 of his 23 pass attempts for 251 yards and 4 touchdowns to lead #13 Notre Dame (1-0) to a 42-3 victory over Navy (0-1) in the season-opener for both teams.
- Hartman threw touchdown passes of 35 and 20 yards to Jaden Greathouse, 14 yards to Jayden Thomas and 25 yards to Deion Colzie as he showed why he is one of the Heisman Trophy favorites this year. Audric Estime added 95 yards rushing and a touchdown on 16 carries as the Irish piled up 444 yards of total offense.
- Navy was able to move the ball at times on Notre Dame, but struggled to finish drives and was hurt by 49 yards of negative plays thanks to a bad snap and a sack that reduced its rushing yards from 175 yards to 126 yards.
- Daba Fofana (Jr / FB) led Navy in rushing with 56 yards on 15 carries, while Alex Tecza (So / FB) rushed for 38 yards on 8 carries. Tai Lavatai (Sr / QB) completed 3 of his 6 pass attempts for 43 yards, while Brandon Chatman (So / SB) caught 2 passes for 41 yards.
- Evan Warren (Sr / K) provided Navy with its only points of the game, making a 31-yard field goal in the fourth quarter.
- The Navy defense was led by Will Harbour (Sr / LB) with 8 tackles, while Kyle Jacob (Jr / LB) finished with 7 and Rayuan Lane III (Jr / S) and Colin Ramos (Jr / LB) finished with 5 stops each. Lane also had a forced fumble and broke up 2 passes.

NAVY 24, WAGNER 0

September 9, 2023

Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium • Annapolis, Md. • 29,798

- Tai Lavatai (Sr / QB) gained 227 yards of total offense, including 161 yards through the air, and 1 touchdown to lead Navy (1-1) to a 24-0 victory over Wagner (0-2) at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. The win marked the first for Navy head coach Brian Newberry and it was Navy's first shutout since beating Army 34-0 in 2008.
- The game was delayed twice for a total of 1 hour and 32 minutes due to lightning in the area. The first delay was 22 minutes before the game even started and the second was 1 hour and 10 minutes in the third quarter.
- Lavatai was sharp early, leading the Mids on a 7-play, 77-yard drive on the Mids' first possession that was capped off by a 3-yard touchdown run by Daba Fofana (Jr / FB). The big play on the drive was a 45-yard pass from Lavatai to Anton Hall Jr. (Jr / SB).
- The Mids led by just a 10-0 score late in the second quarter, but Lavatai led the Mids on a 5-play, 80-yard drive in just 40 seconds, capping off the furious race down the field with a 12-yard touchdown pass to Camari Williams (Sr / WR), the first of his career, to give Navy the 17-0 lead at the break. Lavatai was 5-for-5 passing on the drive, hitting Nathan Kent (So / WR) twice for 45 yards, Alex Tecza (So / FB) for 14 yards and Williams on the final two plays for 21 yards.
- The defense dominated the Seahawks' offense all day, allowing just 227 yards of total offense. Wagner gained 84 yards on the ground on 32 attempts and 143 yards through the air. Clay Cromwell (Sr / DT) led Navy with a career-high 8 tackles, while Elias Larry (Jr / CB) had a career-high 7 stops and Mbiti Williams Jr. (Jr / S) tied his career high with 7 tackles.
- Navy was able to preserve the shutout by forcing two turnovers in the red zone. The first was a forced fumble by Will Harbour (Sr / LB) that was recovered by Jacob Busic (Sr / DE) and the second was an interception by Rayuan Lane III (Jr / S) in the end zone. It was Navy's first shutout at home since beating Lafayette 7-0 in 1994.
- Eli Heidenreich (So / SB) capped off the scoring with a 46-yard touchdown run with 10:44 left in the fourth quarter. Heidenreich led the Mids in rushing with 66 yards on just 4 carries.
- Wagner was led by Zachary Palmer-Smith with 52 yards rushing on 13 carries, while Rickey Sprull gained 26 yards on 10 carries. Second-team quarterback Damien Mazil came off the bench for an injured Steven Krajewski and completed 11 of his 23 pass attempts for 100 yards.

MEMPHIS 28, NAVY 24

Simmons Bank Liberty Stadium • Memphis, Tenn. • 25,551

- Quarterback Seth Henigan completed 23 of 35 passes for 218 yards and a touchdown while running for 2 more to lead Memphis to a thrilling 28-24 win over Navy at Simmons Bank Liberty Stadium in Memphis. The game featured 3 ties and 2 lead changes.
- Memphis jumped out to a 7-0 lead on a 13-play, 90-yard drive on its first possession of the game with Blake Watson scoring from 7 yard outs.
- The Mids would answer on the next play as Alex Tecza (So / FB) took a pitch and ran by the Memphis secondary for a 75-yard touchdown run.
- After the Navy defense came up with a stop, the Mids would roll down the field on a 6-play, 77-yard drive and take the lead on a 16-yard touchdown pass from Tai Lavatai (Sr / QB) to Regis Velez (Jr / WR). It was Velez's first career catch.
- Henigan led Memphis on an 8-play, 56-yard drive in 56 second that was capped off by a 7-yard touchdown pass to Roc Taylor to tie the game at 14.
- The Mids gambled to start the second half, calling for an onside kick and the play was there but Evan Warren (Jr) kicked the ball out of bounds to give the Tigers the ball on the Navy 47. Seven plays later Memphis had regained the lead on a one yard run by Henigan.
- Navy fought back as Lavatai led Navy on an 85-yard drive that was capped off by an Anton Hall Jr. (Jr / SB) 2-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 21 with 9:08 left in the third quarter.
- The fourth quarter was a wild one. Henigan gave the Tigers a 28-21 lead at the start of the fourth on his second touchdown run of the night, this one from 3 yards.
- After Navy's third-straight three-and-out, the Mids went to Blake Horvath (So / QB), who led Navy on a drive that ended with a 36-yard field goal by Nathan Kirkwood (So / K).

- Memphis looked like it put the game away on the next series when Watson broke through the Navy defense for a 69-yard run, but Rayuan Lane III (Jr / S) ran Watson down and knocked him out at the one-yard line. On the next play, Henigan fumbled the handoff to Watson and the ball was recovered in the end zone by Justin Reed (Jr / DE) to give the Mids life.
- On second-and-seven at the Navy 38-yard line, Horvath fumbled after picking up 5 yards and Memphis recovered at the Navy 43.
- On third-and-11, Henigan threw the ball over the middle and it was intercepted by Lane III, who returned the pick 25 yards to the Navy 49-yard line.
- Navy would get the ball down to the Memphis 13, but on fourth-and-6 from the Mids' 15 Lavatai would hit Jayden Umbarger (Sr / WR) with a slant over the middle. It was initially ruled a first down at the Memphis 9, but replay overturned the spot of the foul and ruled that Umbarger was a yard short giving Memphis the win.

SOUTH FLORIDA 44, NAVY 30

Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium • Annapolis, Md. • 29,789

- USF quarterback Byrum Brown completed 26 of his 34 pass attempts for 338 yards and 3 touchdowns to lead the Bulls to a 44-30 victory over Navy in Annapolis.
- Brown, who entered play as the #1 rushing quarterback in the nation (87.8 yds/gm) was held to -27 yards rushing thanks to a Navy defense that recorded 6 tackles for loss and 4 sacks. Brown, however, hurt the Mids through the air, including an 88-yard touchdown pass to Sean Atkins that gave USF its first lead of the game at 21-14 with 8:20 left in the second quarter.
- The game couldn't have started any better for the Mids as USF muffed a punt and the fumble was recovered by a hustling Rayuan Lane III (Jr / FS). Four plays later, Tai Lavatai (Sr / QB) scored on a quarterback sneak from the 1 to make the score 7-0.
- On the ensuing possession, the Bulls went for it on 4th-and-1 from their own 30 and Brown was stoned by the Navy defense with Colin Ramos (Jr / WILL) and Mbiti Williams Jr. (Jr / Bandit) finishing him off for no gain to give Navy the ball back.
- It took just 4 plays for Navy to score as Daba Fofana (Jr / FB) ran for 20 yards on 3rd-and-4 from the USF 24 and then Lavatai scored from 4 yards out to give Navy a 14-0 lead.
- USF would answer with 21-straight points on three-straight drives as Brown hit Atkins with a 1-yard touchdown pass, Nay'Quan Wright scored from 10 yards out and Brown hit Atkins with the bomb to make it 21-14 Bulls.
- After a 14-yard run by Alex Tecza (So / FB) got the ball down to the 6, the Mids would only gain 4 yards on the next 3 plays to set up a fourth-and-goal at the USF 2. Blake Horvath (So / QB) rolled left and evaded 2 defenders to hit Anton Hall Jr. (Jr / SB) with a 2-yard TD pass.
- Disaster struck on the tying extra-point as the snap by reserve Rayne Frye (Fr) was a tad high and holder Kellen Grave de Peralta (Jr) was unable to catch it. USF's Jhalyn Shuler picked up the errant snap and took it to the end zone for 2 points to give USF a 23-20 lead at the half.
- The Mids took over on the USF 39-yard line. Navy would gain just 12 yards on the drive and settled for a career-long 44-yard field goal by Nathan Kirkwood (So) to tie the game at 23.
- After both teams traded punts, USF would regain the lead on a 3rd-and-8 pass from Brown to Michael Brown-Stephens for a 15-yard touchdown.
- Navy put together its best drive of the day on the ensuing possession driving to the USF 28-yard line, but on 3rd-and-1 the Mids mishandled the snap and Tramel Logan picked it up and returned it 70-yards for a touchdown to make the score 37-23.
- Following a missed 44-yard field goal by Navy, USF easily moved down the field for an 11-yard touchdown run by Michael Dukes to make the score 44-23.
- The Mids would get a late touchdown on a 68-yard touchdown pass from Horvath to Eli Heidenreich (So / SB), but wouldn't get the ball back.

GAME 5

NAVY 27, NORTH TEXAS 24

Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium • Annapolis, Md. • 28,648

- Quarterback Tai Lavatai (Sr) came off the bench to throw for 75 yards and a touchdown, while the defense recorded a school-record 8 sacks to lead Navy to a 27-24 victory over North Texas at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.
- Lavatai, who was held to 10 yards in his 23rd-career game and the first as a non-starter, took over for an injured Blake Horvath (So / QB) late in the second quarter and immediately led Navy on a touchdown drive.
- On 3rd-and-8 from the North Texas 46, Lavatai scrambled for 20 yards and a first down. On the next play, Lavatai dropped a beautiful throw right into the arms of Nathan Kent (So / WR) in the right corner of the end zone for a 26-yard touchdown to give Navy a 13-10 lead.
- Navy got the ball to start the second half and Lavatai led a 12-play, 75-yard touchdown drive to give the Mids a 20-10 lead.
- The Mean Green would cut the Navy lead to 3 points on the first drive of the fourth quarter on an 18-yard touchdown pass from Chandler Rogers to Ja'Mori MacLin to make the score 20-17.
- After a Navy punt, the defense got the ball right back for the Mids as Luke Pirris (So / Raider) sacked Rogers for a loss of 18 yards, jarring the ball loose. The fumble was recovered by Colin Ramos (Jr / LB) at the North Texas 21. Pirris finished the day with a career-high 9 tackles, a sack, a tackle for a loss, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.
- One play later, Alex Tecza (So / FB) burst through the North Texas defense for a 21-yard touchdown run to give the Mids a 27-17 lead.

- The Tecza touchdown turned out to be the game-winner after North Texas answered with an 8-play, 73-yard scoring drive capped off by Ayo Adeyi's 47-yard touchdown run to cut the Navy lead to 3 at 27-24.
- North Texas would get the ball back with a chance to win with 1:58 left in the contest, but the Mids sent a corner blitz on first down and Andrew Duhart (So / CB) got home for a 7-yard loss. Three plays later, Mbiti Williams Jr. (Jr / CB) broke up Rogers' pass to propel Navy to its first conference win.

NAVY 14, CHARLOTTE 0

Jerry Richardson Stadium • Charlotte, N.C. • 15,659

- The Navy defense pitched its second shutout of the year, while Braxton Woodson (Fr / QB) came off the bench for an injured Tai Lavatai (Sr / QB) and led Navy to 14 second-half points as the Mids defeated Charlotte 14-0 in front of a sellout crowd (15,659) at Jerry Richardson Stadium in Charlotte.
- It is the first time since 2008 that Navy has recorded two shutouts in a season (Wagner, 24-0).
- The game was scoreless at the half, but Woodson, who replaced Lavatai in the second series of the first quarter, hit Eli Heidenreich (So / SB) with a 69-yard touchdown pass on Navy's first drive of the third quarter to give the Mids a 7-0 lead.
- Woodson's touchdown pass came on 3rd-and-14 from its own 31 and he threw a laser between two defenders and Heidenreich took it the remaining 55 yards for a touchdown.
- Navy put the game away on the first drive of the fourth quarter as Alex Tecza (So / FB) burst through a hole on the left side and went 62 yards for a touchdown.
- The Navy defense was sensational all day holding the 49ers to 265 yards of total offense. The Mids broke up a season-high six passes, recorded 7 tackles for loss, 4 sacks and picked off 2 passes, while also recovering a fumble.
- Co-captain Will Harbour (Sr / LB) led the Navy defense with a career-high tying 11 tackles, while Mbiti Williams Jr. (Jr / S) recorded a career-high 9 tackles for the second-consecutive game and Dashaun Peele (Jr / CB) had a career-high 8 stops.
- Justin Reed (Jr / DE) recovered the fumble that Colin Ramos (Jr / LB) forced, while Peele and Rayuan Lane III (Jr / S) both had interceptions.
- Tecza ran for 75 yards and a touchdown on six carries, while Woodson finished with 58 yards rushing on 18 carries and completed 5 of his 14 pass attempts for 85 yards and a touchdown.

GAME 7

#22 AIR FORCE 17, NAVY 6

Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium • Annapolis, Md. • 38,803

- Zac Larrier threw a 94-yard touchdown to Dane Kinamon - the longest pass in Air Force history - and the 22nd-ranked Falcons defeated Navy 17-6 in front of a record crowd of 38,803 at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.
- Air Force gained almost as many yards on that one play as Navy did in the entire game. The Falcons seemed to back off defensively late, allowing the Midshipmen to drive 78 yards for their only touchdown. They finished with 124 yards of total offense.
- Larrier, whose availability for this game was a surprise after coach Troy Calhoun said earlier in the week the injured quarterback would be out for a while, completed only 4 passes, but they went for a total of 151 yards.
- Larrier threw a 34-yard pass to Jared Roznos in the first quarter that Navy was fortunate wasn't a longer gain. That drive ended in a missed field goal.
- On the first play of the second quarter, with the Falcons facing second-and-10 from their own 6, Larrier found Kinamon up the right sideline for the 94-yard touchdown.
- After that it was a pretty typical run-heavy game between the two military academies.
- Navy freshman Braxton Woodson relieved injured quarterback Tai Lavatai (Sr) in a win over Charlotte the previous weekend, and Woodson started this game. But after the Midshipmen managed only 11 yards and one first down through three quarters, Lavatai took over in the fourth.
- Navy finally started moving the ball with Lavatai before a third-down penalty derailed the drive. He also was intercepted twice during that final period. The second of those turnovers was returned 18 yards for a touchdown by Alec Mock.
- Lavatai threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Eli Heidenreich (So / SB) in the final minute to deny Air Force its first shutout against Navy. The only shutout in series history was a 17-0 win by the Midshipmen in 1975.

GAME 8

TEMPLE 32, NAVY 18

Lincoln Financial Field • Philadelphia, Pa. • 13,049

- Temple quarterback E.J. Warner threw for 402 yards and 4 touchdowns to lead the Owls to a 32-18 victory over Navy at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia.
- Temple dominated the first half, outscoring Navy 17-0 and outgaining the Mids 209-63. Navy's longest drive of the first half was 28 yards, while Temple scored the first 3 times it had the ball with Warner tossing a 22-yard touchdown pass to Joquez Smith and a 24-yard touchdown pass to David Martin-Robinson sandwiched around a 42-yard field goal by Camden Price.
- It looked like it would be more of the same in the second half as Navy lost 1 yard on 3 plays on its first drive. On Temple's first play, Warner hit Amad Anderson Jr. with a short pass over the middle and Anderson Jr. took it 74 yards down to the Navy 10 before Mbiti Williams Jr. (Jr / Bandit) hustled from behind and knocked the ball loose. The fumble was recovered by Luke Pirris (So / Raider) and the Mids averted disaster.
- Once again, the offense went 3-and-out, but Navy caught another break when Anderson Jr. muffed Riley Riethman's 41-yard punt and the fumble was recovered by Jayden Umbarger (Sr / WR) at the Temple 44.
- That play seemed to ignite Navy as it drove 44 yards in 9 plays with Xavier Arline (Sr / QB), making his first start of the year, hitting Eli Heidenreich (So / SB) with a 24-yard touchdown pass on 3rd-and-10 to cut the lead to 17-6. Navy went for 2 and got it when Arline hit Umbarger with the two-point pass to make it 17-8.
- On Temple's next possession, Dashaun Peele (Jr / CB) stepped in front of a Warner pass at the Temple 44 and picked him off for the second year in a row.
- Arline led a 9-play, 44-yard touchdown drive, capping it off with a 2-yard touchdown run on the first play of the fourth quarter and suddenly Navy was down just two at

- Unfortunately for Navy the defense, which had been a bright spot for most of the year, could not deliver. Warner drove the Owls 81 yards on 12 plays capped off by a 13-yard touchdown pass to Jordan Smith to make the score 24-15.
- Navy drove the ball back into Temple territory on the next possession, but had to settle for a 45-yard field goal from Nathan Kirkwood.
- Once again Navy needed the defense to get a stop, however, Warner led the Owls right back down the field, hitting Dante Wright with a 16-yard touchdown pass to seal the win.

GAME 9

NAVY 31, UAB 6

Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium • Annapolis, Md. • 29,078

- Senior quarterback Xavier Arline rushed for a career-high tying 109 yards and a touchdown, while completing 7 of his 10 pass attempts for 94 yards and a touchdown as Navy routed UAB 31-6 at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.
- The Navy defense was sensational all day, holding a potent UAB offense to 321 yards of total offense, including just 206 yards through the air. It is the third time this year the Mids kept an opponent out of the end zone.
- It was a defensive slugfest in the first half with Navy leading 7-6 at the intermission.
- The Mids took a 7-0 lead with 2:49 left in the first quarter when Arline hit Regis Velez (Jr / WR) with a 45-yard touchdown pass.
- UAB would answer with 37 and 29-yard field goals by Matt Quinn to cut the Navy lead to 1.
- Navy had some success moving the ball in the first half, but hurt itself with 2 turnovers that stopped drives, including an Arline interception in the end zone on the second drive of the game.
- UAB took the second half kickoff and moved the ball in to Navy territory, but Dashaun Peele (Jr / CB) picked off Zeno at the Navy 27 and returned it 42 yards down to the Blazer 31. The Mids settled for a 31-yard field goal by Nathan Kirkwood (So / K) to take a 10-6 lead.
- After the Navy defense forced a three-and-out on the next drive, the Mids went on an epic 20-play, 80-yard, 12:44 drive that started with 7:52 left in the third quarter and ended with a 2-yard touchdown run by Daba Fofana (Jr / FB) with 10:08 left in the game.
- The game was still in doubt at 17-6 when UAB got the ball back and moved down to the Navy 32, but on third-and-four the Blazers had back-to-back false starts and then on third-and-14 from the Navy 42, Xavier McDonald (Sr / Striker) dropped Lee Beebe for a loss of 1 on a short pass to force a UAB punt.
- Navy would put the game away on the ensuing drive, moving 86 yards on 5 plays with Arline scoring on a 50-yard run to make the score 24-6.
- Rayuan Lane III (Jr / FS) put the cherry on top for Navy on UAB's next possession when he intercepted Zeno and returned it 97 yards for a touchdown. It was the longest interception return in Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium history and the second longest in school history next to John Raster's 100-yard interception return against Army in 1951. It was also the second-longest interception return in American Athletic Conference history.

GAME 10

NAVY 10, EAST CAROLINA 0

Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium • Annapolis, Md. • 29,078

- The Navy defense shut out an opponent for the third time this year, while the offense did just enough in Navy's 10-0 win over East Carolina on Senior Day at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.
- The 3 shutouts are the most in the FBS this year and the most by a Navy team since the 1978 squad posted 4. The Mids came up with 4 turnovers on the day and did not allow East Carolina to reach the 100-yard mark for total offense until late in the fourth quarter.
- The 10 combined points scored in the game tied the AAC record for the lowest scoring game.
- The Navy defense set the tone on the first possession of the game when Dashaun Peele (Jr / CB) intercepted Alex Flinn on the 5th play at the Navy 28.
- Navy scored the only touchdown of the game on its 3rd drive of the game. On 1st down, Xavier Arline (Sr / QB) ran for 39 yards and on the next play Alex Tecza (So / FB) scored from 19 yards out to give Navy the 7-0 lead.
- The Mids had a couple of other opportunities to score in the first half, but Arline lost a fumble on a 1st down play from the ECU 46 on the 1st drive of the 2nd quarter and on the next drive, Arline was sacked and lost a fumble on a 2nd-and-3 play from the ECU 37.
- ECU only came close to scoring once in the first half, after Arline's first fumble. However, after a 16-yard run by Flinn on the 1st play, the defense stiffened and held the Pirates to 0 yards on the next 3 plays and Alex Conrad missed a 49-yard field goal.
- It was more of the same in the 2nd half, as the Navy defense dominated play, giving up just 3 first downs until ECU's final drive.

- The Mids made it 10-0 early in the 4th quarter after Adam Walker II (So / CB) recovered a fumble by East Carolina punter Luke Larsen at the ECU 18. Nathan Kirkwood (So) kicked a 27-yard field goal after the Mids went 3-and-out to make the score 10-0 with 8:49 left.
- East Carolina had 3 more drives to cut into the Navy lead, but never threatened as the Pirates could manage to get into Navy territory just once in the final seconds.
- Arline set a Navy record for completion percentage in a game, completing 10 of his 11 passes (90.9) for 102 yards. The previous record was 88.2 percent (15-17) by Marco Pagnanelli against Duke on Oct. 2, 1982.
- The five wins by Navy are the most since the 2019 team won 11.

#25 SMU 59, NAVY 14

Gerald J. Ford Stadium • Dallas, Texas • 21,490

- No. 25 SMU moved to within one step of winning the American Athletic Conference championship with a 59-14 victory over Navy at Ford Stadium in Dallas.
- The Mustangs were unstoppable in the first half, jumping out to a 52-14 lead. SMU scored 28 points in the first quarter and 24 in the second, while outgaining Navy 452-112.
- SMU quarterback Preston Stone completed 14 of his 19 passes for 322 yards and 3 touchdowns before leaving midway through the second quarter with an injury.
- Navy's only first-half points came on a 1-yard touchdown run by Daba Fofana (Jr / FB) after Eli Heidenreich (So / SB) recovered a muffed SMU punt at the 1-yard line in the first quarter and a 69-yard touchdown run by Braxton Woodson (Fr / QB) in the second quarter.
- The only points scored in the second half was a 74-yard interception return for a touchdown by SMU safety Isaiah Nwokobia.

GAME 12

ARMY 17, NAVY 11

Gillette Stadium • Foxborough, Mass. • 65,878

- (AP) Army linebacker Kalib Fortner scored on a fourth-quarter strip sack and then stopped quarterback Tai Lavatai (Sr / QB) 6 inches from the goal line with 3 seconds left to help the Black Knights beat Navy 17-11 in the 124th meeting between Army and Navy.
- After falling behind 17-3, Lavatai led the Midshipmen to one touchdown to make it a one-score game and then drove them to the Army 6. With roughly 30 seconds remaining in the game, Lavatai threw 2 incompletions before hitting Alex Tecza (So / FB), who was tackled in bounds at the 2.
- With no timeouts - and no opportunity to spike the ball on fourth down - Navy scrambled to line up and managed to get the play off. Lavatai surged forward, but Army held its ground.
- The play was whistled dead and the replay confirmed the ball never crossed the goal line. To kill the remaining 3 seconds, Army quarterback Bryson Daily took a shotgun snap, hesitated and stepped out of the end zone for an intentional safety.
- Daily ran for 84 yards and threw Army's first touchdown pass against Navy since 2015 to help the Black Knights claim bragging rights.
- Kanye Udoh ran for 88 yards for Army, which also claimed the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy that goes to the team with the best record in head-to-head matchups against other service academies. The Black Knights upset then-No. 17 Air Force in November.
- Army took a 10-0 lead against a Navy team that had zero pass completions at the half.
- Lavatai replaced starting QB Xavier Arline (Sr) in the second quarter, rushing for 74 yards and completing 16 of 26 passes for 176 yards. Lavatai drove Navy into field position early in the fourth to make it 10-3.
- But with about 5 minutes left, Fortner punched the ball out, picked it up on one bounce and scampered 44 yards for a touchdown that gave Army a 17-3 lead.
- Lavatai hit Jayden Umbarger (Sr / WR) from 14 yards out to make it 17-9 with under 5 minutes left; the 2-point conversion failed. After an unsuccessful onside kick, Navy forced a punt and came within inches of a potential game-tying score.
- Lavatai's 176 yards passing were the most yards passing by a Navy quarterback against Army since 2010 when Ricky Dobbs threw for 186 yards against the Black Knights in a 31-17 win. Navy's Colin Ramos (Sr / LB) led all defensive players in tackles with 16 to become the first Navy player with 100 tackles in a season since Diego Fagot in 2019.
- For its 124th edition, America's Game made its first trip to Massachusetts, where George Washington first took command of the Continental Army and the USS Constitution, the world's oldest commissioned naval warship -- is docked.

1924 ROSE BOWL

Navy 14, Washington 14

Rose Bowl Stadium • Pasadena, Calif.

The Midshipmen had completed a 5-1-2 season when they were invited to meet Washington in the 1924 Rose Bowl. After a scoreless first period in which the Huskies held Navy on the one-yard line, the Mids scored early in the second quarter when Pete McKee surprised Washington with a 30-yard pass to Carl Cullen. The Huskies tied the game moments later on a 22-yard run. McKee and Cullen hooked up once again, this time on a seven-yard scoring strike to give Navy a 14-7 lead. Washington closed out the scoring following a fumble recovery on the Midshipmen 10-yard line.

1955 SUGAR BOWL

Navy 21, Mississippi 0

Tulane Stadium • New Orleans, La.

Quarterback George Welsh led the "Team Named Desire" to a 21-0 triumph over Southeastern Conference champion Mississippi. "He (Welsh) was a genius at calling plays today," said Navy coach Eddie Erdelatz. Fullback Joe Gattuso Sr. was given the Warren Miller Trophy as the game's most valuable player after rushing for 111 yards on 16 carries and scoring two touchdowns. Halfback Jack Weaver had 106 yards rushing and scored the Mids' other touchdown on a pass from Welsh. Welsh, in addition to running the option perfectly, completed 8-of-14 passes for 76 yards.

1958 COTTON BOWL

Navy 20, Rice 7

Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas

"Gentlemen, this was the best ball club I have ever had the privilege of coaching," intoned coach Eddie Erdelatz in the Navy locker room following the Mids' 20-7 Cotton Bowl win over Rice. The expected duel between the two quarterbacks, Navy's Tom Forrestal and Rice's King Hill, never materialized. Tony Stremic and Bob Reifsnnyder paced the Navy defense early on. The Mids scored in each of the first two periods (Joe Tranchini on a one-yard keeper and Harry Hurst on a 13-yard run). Halfback and team captain Ned Oldham scored on a 19-yard run and had a pair of conversions.

1961 ORANGE BOWL

Missouri 21, Navy 14

Orange Bowl Stadium • Miami, Fla.

Missouri held 1960 Heisman Trophy winner Joe Bellino to four yards on eight carries and defeated the Midshipmen 21-14. The Midshipmen scored early when end Greg Mather intercepted a lateral and sprinted 98 yards for a score. But Missouri countered with an interception return for a touchdown. Bellino scored Navy's second touchdown of the day when he made a spectacular grab of a pass from Hal Spooner and did a somersault out of the end zone. Spooner completed 13-of-21 passes for 176 yards but was intercepted four times.

1978 HOLIDAY BOWL

Navy 23, BYU 16

San Diego Stadium • San Diego, Calif.

Navy rallied from a 13-point deficit early in the second half to defeat Brigham Young 23-16 in the first Holiday Bowl. The catalyst in the Mids' comeback was split end Phil McConkey, with help from quarterback Bob Leszczynski and the defensive unit. Leszczynski got the Mids going in the third period on a 77-yard TD drive that featured a 16-yard reverse by McConkey, the game's MVP. Moments later, a McConkey reverse of 26 yards set up a 28-yard field goal from Bob Tata that narrowed the deficit to 16-13. With the defense holding the Cougars to just 24 yards over the final 24 minutes, Leszczynski fired down the sideline to McConkey, who raced to the end zone to complete a 65-yard play. Navy was ranked 17th in the country in the final UPI poll.

Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Navy twice rallied from significant deficits before eventually bowing to Ohio State 31-28 in the 23rd playing of the Liberty Bowl. The determined Midshipmen had a 97-yard scoring drive in the final 5:14 that pulled them to within three points. Navy trailed 10-0 at one time, but had pulled to 17-13 at halftime. The Mids went ahead in the third period when George Herlong blocked a punt and Ken Olson raced in from 10 yards out for a touchdown. Trailing 31-20 with only eight seconds left in the game, Navy scored when Marco Pagnanelli passed one yard to tight end Greg Papajohn, and the two teamed for the two-point conversion. Tailback Eddie

1996 ALOHA BOWL

Navy 42, California 38

Aloha Stadium • Honolulu, Hawaii

Ben Fay came off the bench in the fourth quarter to lead touchdown drives of 80 and 84 yards, as Navy rallied for a 42-38 victory over California in the Aloha Bowl.

Cal jumped on top on the opening kickoff as Deltha O'Neal returned it 100 yards for a touchdown. Navy answered quickly on a three-play, 69-yard drive, capped off by a seven-yard touchdown run from Tim Cannada. After Cal went back on top, 14-7, Navy answered with two quick touchdowns of its own, as Chris McCoy scored from one yard out and Ross Scott scored from four yards out. Cal bounced right back to take a 28-21, but McCoy answered with a two-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 28 with 39 seconds remaining in the half. That was plenty of time for Cal, as it marched 61 yards in 29 seconds to take a 35-28 halftime lead.

Fay entered the game with 10:38 remaining and promptly drove the Mids 80 yards in 10 plays, as he scored from two yards out to pull the Mids to within three. The Navy defense got the ball back for Fay when junior tackle David Viger stripped Cal quarterback Pat Barnes of the ball and Jerome Dixon recovered it.

Fay made the game-winning drive look easy, marching the Mids 84 yards on six plays, the big play being a 52-yard pass to senior slotback Cory Schemm. Fay scored from 10 yards out to give the Mids a 42-38 victory.

2003 EV1.NET HOUSTON BOWL

Texas Tech 38, Navy 14

December 30, 2003

Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas

Texas Tech quarterback B.J. Symons threw for 497 yards and four touchdowns as Texas Tech defeated Navy 38-14 in front of 51,068 fans at Reliant Stadium in the EV1.net Houston Bowl.

The game started exactly like the Mids would have liked as Texas Tech missed a field goal on its opening drive, after advancing the ball to the Navy six-yard line, and then the Mids marched 78 yards on 15 plays on its initial drive, chewing up the clock as they went. The first quarter ended scoreless with Craig Candeto being ruled down at the one-yard line on his third down option keeper.

Navy head coach Paul Johnson decided to go for it on fourth down and Candeto was stopped short once again and when he tried to reach for the goal line the ball popped out of his hands and Texas Tech's Keyunta Dawson picked it up and returned the fumble to the Tech 34. Replays showed Candeto was clearly down when he fumbled.

The Navy defense held again as Tech quickly moved down to the Navy seven-yard line, but Josh Smith picked off Symons' pass on third down and returned it 36 yards to the Navy 38.

The Mids couldn't move the ball on its second possession and after a failed fake punt, Texas Tech moved 47 yards on five plays to take a 7-0 lead on a four-yard touchdown pass from Symons to Mickey Peters.

The Navy offense moved the ball right back down the field on its next possession, but on third-and-four fullback Kyle Eckel was stopped for no gain and then Eric Rolfs missed his first field goal attempt in nine tries as his 37-yard attempt went wide left.

Tech took advantage of the missed field goal as Symons hit Nehemiah Glover with a 17-yard touchdown to make it 14-0 Tech at the half.

The Mids refused to give up as Candeto directed an 11-play, 79-yard drive to start the second half, capped off by his own two-yard touchdown run on fourth and goal to make it 14-7.

Tech answered Navy's touchdown drive with one of its own as the Red Raiders marched 67 yards on nine plays with Taurean Henderson scoring from four yards out to make it 21-7.

2004 EMERALD BOWL

Navy 34, New Mexico 19

December 30, 2004

SBC Park • San Francisco, Calif.

Aaron Polanco accounted for four touchdowns and 237 yards of total offense as Navy defeated New Mexico 34-19 in the 2004 Emerald Bowl. The victory gave the Midshipmen a school-record tying 10 wins for the season and marked just the fifth bowl victory in school history.

After the Lobos took a 7-0 lead on the first possession of the game, the Mids answered with a touchdown drive of their own, moving 80 yards on just seven plays. Polanco scored from 14 yards out to tie the game at seven.

The game turned on the ensuing possession when safety Vaughn Kelley hit New Mexico's DonTrell Moore just as he was catching a pitch. The hit caused a fumble that was recovered by Lane Jackson and knocked Moore out of the game.

Navy quickly took advantage of the turnover, as Polanco scored from one yard out five plays later to give Navy a 14-7 lead. The touchdown was set up by a third-and-eight pass from slot back Frank Divis to Polanco for 17 yards.

Josh Smith stopped New Mexico's next drive with an interception and the Mids made the Lobos pay dearly, as Polanco hit wide receiver Corey Dryden on the second play from scrimmage with a 61-yard touchdown pass to make the score 21-7.

After the two teams punted on their initial possessions of the third quarter, Polanco ran for his third touchdown of the day, this one from 27 yards out, to make the score 31-19.

New Mexico, however, marched right back down the field. The Lobos had the ball first-and-goal at the Navy six, but on fourth-and-goal from the one Lobo running back D.D. Cox was stopped short of the goal line by Kelley and Bobby McClarin.

The Navy offense would take over the game from there, mounting an epic 26-play, 94-yard, 14:26 drive that was capped off by a Geoff Blumenfeld 22-yard field goal to make the score 34-19. The 26 plays and 14:26 time of possession were both NCAA records for a single drive.

2005 POINSETTIA BOWL

Navy 51, Colorado State 30

Qualcomm Stadium • San Diego, Calif.

Sophomore slot back Reggie Campbell tied an NCAA bowl game record with five touchdowns as he helped lead Navy (8-4) to a 51-30 rout of Colorado State (6-6) in front of 36,842 fans at the inaugural Poinsettia Bowl. The two teams combined for a then NCAA bowl game-record 1,183 yards.

Campbell, who was named the game's offensive MVP, scored on 55- and 34-yard scoring strikes from quarterback Lamar Owens and on runs of 22, two and 21 yards to tie a record set by four others, most notably by Barry Sanders in the 1988 Holiday Bowl.

Navy took its first lead of the game, a lead it would never give up, early in the second quarter when Marco Nelson scored on a 22-yard run around the right end, capping off a seven-play, 68-yard drive.

After the Navy defense forced a Colorado State punt, the Mids marched 80 yards on 11 plays as Campbell matched Nelson's TD run with a 22-yard touchdown gallop of his own. The Mids defense forced another punt and Campbell capped off an 89-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown run 28 seconds before intermission and the rout was on.

Campbell would score his fourth touchdown of the game on the first possession of the second half on a 21-yard jaunt to give the Mids a 34-10 lead.

2006 MEINEKE CAR CARE BOWL

Boston College 25, Navy 24

December 30, 2006

Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, N.C.

Steve Aponavicius nailed a 37-yard field goal as time expired to give Boston College (10-3) a 25-24 victory over Navy (9-4) in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

Navy outplayed the Eagles on both sides of the ball, but a couple of turnovers, two questionable holding calls and a bad bounce allowed the Eagles to escape with the victory.

Boston College jumped out to a 6-0 lead in the first quarter when Eagle quarterback Matt Ryan scored from two yards out.

Navy answered with a 10-play, 88-yard drive capped off by a 31-yard touchdown pass from Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada to Tyree Barnes to give a 7-6 lead.

After a Jeremy McGown interception of a Ryan pass gave Navy the ball back at the BC 44-yard line, the Mids took eight plays to take a 14-6 lead on a five-yard touchdown run by Zerbin Singleton. It was Singleton's first-career touchdown.

Kaheaku-Enhada threw his second touchdown pass of the day, this time to Jason Tominson, to give Navy a 21-13 lead.

Aponavicius hit a 26-yard field goal at the gun to cut Navy's lead to five at the half.

Navy regained the momentum to start the second half, going 85 yards on 11 plays. Matt Harmon's 22-yard field goal gave Navy a 24-16 lead.

Ryan threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 24-22, but the two-point conversion failed.

After both teams traded punts, Navy took the ball over at its own 24 with 4:09 remaining in the game. After picking up two first down, the Mids ran a toss play to Shun White on third-and-six. White appeared to pick up the first down and clinch the game, but the officials flagged the Mids for holding. On the next play Reggie Campbell took his eyes off of Kaheaku-Enhada's pitch and Boston College's Jolon Dunbar picked up the fumble at the Navy 45 and returned it five yards. Six plays later, Aponavicius nailed the 37-yard field goal to give the Eagles the win.

2007 POINSETTIA BOWL

Utah 35, Navy 32

Qualcomm Stadium • San Diego, Calif.

Utah (9-4) outscored Navy (8-5), 21-0, over a seven-minute span in the second half to rally for a 35-32 Poinsettia Bowl victory over the Midshipmen in front of 39,129 fans at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego. The game was the debut for Navy head coach Ken Niumatalolo.

Utah would take a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter on a five-yard touchdown run by Darrell Mack. The Mids would answer Utah's score with one of their own, driving 70 yards in eight plays. Junior quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada capped the drive with a one-yard touchdown run to tie the score at seven.

Joey Bullen's 39-yard field goal with 28 seconds left in the half gave Navy a 10-7 halftime lead.

The Mids made it 17-7 on the first drive of the third quarter. Junior fullback Eric Kettani busted through the Utah secondary and rumbled 43 yards for a touchdown to give Navy a 17-7 lead.

Jereme Brooks scored from 23 yards out off a reverse to cut Navy's lead to 17-14 and then Utah took the lead when Johnson hit Derrek Richards with a 40-yard touchdown pass to make the score 21-17. Johnson's 19-yard quarterback draw gave Utah a 28-17 lead with 12:47 left in the contest.

To Navy's credit, the Mids refused to quit as Kaheaku-Enhada led Navy on a nine-play, 81-yard drive that was capped off by a 10-yard touchdown pass to White that made the score 28-25.

The Utah offense would answer with a Mack one-yard run and the Utes appeared to have an insurmountable 35-25 lead with 1:27 left.

The Mids, however, had other ideas. Kaheaku-Enhada hit Zerbin Singleton with a 58-yard touchdown pass that made the score 35-32 with 57 seconds left. Bullen then pulled off a perfectly-executed on-side kick that initially Utah's Dale had his hands on, but Singleton ripped it out of his hands giving the ball to Navy at its own 42 with 57 seconds left. After Kaheaku-Enhada ran for nine yards on first down, his pass was intercepted by Dale at the Utah 31 after Campbell slipped coming out of his route.

2008 EAGLEBANK BOWL

Wake Forest 29, Navy 19

Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium • Washington, D.C.

Wake Forest (8-5) outscored Navy (8-5) 22-6 in the second half to rally for a 29-19 victory over the Midshipmen in the inaugural EagleBank Bowl at RFK Stadium in Washington, D.C.

Navy jumped out to a 13-0 lead thanks to field goals of 40 and 47 yards by Matt Harmon and a 50-yard return of an Alphonso Smith fumble by senior cornerback Rashawn King.

The Mids were looking to add to their lead late in the second quarter, driving the ball deep into Wake Forest territory, but on second down from the Wake Forest 27-yard line senior quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada overthrew Tyree Barnes and Smith intercepted the ball at the two-yard line.

The Navy defense had dominated the game up to that point, but the Mids allowed Wake Forest to drive 98 yards in 3:48 to cut the Mids lead to 13-7 at the half.

The Demon Deacons took their first lead of the game on their first drive of the second half, driving 73 yards on 10 plays (nine of those plays were runs) in 5:17. Adams scored from five yards out to make the score 14-13.

Navy would retake the lead early in the fourth quarter after a defensive stand gave the ball to the offense at the 50-yard line. Kaheaku-Enhada ripped off a 35-yard run on the first play and then he scored from two yards out five plays later to make the score 19-13. Navy's two-point conversion attempt failed.

Navy's lead did not last long as Wake answered Navy's touchdown with one of its own, marching 80 yards in nine plays. The big play of the drive was on third-and-seven when Skinner hit Chip Brinkman with a 44 yard pass down to the Navy 11-yard line. Skinner struck again two plays later on another third-and-seven, this time hitting Ben Wooster with an eight-yard touchdown pass. Skinner converted the two-point conversion with a pass to Devin Brown to make the score 22-19.

Shun White returned the ensuing kickoff all the way down to the Wake Forest 11-yard line, but the play was called back after Navy was nailed for holding.

Navy still had two opportunities to tie or retake the lead, but Kaheaku-Enhada was stopped for no gain on third-and-five from the Navy 47 on the first drive and then lost a fumble on fourth-and-10 on the second drive.

2009 TEXAS BOWL

Navy 35, Missouri 13

Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas

Quarterback Ricky Dobbs rushed for 166 yards and three touchdowns on 30 carries and completed nine of his 14 pass attempts for 130 yards and a touchdown, while the Navy defense held Missouri to just one touchdown as the Mids routed the Tigers 35-13 in front of a crowd of 69,441 at the Texas Bowl.

Dobbs set a Navy bowl record for rushing yards and tied the record for carries and rushing touchdowns en route to being named the Texas Bowl MVP. Slot back Marcus Curry also had a big day, rushing for 109 yards and a touchdown on 12 carries and catching five passes for 97 yards.

The Navy defense opened the game in a 2-4-5 alignment that befuddled the Missouri offense all day. After giving up a 58-yard touchdown pass from Blaine Gabbert to Danario Alexander on the second play of the game, the Mids allowed just six points over the final 59:24.

After the Alexander touchdown run on the second play of the game, Navy tied it on a one-yard touchdown run by Dobbs with 2:58 left in the first quarter and then took the lead for good on a 12-yard run by Dobbs with 45 seconds left in the half. That touchdown was set up by a Vela fumble recovery.

Bobby Doyle's three-yard touchdown reception on a slant route from Dobbs extended the lead to 21-10 early in the third quarter and then Navy put the game away in the fourth on Curry's 11-yard touchdown run and a one-yard touchdown run by Dobbs.

The Mids gashed the Missouri defense, which entered the game ranked 11th in the country against the run, for 515 yards, including a Texas Bowl-record 385 yards on the ground. Missouri was held to 356 yards of total offense, including a paltry 65 rushing yards.

Linebacker Ross Pospisil led the Navy defense with nine tackles, 1.5 sacks and an interception, while outside linebacker Craig Schaefer had eight tackles, three tackles for a loss and a sack. Safety Wyatt Middleton added an interception and outside linebacker Ram Vela recovered a fumble.

2010 POINSETTIA BOWL

San Diego State 35, Navy 14

Qualcomm Stadium • San Diego, Calif.

Freshman tailback Ronnie Hillman rushed for 228 yards and three touchdowns, while junior quarterback Ryan Lindley completed 18 of his 23 passes for 276 yards and two TDs to lead San Diego State to a 35-14 victory over Navy in front of a San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl record crowd of 48,049 at Qualcomm Stadium.

The Aztecs jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter as Hillman scored on a 22-yard touchdown run and wide receiver Vincent Brown caught a 53-yard touchdown pass from Lindley.

Navy cut the lead to 14-7 early in the second quarter when, on third-and-19, senior quarterback Ricky Dobbs hit wide receiver Greg Jones with a 30-yard touchdown pass.

San Diego State went back up by 14 with 3:15 left in the half when Hillman scored on a 37-yard run, but the Mids answered with a 10-play, 73-yard scoring drive to cut the lead to 21-14 at the half. Dobbs hit Jones with a 40-yard pass down to the San Diego State 11 and then scored from the one with seven seconds remaining to give the Mids some momentum heading into the locker room.

Navy got the ball to start the third quarter and moved it to the San Diego State 9-yard line where the Mids had it first-and-goal. On first down, Dobbs was stopped for no gain and on second down he rushed for six yards to the Aztecs 3-yard line. On third-and-goal, sophomore slot back Bo Snelson was stopped for no gain and on fourth down Dobbs just barely overthrew an open Snelson in the end zone as the Mids turned the ball over on downs.

The score remained 21-14 until early in the fourth quarter when Lindley hit Hillman with a 15-yard touchdown pass to make it 28-14.

Dobbs ended his celebrated career by rushing for 107 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries and completing eight of his 15 passes for 147 yards with one TD and one interception. Meanwhile, Jones finished with three catches for 85 yards and a touchdown.

Outside linebacker Jerry Hauburger led the defense with 11 tackles, while linebacker Tyler Simmons and safety De'Von Richardson finished with seven stops each. Linebacker Matt Warrick and safety Wyatt Middleton pitched in five stops each.

2012 KRAFT FIGHT HUNGER BOWL

Arizona State 62, Navy 28

AT&T Park • San Francisco, Calif.

Taylor Kelly threw four touchdown passes and ran for a fifth score to lead Arizona State to a 62-28 victory over Navy in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl in front of 34,172 fans at AT&T Park.

Offensive MVP Marion Grice ran for 159 yards and two touchdowns for the Sun Devils (8-5), who used their fast-paced spread offense to score touchdowns on their first nine possessions.

Among the highlights for Navy were Keenan Reynolds' 3-yard TD pass to Matt Aiken in the first half and a 95-yard kickoff return for a score by Gee Gee Greene in the third quarter. Greene's kickoff return for a TD was the first in school history in a bowl game.

Arizona State's Rashad Ross started and ended the first-half scoring with touchdown receptions. His 16-yard catch from Kelly capped a 75-yard game-opening drive and he got behind the Navy defense for a 52-yard score in the final minute of the half to make it 34-7. Ross then caught a 50-yard TD pass on Arizona State's first drive of the second half to make it 41-7.

Grice scored on a 10-yard run in the first quarter and a 39-yarder in the third. He had 19 touchdowns this season, with 11 coming on the ground.

The Midshipmen had a few opportunities to keep the game close on offense in the first half but Greene was unable to hold onto a pass in the end zone on fourth-and-7 from the 31 in the first quarter and Reynolds lost three yards on a third-and-1 keeper from the eight before Nick Sloan missed a field goal.

Sen. John McCain, a former Navy fighter pilot who represents Arizona in Congress, handled the pregame toss. Instead of using a coin, the game sponsored by Kraft, uses an Oreo with one side being a chocolate cookie and the other vanilla.

Greene carried the ball 12 times for 112 yards to go along with his kickoff return for a touchdown. Freshman fullback Chris Swain rushed for 93 yards and a touchdown on four carries, while sophomore fullback Noah Copeland rushed for 47 yards on 10 carries.

Brandon Turner caught a 23-yard touchdown pass from Trey Miller in the fourth

2013 BELL HELICOPTER ARMED FORCES BOWL

Navy 24, Middle Tennessee 6

Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

Keenan Reynolds joined the 30-touchdown rushing club in Navy's 24-6 victory over Middle Tennessee in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl.

Reynolds had a three-yard score to cap the opening drive for Navy (9-4) and added a one-yarder in the fourth quarter. Already holding the NCAA record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback, Reynolds upped his total to 31 to match Colorado State running back Kapri Bibbs, also a sophomore, for the national lead

The only players with more rushing TDs in a season were Barry Sanders (37) with Oklahoma State and Wisconsin's Montee Ball (33).

Navy piled up 366 yards rushing and finished its season with five straight victories

The Blue Raiders (8-5) were held to a season low in points. They had finished the regular season with a five-game winning streak, averaging nearly 43 points a game in that stretch - since a 34-7 loss on Oct. 12 at North Texas.

Reynolds lost two fumbles, matching his total during the regular season, but Middle Tennessee failed to convert into points on either of the miscues. Both fumbles were recovered by linebacker T.T. Barber, Middle Tennessee's MVP, after Navy drove inside the 20.

Down 10-6 at halftime, the Blue Raiders moved to the Navy seven on the opening drive of the second half. They went for it on fourth down instead of trying a short field goal, but fullback Corey Carmichael managed only a yard before getting taken down by Travis Bridges and George Jamison, who also had an interception.

2014 POINSETTIA BOWL

Navy 17, San Diego State 16

Qualcomm Stadium • San Diego, Calif.

Austin Grebe kicked the go-ahead, 24-yard field goal with 1 minute, 27 seconds left to lead the Midshipmen to a 17-16 victory over San Diego State in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

The Mids won their fourth straight and for the sixth time in seven games. They've won consecutive bowl games for just the second time in history. Additionally, they were playing just 10 days after beating Army for the 13th straight time.

The winning drive was set up when Navy's Chris Johnson forced and recovered a fumble by Donnell Pumphrey.

Fullback Chris Swain converted on a fourth-and-1 and Ryan Williams-Jenkins took a pitch and ran 28 yards to help set up the game-winner by Grebe.

San Diego State then got to the Navy 17 before Hageman missed. Hageman earlier made field goals of 43, 37 and 30 yards. His third field goal gave SDSU a 16-14 lead late in the third quarter.

Junior quarterback Keenan Reynolds ran for two touchdowns, extending his own NCAA record for scores by a quarterback to 64.

He scored on a 1-yard keeper for the game's first score and then somersaulted into the end zone at the end of a 6-yard run to give Navy a 14-13 lead midway through the third quarter.

Leading 16-14, SDSU went for it on fourth-and-5 from the Navy 12 but Quinn Kaehler's pass to Mikah Holder was incomplete.

Navy punted on its next possession but got the ball back after Pumphrey fumbled.

The Midshipmen rushed for 254 yards, led by Swain with 72 yards on eight carries.

Navy improved to 2-2 in the Poinsettia Bowl. The victory avenged a 35-14 loss to SDSU in the 2010 Poinsettia Bowl.

Reynolds was named the game's offensive MVP, while senior linebacker Jordan Drake, who tied his career high with 13 tackles, was named the game's defensive MVP.

2015 MILITARY BOWL

Navy 44, Pitt 28

Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium • Annapolis, Md.

Senior quarterback Keenan Reynolds wrapped up his record-setting college career in spectacular fashion, running for three scores and throwing for another to lead Navy past Pittsburgh 44-28 in the Military Bowl. With Reynolds leading the way, the Midshipmen completed their first 11-win season in 135 years of football.

After the Midshipmen let a 24-point cushion dwindle to 38-28, Reynolds capped a nine-play drive with a 9-yard touchdown run with 4:19 remaining. It was his 88th career TD, breaking a tie with Kenneth Dixon of Louisiana Tech for most in Football Bowl Subdivision history. Reynolds ran for 144 yards on 24 carries, completed 9 of 17 passes for 126 yards and had a reception for 47 yards on a trick play. He leaves Navy as the FBS career leader in touchdowns and points (530). His 4,559 yards rushing are the most by a quarterback in Division I history.

Quadree Ollison rushed for 73 yards and scored two touchdowns for Pitt. Nate Peterman threw a TD pass, but was intercepted three times. It all added up to a disappointing ending for the Panthers in their first season under coach Pat Narduzzi.

After Quadree Henderson returned the opening kickoff 100 yards for Pitt, Navy went up 21-7 at halftime and built a 31-7 lead midway through the third quarter. Pitt scored two touchdowns in 17 seconds to close to 31-21, but could not complete the comeback.

Playing before a sellout crowd of 36,352 in its home stadium, Navy used its triple-option attack to overwhelm a team that went 6-2 in the Atlantic Coast Conference and ranked 20th in the nation against the run. The Midshipmen finished with 590 yards in offense, including 417 on the ground - 114 by senior fullback Chris Swain.

After Henderson weaved from end zone to end zone for the game-opening score, Reynolds directed a 75-yard drive that ended with his 1-yard touchdown run. Later in the first quarter, Reynolds capped a 14-play march with a 5-yard TD. Navy's next touchdown came on an 11-yard pass from Reynolds to Tyler Carmona.

Niumatalolo momentarily abandoned the triple option in the third quarter in favor of a bit of trickery. Reynolds pitched the ball to fullback Shawn White, then went around the right side of the line for a catch-and-run that set up a 26-yard touchdown jaunt by Demond Brown.

It was 31-7 before Nate Peterman threw a 4-yard TD pass to Ollison, and a 22-yard fumble return by Jordan Whitehead got Pitt within 10 points. After Navy scored another touchdown, Ollison ran for a 45-yard score to make it 38-28.

But this was to be Reynolds' day. In his final significant drive with the Midshipmen, he converted three third downs and drew the Panthers offside on a fourth-and-3. Junior corner Brendon Clements had two interceptions for the Navy defense, while senior safety Lorentez Barbour also picked off Peterman.

2016 ARMED FORCES BOWL

Louisiana Tech 48, Navy 45

Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

Louisiana Tech senior quarterback Ryan Higgins threw for 409 yards and four touchdowns, two each to Trent Taylor and Carlos Henderson, and Jonathan Barnes' 32-yard field goal broke the game's fourth tie as the Bulldogs beat Navy 48-45 in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl.

The Bulldogs drove for the winning score after Navy freshman quarterback Malcolm Perry ran 30 yards for a touchdown on his only play. Higgins was then 4 for 4 for 58 yards on the final drive.

Taylor, the 5-foot-8 senior, set an Armed Forces Bowl record with his 12 catches for 233 yards, including a 51-yard TD just before halftime for a 31-24 lead, and joined Troy Edwards as the only Bulldog with more than 4,000 career receiving yards. Henderson, a junior, had 10 catches for 129 yards and finished this season with 19 TDs

Perry, whose TD with 3:46 left tied the game at 45-45, came in after Zach Abey took a shot to the ribs on a play that led to a targeting ejection by Tech defensive tackle Jordan Bradford.

Abey, who made only his second career start, ran for 114 yards and two scores and threw for 159 yards and another touchdown. Abey was named Navy's Most Valuable Player in the game.

The 45 points were the second-most points Navy has ever scored in a bowl game and most it has scored in a loss.

2017 MILITARY BOWL

Navy 49, Virginia 7

Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium • Annapolis, Md.

Backup quarterback Zach Abey scored five touchdowns, starter Malcolm Perry ran for 114 yards and two scores and Navy rolled to a surprisingly easy 49-7 victory over Virginia in the Military Bowl played at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

After Virginia's Joe Reed took the opening kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown, the Midshipmen got two TDs apiece from Perry and Abey in taking a 28-7 halftime lead.

Perry left in the third quarter with a foot injury, leaving Abey to score on runs of 5 and 20 yards to make it 42-7 in a game Navy entered as a 1 1/2-point favorite.

The Midshipmen rolled up a Military Bowl-record 452 yards rushing, including 101 by Chris High and 88 by Abey, who began the season as the starter before losing the job.

After scoring on a 1-yard run with 11:11 remaining, Abey sat down after becoming the fifth player in FBS history to rush for five TDs in a bowl game.

Playing in their first bowl since 2011, the Cavaliers (6-7) could not contain Navy's triple option and had no success moving the ball.

Seeking its first winning season in six years, Virginia instead absorbed its sixth loss in seven games.

Virginia senior Kurt Benkert came in with a school-record 3,062 yards passing this season, along with 25 touchdown passes. In this one, he went 15 for 34 for 133 yards and an interception, and the Cavaliers finished with a season-low 175 yards in offense.

Navy scored on its opening drive that ended with a 1-yard run by Abey. The Midshipmen then forced a three-and-out, and Perry finished an eight-play drive with a 22-yard touchdown run for a 14-7 lead.

Perry scored from 19 yards out and Abey concluded the first-half scoring with a 1-yard TD. By then, Reed's kickoff return was irrelevant.

2019 LIBERTY BOWL

Navy 20, Kansas State 17

December 31, 2019

Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Bijan Nichols kicked a 23-yard field goal with two seconds remaining and No. 21 Navy capitalized on a fourth-down gamble in the final minute to beat Kansas State 20-17 in the Liberty Bowl.

A Navy team with the nation's top-ranked rushing attack set up the winning score by completing a halfback option pass with less than 30 seconds left. The Midshipmen snapped the ball on fourth-and-3 from the Kansas State 46. Quarterback Malcolm Perry pitched to C.J. Williams, and he threw downfield to a wide-open Chance Warren for a 41-yard gain.

Perry, who rushed for 213 yards, spiked the ball with 5 seconds left to set up Nichols' field goal. Nichols had missed a 38-yarder earlier in the fourth quarter.

The victory enabled Navy (11-2) to tie a program record for wins and ensured the Midshipmen will finish a season in the AP Top 25 for just the third time in the last 56 years. Navy finished 18th in 2015 - when it also won 11 games - and was 24th in 2004.

Navy went 3-10 last year and matched the second-biggest season-to-season improvement in win-loss record of any team in Football Bowl Subdivision history.

The Mids made that dramatic turnaround thanks largely to Perry, who capped a brilliant senior season with 28 carries and a touchdown pass.

Perry ran for 2,017 yards this season to set a Football Bowl Subdivision record for yards rushing by a quarterback. The record had been owned by Jordan Lynch, who ran for 1,920 yards for Northern Illinois in 2013.

Navy dominated much of the game but wasted a couple of opportunities to put it away. The Mids led 17-10 late in the third quarter when a holding penalty on Billy Honaker wiped out a 31-yard run by Perry that would have given them first-and-goal at the 2. Navy ended up punting.

Nichols then sent a 38-yard field goal attempt wide left with 8:26 left in the game. At that point, Navy was outgaining Kansas State, 351-83, but only led 17-10.

Kansas State finally got its offense going at that point, as Skylar Thompson connected with Wykeen Gill on a 15-yard completion and a 42-yard pass on back-to-back plays. Those long gains set up Thompson's 1-yard sneak that tied the game with 5:14 left.

That set up Navy's dramatic winning drive.

NAVY RADIO NETWORK

Pete Medhurst is in his 12th year as the Voice of Navy Football and has been with the Navy Radio Network since 1997 handling pregame, postgame, sideline and play-by-play duties for football and play-by-play for men's and women's basketball, men's and women's lacrosse, baseball, volleyball, swimming and wrestling.

Medhurst, born and raised in Anne Arundel County and a graduate of Southern High School, has been the play-by-play announcer for Navy basketball for the past 14 seasons and has been the voice of Navy lacrosse for the last 24 years. He is widely considered one of the top lacrosse announcers in the country.

Medhurst has also handled football play-by-play duties for HDNet and CBS Sports Network and lacrosse for ESPN and the Big Ten Network. He has also filled in on radio broadcasts for the Washington Nationals and is the proud owner of a 2019 Washington National World Series ring.

Joe Miller, who has been involved with the Navy Radio Network since 2001, enters his 12th year on the broadcast team and his sixth as the color analyst.

Miller, who was also born and raised in Anne Arundel County and is a Southern High School graduate, has worked with Medhurst on the football pregame and postgame shows and has been the play-by-play announcer for Navy men's and women's basketball, men's and women's lacrosse, men's and women's soccer and baseball.

Miller was the play-by-play announcer for Johns Hopkins lacrosse from 2004-12 where he called four NCAA Lacrosse Championships. Additionally, he's also called Maryland lacrosse on the Maryland Radio Network and has served as play-by-play announcer on the Comcast Network. Miller has also called games for D.C. United.

Keith Mills is in his sixth year with the Navy Football Radio Network serving as the sideline reporter.

A former Maryland Sportscaster of the Year, Mills joined the WBAL Sports team in 2006, part of a 40-year-local broadcasting career that began in June of 1979.

A multiple Edward R. Murrow and Emmy award winner, Keith began his journalism career at the Baltimore News American working for legendary Sports Editor John Steadman. He began his television career at WJZ TV as a sports producer in 1979 and eventually became an on-air sports reporter for the station.

In 1987, Keith joined the sports department at WMAR-TV as the weekend sports anchor before joining WBAL in 2006.

A graduate of Brooklyn Park High School and Towson University, Keith was the Monday through Friday sports anchor for the WBAL TV Morning Show while hosting a variety of special programming for WBAL TV, WBAL AM 1090 and 98 Rock radio before retiring in 2019.

Mills still does work for WBAL including Ravens pre-game and post-game shows and NFL draft, Preakness, Orioles and Navy Football.

Among some of his most memorable sports moments in Baltimore that Mills has covered include the last Orioles World Series championship in 1983, the Orioles last weekend at Memorial Stadium in September of 1991, both Ravens Super Bowls wins, Cal Ripken breaking Lou Gehrig's consecutive game streak and numerous Army-Navy football games.

A member of the Anne Arundel County Sports Hall of Fame and the Maryland Swimming Hall of Fame, Keith was also heavily involved in covering the Olympic Games, producing ABC's regional soccer tournament coverage in Annapolis during the 1984 games while documenting the many local athletes who went on to win Olympic gold medals: such as Theresa Andrews, Beth Botsford, Anita Nall and Michal Phelps in swimming, Carmelo Anthony and Angel McCoughtry in basketball and Matthew Centrowitz in track and field.

Extremely active in the community, Mills has coached a variety of amateur and high school sports while also serving a six-year term on the Board of Directors of Special Olympics Maryland while emceeing dozens of charitable and foundation events.

Scott Wykoff returns for his sixth year as the studio host on the Navy Football Radio Network.

For more than two decades, Wykoff has been one of the most enthusiastic and recognizable voices in Baltimore radio.

Wykoff joined WBAL Radio in 2002 and his signature natural sound-rich stories and live coverage of breaking news and sports stories have been honored with some of the most coveted awards in broadcasting, including four National Edward R. Murrow awards from the RTDNA and two Best In Show honors from the prestigious National Headliner Awards.

Wykoff was the station's lead reporter for WBAL's National Thoroughbred Racing Association Eclipse Award winning coverage of the 2006 Preakness documenting Barbaro and the Kentucky Derby winning horse's breakdown in Baltimore and lifesaving surgery at the New Bolton Center in Kennett Square, PA.

In addition to covering the top story each morning live on-location around the Baltimore-area on WBAL Radio, Wykoff also covers the Ravens and Orioles, including Super Bowl XLVII in New Orleans and the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame inductions of Cal Ripken and Eddie Murray in Cooperstown, NY and Jonathan Ogden and Ray Lewis in Canton, OH. Travelling across the nation, he reported back to Baltimore from the 2004, 2008 and 2012 Democratic and Republican National Conventions. Wykoff also chronicled Baltimore-native Michael Phelps' record-setting Olympic swimming career.

Wykoff is also the main play-by-play announcer for Navy Baseball, Navy Sprint Football, Navy Wrestling and assists with Navy Volleyball telecasts on ESPN+. Wykoff also fills-in as public address announcer for Navy Basketball at Alumni Hall. In addition, he hosts Navy Insider specials on WBAL Radio and the weekly Navy Insider Podcast during the college football season.

Before joining WBAL, Wykoff was a reporter at WMAL Radio in Washington, DC from 1992-2002. He covered a wide variety of news and sports stories in the Nation's Capital, including breaking news, the 9-11 attacks, the Redskins and the University of Maryland basketball team. While at WMAL, he won a National Edward R. Murrow Award for his coverage of the last game of Cal Ripken Jr's Hall of Fame career with the Orioles.

Wykoff was a past president of the Chesapeake Associated Press Broadcasters Association.

In 2010, Wykoff's extensive coverage of the Preakness and horse racing in Maryland earned him the prestigious Maryland Jockey Club's Old Hilltop Award. He joined the likes of legendary sports journalists like Red Smith and Jim McKay as winners of the Old Hilltop Award. He now serves as the emcee for the annual Preakness Alibi Breakfast prior to the Middle Jewel of Racing's Triple Crown at Pimlico.

Wykoff was selected as "Baltimore's Best Radio News Reporter" by Baltimore Magazine in 2011.
